

“KIDDIES SIX”

A LITTLE BOOK OF HOMELY VERSE
WRITTEN AT ODD TIMES BY

WILL M. MAUPIN

¶ Most of them are about children, or Home Ties, or Old Times, and while pretending no great literary merit do, at least, deal with subjects dear to men and women who feel.

Handsomely Bound in Cloth with gold lettering and containing photos of the “Six Kiddies”, the “Little Woman” and “Dad.” Printed in clear type on fine paper.

¶ Price; Postpaid $1.00--Ready Sept. 1, 1911. Do not send the dollar now. Just send your order. You will be notified when book is ready--then you can send your dollar.

ADDRESS

WILL M. MAUPIN

240 No. 33, Lincoln, Nebr.