THE CARPENTERS

Evidently Too Busy to Send News to The Wageworker.

The union carpenters of Lincoln must be a mighty busy lot these days. Not a news item from them for three weeks.

At the meeting last week the carpenters agreed that it was best not to parade on Labor Day, and heartily agreed upon a picnic. But when it came to patronizing a resort that could be reached only by paying four fares on a non-union street car line, they balked hard. The carpenters are getting the label habit bad.

An ex-business agent of the Kansas City Carpenters is laying brick in Argentine. Has he a card in the Bricklayers' union.

Kansas City Union took another lurch forward at the last meeting, thirteen candidates being initiated. Seventy per cent of the mechanics in one of the largest mills in the city are now members of the union, and the other 30 per cent "are on the way."

Fifteen members of the Brotherhood of Carpenters of Newark, N. J. were fined $100 each by the union for not striking. They refused to go out on a recent strike when ordered, and when the firm which employed them settled its differences with the union they were discharged.

CENTRAL LABOR UNION.

First August Meeting Will Be Held Next Tuesday Evening.

The Central Labor Union will hold its first August meeting next Tuesday evening, and owing to the near approach of Labor Day it is to be hoped that every delegate will make it a point to be present. There is a lot of business waiting for the attention of the central body. If the delegates would show up and take some interest in the work it would be possible to soon report the organization of two or three new unions in the city.

Several of the unions have not been represented for a long time, some have never been represented, and some have been represented but once or twice during the last six months. This is not as it should be. The meet Tuesday night should be one of the largest held in recent months.

There is going to be an election of officers in a few weeks, and the accredited delegates ought to be getting in the habit of attending so they can select the best available material to conduct the affairs of the body.

A lot of people waste time in trying to cultivate a "love of the artistic" in the bosoms of those who have to sweat blood every day in order to get enough to live on.

WOMEN UNIONISTS MEET.

National Trades Union League Hold Three Big Meetings.

The Women's National Trades Union League recently held simultaneous meetings in New York, Boston and Chicago. All meetings were largely attended. The coming of the industrial women into the suffrage ranks will greatly strengthen those ranks, because the self-supporting woman is determined and because she is self-respecting. What women sadly need today is genuine self-respect. They sit quietly by and hear themselves declared intellectually inferior. They allow their own sons to speak of them as dependents.

At the New York meeting, Mary Dreier said, "Woman's entrance into the industrial world is developing a social conscience in women, as it has done in men, and more and more of us are seeing the vision without which people perish as the prophet has said." Rose Pastor Stokes declared, "If suffrage comes to women, it will come through the working women and not through the club women." A woman suffrage resolution was passed.

The Chicago meeting was held at Hull house. Delegates were there from Ohio, Michigan, Indiana, Wisconsin, Minnesota and Missouri. This division resolved to ask the Federal Government to appoint a woman upon the National Labor Bureau.

SHOULD--BUT WILL IT?

The use of Pinkerton detectives in the Colorado mining regions should open the eyes of labor leaders. It should have a tendency to make all meetings of unions open to the public and do away with the detestable, contemptible detective, who, in the guise of a union man, betrays his brethren into the hands of the law, and that by urging them on to violence, in order to enable him to draw his salary from his employers. Nearly all international bodies now meet with open doors, and they should hasten the day when the subordinate unions must do the same.--Sloux City Union Advocate.

GOOD FOR HAYWOOD!

Refuses a Big Bunch of Money to Pose as a Dime Museum Freak.

Secretary Haywood has been offered $1,000 to speak twice daily for a week at a Denver amusement resort, and he has indignantly refused the offer. "I am not a dime museum freak," declared Haywood. A lecture bureau has offered him $10,000 for one hundred lectures during the coming winter, and this legitimate offer he has under consideration.

Haywood postponed his return to Denver, thus preventing a big reception from his friends, by remaining in Salt Lake City until his old friend, John H. Murphy, general counsel of the Western Federation of Miners, was able to travel. Murphy is in the last stages of tuberculosis. Despite his condition he insisted on appearing with counsel during the trial, but when it was ended he was unable to return to Denver immediately. He was compelled to stop for rest at Salt Lake City, and Haywood remained by him.

"John remained by me when I was in trouble, and I'll stay by John until he is able to get home," said Haywood. And so the Denver demonstration was sidetracked. At Ogden a big crowd gathered to greet Haywood, but he refused to shake hands with anybody until he saw his invalid wife safely in a carriage, and had greeted his aged mother, who was at the depot to meet him. When wife and mother were safely in the carriage Haywood turned to his friends with a smile, thrust out both hands and said: "All right now, boys."

And that's "Bill" Haywood, the man they tried to hang for crimes that would make even Satan himself blush. Haywood is making good these days, and in doing so he is making friends for himself and for unionism. He is taking Murphy's advice. As soon as he was released from jail and had greeted his wife and mother, Haywood hastened to the bedside of Murphy, picked him up in his strong arms and hugged him to his breast. Murphy, with tears of joy running down his face, put his hand on Haywood's shoulder and said:

"In your hour of vindication don't forget to be humble, Bill."

Can you believe that men who talk and act like that could be guilty of the horrible crimes charged against them? It is unbelievable.

DISTRESSING ACCIDENT.

Glenn Williams Instantly Killed at Western Newspaper Union.

Working a freight elevator without orders and ignorant of its mechanism, Glenn Williams, aged 14, was instantly killed at the Western Newspaper Union building Monday morning about 10:30. Young Williams was employed the day before as office and errand boy in the office. Manager Julian insists that running the elevator was not a part of the boy's duties.

Young Williams, it seems, stood on the second floor and pulled the cable that started the elevator upward. He raised the gate and let it rest on his shoulders while waiting for the platform to come up, and when it did the gate held him until the platform crushed his head like an eggshell against the floor above. Death must have been almost instantaneous. "Ted" Righter heard the unfortunate lad give one scream and rushed to the scene. "Ted" managed to stop the elevator, but not until young Williams was dead. The poor boy's head was literally crushed, and his brains scattered upon the floor. Coroner

Graham was notified and the body was taken to Roberts' undertaking establishment. An inquest was held in the afternoon.

Mr. Williams, father of the dead boy, says Glenn was past fifteen years old. "I did not know he was supposed to run an elevator or I certainly should not have let him taken the position."

"We have no elevator conductor," said Manager Julian. The pressmen and the stockman are supposed to run the elevator when it is necessary, and they understand it thoroughly. The elevator is equipped with automatic gates and is as safe as an elevator. The coroner's jury relieved the Western Newspaper Union management of all responsibility.

CAUSES OF SOCIAL EVIL

The "social evil" is with us today; it was with us yesterday; we are told it commenced many thousands of years ago; we have every reason to believe it will be with us when Gabriel toots his horn. Unless we remove the cause for it. When we educate the people to know that poorly paid women cause it; the child labor produces it; poorly paid workmen encourage it, then if it will ever be removed. Until then the best thing we can do is to confine it as nearly as possible to a certain district where policemen can keep it within bounds. In the meanwhile, let's do everything we can to keep children out of the workshops, and women, when they must work, paid a decent wage.--Union Banner.

The machinists have made a settlement with the American Cotton Picker Company, of Pittsburg where 40 men were called out last week. The men at this plant were out about three days when the officials of the firm decided to accede to the terms of the men. Another settlement will probably be announced in a few days.
