

A TERRIBLE EXPERIENCE.

How a Veteran Was Saved the Amputation of a Limb.

B. Frank Doremus, veteran, of Roosevelt Ave., Indianapolis, Ind., says: "I had been showing symptoms of kidney trouble from the time I was mustered out of the army, but in all my life I never suffered as in 1897. Headaches, dizziness and sleeplessness, first, and then dropsy. I was weak and helpless, having run down from 180 to 125 pounds. I was having terrible pain in the kidneys, and the secretions passed almost involuntarily. My left leg swelled until it was 34 inches around, and the doctor tapped it night and morning until I could no longer stand it, and then he advised amputation. I refused, and began using Doan's Kidney Pills. The swelling subsided gradually, the urine became natural and all my pains and aches disappeared. I have been well now for nine years since using Doan's Kidney Pills."

Painting for Profit

No one will question the superior appearance of well-painted property. The question that the property owner asks is: "Is the appearance worth the cost?"

Poor paint is for temporary appearance only.

Paint made from Pure Linseed Oil and Pure White Lead is for lasting appearance and for protection. It saves repairs and replacements costing many times the paint investment.

The Dutch Boy trade mark is found only on kegs containing Pure White Lead made by the Old Dutch Process.

HANLON TO RETIRE AT END OF THE SEASON

Manager of Cincinnati Team Says This is Probably His Last Year in Game.

Manager Ned Hanlon, of the Cincinnati team, has announced that he does not expect to be actively engaged in baseball next year.

"These stories of my retirement that have been going the rounds for some weeks have caused me to realize that I am doing myself an injustice by neglecting my home and my other business affairs by being on the road several months of the year. Next season probably will see me permanently located in Baltimore, with another manager in charge of the Reds."

The baseball fans of Cincinnati naturally look on John Ganzel as the successor of Hanlon.

In giving up his place Hanlon will, it is understood, give up $12,000 a year, which is declared to be the annual salary named in his two-year contract.

His retirement from this club may mean that he will give up baseball, for he is so well fixed that he could profitably devote all his time to the management of his property in Baltimore.

Case Patten Tells Fellow Players of Promising Profession.

A crowd of the Washington ball players were assembled at the clubhouse when a discussion arose regarding the number of players that each year break into the professionals.

Case Patten, who has been for some time a member of the baseball man, as in the old days there were not nearly so many players who were inclined to study. They usually went into business.

Some one in the back of the room shouted out that he did not believe in professions, anyway, as they were mostly all overcrowded now, and there was a slim chance for a young fellow getting to the top in any of them nowadays.

"I know a profession," cried out Case Patten, "where any young man can find room at the top."

"And what profession is that, Case?" interestedly inquired Hickman, while the rest of the crowd stopped to listen.

"Why, the aeronautic profession," shouted Case, as he quickly sidestepped in order to dodge the sponges which were hurled in his direction.

THREE I LEAGUE HAS RECORD

Features of 22-Inning Game Recently Played at Clinton, Ill.

Clinton and Peoria set up a new no-run record for the Three I league the other day when they played 21 innings at Clinton without either team having scored, and the game finally was won by the Distillers in the last of the twenty-second.

The Distillers topped off the remarkable exhibition by throwing in a triple play in the first of the twenty-second inning.

Two notable fielding records, which probably are without equals in the history of the game, also were made.

Dick Egan, playing second for the Distillers, accepted 23 chances without a skip, and Harry Swagnes, on first base of the same team, took 33 chances without a bobble.

Paul Moore pitched the Distillers to victory against Manager Harry Stauffers for the "Infants." Nearly 15 years ago Joe McGinnity, then an unknown coal miner, pitched a 22-inning contest for Peoria against St. Joseph, Mo., and won it, and along with it the title of "Iron Man," which still clings to him.

AMERICAN LEAGUE NOTES

Clarke Griffith intends to make an outfielder out of Catcher Rickety.

The Boston club has recalled infielder Charley Wagner from Rochester.

Matty McIntyre is putting in his spare time scouting for the Detroit club.

Archer is the best fielding catcher on the Detroit team, but the weakest hitter.

The Boston club has turned Pitcher Oberlin over to Toronto for the balance of the season.

Pitcher Joe Doyle, of the New York Americans, has been dubbed the "Human Snail."

Manager Cantillon, of the Washingtons, has an extensive hospital list with Clymer, Warner, Blankenship and Jones out of the game, all suffering with injuries.

SETTING THE BRIDE AT EASE.

"Widder's" Sympathy Went Out to Fellow Passenger.

A couple recently married had just entered the train that was to bear them to the mountains on their honeymoon, when they became aware of the close scrutiny of them by a female passenger, who had evidently "spotted" a bride and groom. The young wife, on opening her handbag, let fall some rice on the floor, and the woman smiled. The other passengers regarded the couple with interest. Seeing that the bride was every moment becoming more flushed and uncomfortable by reason of their scrutiny, the woman in the goodness of her heart, leaned across the carriage.

"Never mind, my dear!" she said. "I'm a widder now, but by this time next week I'll be in the same fix myself!"

NO RELIEF FROM ECZEMA

For Over Two Years—Patent Medicines, Quack Cures and Doctors Fail—Cuticura Succeeds.

"I was very badly afflicted with eczema for more than two years. The parts affected were my limbs below the knees. I tried all the physicians in the town and some in the surrounding towns, and I also tried all the patent remedies that I heard of, besides all the cures advised by old women and quacks, and found no relief whatever until I commenced using the Cuticura Soap, Cuticura Ointment, and Cuticura Resolvent. In the Cuticura Remedies I found immediate relief, and was soon sound and well. C. V. Beltz, Tippecanoe, Ind., Nov. 15, '05."

