YOU CAN'T BUY CLOTHES

That will hold their shape better than the ones we sell you if you pay $100 a suit for them. We buy the best and there is no better than the best. But we don't charge you the price that you pay for the best at other stores, and that's why you should buy your clothing here.

OUR POLICY

is to sell a Suit for as little money as we possibly can and make a living profit. There's a vast difference in this policy and the one that takes 100 per cent profit NOW, when everybody needs clothes, and during July "clearing sales" slashes prices.

There's not a man in town so fastidious that he can't please himself from our stock of Spring and Summer Suits, and every Suit bought here tend and pay thy tithes with regularity. Thou shalt not attribute unholiness to thy brother in union. Beware of the fact that, though thou be honest, "there are others."

III.
 "Thou shalt not take thy neighbor's job."

IV.
 Thou shalt not labor more than eight hours for one day's work, nor on the Sabbath nor on any of the holy days (holidays).

V.
 Thou shalt not hire out thy offspring of tender years. "Poverty and instruction to his children."

VI.
 Clothe not the wife of thy bosom in mean apparel, lest it be a testimony against thee.

VII.
 Thou shalt not live in a hovel, nor feed on the husk that the swine doth eat. Take thou not alms from the unrighteous, lest it bemean thee.

VIII.
 Honor the female sex, for on this rock rests the welfare of man.

IX.
 Waste not thy life in the chase after the ethereal, lest the substance be flitted from thee. The Lord helps those who help themselves. Thou helpest thyself best by helping thy brother workers in the union of labor.

X.
 Thy brother's welfare is thy concern; therefore shalt thou have a care for him and his. Associate thyself with thy brother worker, that thy pay may be heightened, thy hours of labor shortened and the days of thy life and the lives of all may be lengthened and brightened.—Iowa Unionist.

WAS NEWS TO HALL.

Prominent Attorney Didn't Know He Is a Union Man.

The greatest can learn something from the least if the great will only listen once in a while. Frank M. Hall is admittedly one of the best lawyers in the west. But while knowing a lot of law, Judge Hall is ignorant along a great many other lines. The other day he was discussing—or trying to discuss—the trades union question with a Lincoln unionist. He said he didn't care a darn whether an article was made by a convict or a free man. And he said he didn't believe in trades unions. "They are unamerican, and a hindrance to the workmen themselves," he said.

"But, you are a member of one of the strongest unions in the country," said the union man.

"Indeed, I am not," declared Judge Hall.

"You are a member of the Bar Association, sir, and that is a very strong union. But the lawyers, as a class, even apart from the Bar Association, are thoroughly organized—so thoroughly that a man can not practice law before the courts of this land unless he has complied with certain rules laid down by lawyers already admitted, those rules being given the added weight of legislative enactment. These statutes, which are the rules under which lawyers work, were drawn by lawyers and enacted into law. As a free man I have just as much right to practice law in the courts of this land, without submitting to your rules, as the non-union man has to work at my trade without first submitting to the rules of my organization."

And while Judge Hall spluttered a good deal, he could not find in all his finely legalized gray matter a single answer to the argument. The reason for his failure lies in the fact that there was no answer. Judge Hall claims the protection of a magnificent ly organized union, but having secured the advantages of that organization he would deny the every day mechanic the benefits of a like organization. Perhaps that is what Judge Hall would call "fairness," "equity," "justice." Lawyers have some funny names for some queer things.