Depends on the Dogs.

Asa Goddard, of the American Automobile association, was recounting in Worcester some of his touring adventures.

"One summer morning," he said, "the approach of a great flock of sheep obliged me to pull off the narrow country road. I halted my car, and watched with interest the passage of the sheep, the intelligent dogs and the shepherd."

"I had a short talk with the shepherd about his odd and difficult trade."

"Look here," I said, "what do you do, driving sheep like this on a narrow road, when you meet another flock coming in the opposite direction?"

"Well," said the shepherd, "ye just drive straight on, both of ye, and the one that has the best dogs gets the most sheep."

What Caused the Lynching.

Out at Stafford the other day a group of farmers met a train, and when a tall, sunburned man stepped off the car they all grabbed him and shook his hand warmly. The man looked them over calmly and then said: "Gentlemen, I am sorry to disappoint you. I know you think I am a harvest hand, but you are mistaken. I am a lightning rod agent."—Kansas City Star.

Father's Way.

"What's Jim crying about?"

"He got a licking."

"But I thought he padded himself with straw."

"He did, but his father beat about the bush."

Simplicity's Saving Grace.

"I like simplicity," said Senator Beveridge. "Simplicity saves us a lot of trouble, too."

"Two men met in front of the Blank hotel the other day and fell into a political argument. They were ordinary, everyday sort of men, but one of them had an extraordinary flow of polysyllabic language. He talked half an hour, and his companion listened in a daze."

"And now," the speaker pompously concluded, "perhaps you will coincide with me?"

"The other's face brightened up."

"Why, yes; thanks, old man," he answered heartily, moving toward the barroom door, "I don't care if I do."

Prince Consort a Hero.

Prince Henry, consort of Queen Wilhelmina of the Netherlands, distinguished himself the other day in the eyes of his royal helpmeet's subjects by recovering her favorite dachshund, which she had lost while walking in a pine forest near one of her residences. The story of this heroic feat is thus told by an admiring correspondent: "The queen was exceedingly sorry, for she was much attached to this particular dog. Prince Henry therefore determined to go out himself to look for the missing favorite. He went at once to the forester's house in the woods and sat up all night until the first streak of dawn, when he began searching the forest. To his great delight he was rewarded by finding 'Paulinchen.'" A prince consort unquestionably has his uses.

You can kill time, but it will come back and haunt you.

Dr. F. Gerald Blattner, of Buffalo, N. Y., says: "Your Castoria is good for children and I frequently prescribe it, always obtaining the desired results."

Dr. Gustave A. Elsengraeber, of St. Paul, Minn., says: "I have used your Castoria repeatedly in my practice with good results, and can recommend it as an excellent, mild and harmless remedy for children."

Dr. E. J. Dennis, of St. Louis, Mo., says: "I have used and prescribed your Castoria in my sanitarium and outside practice for a number of years and find it to be an excellent remedy for children."

Dr. S. A. Buchanan, of Philadelphia, Pa., says: "I have used your Castoria in the case of my own baby and find it pleasant to take, and have obtained excellent results from its use."

Dr. J. E. Simpson, of Chicago, Ill., says: "I have used your Castoria in cases of colic in children and have found it the best medicine of its kind on the market."

Dr. R. E. Eskildson, of Omaha, Neb., says: "I find your Castoria to be a standard family remedy. It is the best thing for infants and children I have ever known and I recommend it."

Dr. L. R. Robinson, of Kansas City, Mo., says: "Your Castoria certainly has merit. Is not its age, its continued use by mothers through all these years, and the many attempts to imitate it, sufficient recommendation? What can a physician add? Leave it to the mothers."

Dr. Edwin F. Pardee, of New York City, says: "For several years I have recommended your Castoria and shall always continue to do so, as it has invariably produced beneficial results."

Dr. N. B. Sizer, of Brooklyn, N. Y., says: "I object to what are called patent medicines, where maker alone knows what ingredients are put in them, but I know the formula of your Castoria and advise its use."

SORE SHOULDERS

I would like very much to personally acquaint every reader of this paper who owns any horses that have sore shoulders and tell him about Security Gull Salve. This is impossible so I am going to tell you through the paper.

You and I both know that horses working with sore shoulders are in pain, and that they can do as much work with the running down as when they are free from pain. I also know perfectly well that Security Gull Salve will cure these shoulders, but you do not know it. If you did you would buy a box of your dealer at once and cure them up. If you have no doubt often wished that you knew of something you could rely on. You can rely absolutely on Security Gull Salve. It will do its work every time, or if you prefer to try it first, I will mail you a sample can free. Just write for it—it will go to you on first mail.

Also I want to tell you that Security Antiseptic Healer is a good for barb wire cuts as Security Gull Salve is for harness galls. Dealers carry them in 5c, 25c and 50c sizes. Use them for your needs. I guarantee you perfect satisfaction.

My dear Fanny

Sunday AM

Of course you know I am doing my own work, 'so and getting on fine. Tho' the first time I had a dicker of a time with my starched ironing, and by the way must tell you, I had such a time with iron sticking declared would never attempt it again. Was telling my next door neighbor 'so she asked if I was using Defiance Starch. I said No. 'so she gave me enough for the following week. It is just lovely with this starch I use for my ironing in one half the time. It is actually fun to use it. The way the iron slips over the clothes never sticks on finished before I know it. Sometimes wish I had a few more pieces.

You must try it. Defiance Starch comes in 16 oz packages sometimes also in 12 oz packages. And really it's no effort to iron with it. Defiance - Lorryly you like
