The Church and Labor

II. SOCIAL UNREST.

At a sociological conference held recently, a speaker made the assertion that during the last twenty-five years social unrest had increased three-fold. He said, furthermore, that during the same period the Church had increased in the same ratio. Therefore, he concluded, the Church had been absolutely non-effective in the matter of keeping down the spirit of social unrest. Then he began a tirade against the Church because of its apparent failure. Granted that his statements concerning the development of both the Church and social unrest are true, and granted that the church has not retarded the growth of social unrest—there is yet another viewpoint. The speaker seemed to imagine that it is the business of the Church to keep down every protest against the present social wrong. This promise is altogether wrong. Rather is the opposite true. It is THE BUSINESS OF THE CHURCH TO CREATE SOCIAL UNREST. And the Church is doing it. There are no labor troubles in Darkest Africa. But the Christian missionaries who are being sent there will create them. They will point out to the natives their low standard of physical, mental and moral life. They will then show them the higher ideals of Jesus Christ, and urge them to attain to the splendid possibilities of the better life. Naturally, there will then come a dissatisfaction with their present state, and there will follow a spirit of unrest, which will manifest itself in the hunger for the ideal. This has been the history of the Church.

It is only after the Church has prepared the way by sending its best men and women into darkened lands—who often suffer death—and poured millions of dollars into these fields, that the professional social agitator steps in and builds upon the foundation already laid by the Church. Then, in all likelihood, he will turn around and denounce the Church for non-effectiveness. He never lays the foundation. He never makes the sacrifice. He is simply the irresponsible critic, whose very safety and comfort has been made possible by the devotion of the martyrs whose blood was sacrificed for him.

Have you ever heard of a social propagandist going to a cannibal island to build up an ideal social system? THEY surely need his help. But not much. It's easier, and safer, too, to remain in even a "so-called" Christian land, and do business there.—Rev. Charles Steiwe.

WILL IT BE ALWAYS?

Some labor bills are being passed. "Passed up," is what I mean; And as they go, the face of "Joe" Is thrown upon the screen. So long as workmen shall vote For Cannon and his kind, They stay just like the old cow's tail, A hanging on behind. —Kansas City Labor Herald.

A GREAT ENTERTAINMENT.

Something Good in Store During Union Label Exhibition.

The select company giving union label exhibitions under the auspices of the International Boot and Shoe Workers' Union will be in Lincoln on Wednesday, May 20. Speaking of this entertainment the St. Paul Union Advocate says:

"Every feature of the exhibition was first class of its kind, and all were apparently highly appreciated as the responsiveness of the audience proved. The moving pictures were intensely funny in subject and delineation and unusually clear, bright and smooth in execution. The pianist was a master in his line, the singer satisfied all requirements and expectations, the illustrations of the songs were beautiful and appropriate, and the speaker, Mr. C. J. McMorrow, who explained the labels and also outlined the aspirations, purposes and achievements of the labor movement, was particularly happy in his remarks which were rich in breadth of thought, aptness of illustration and grace of diction."

THE CARPENTERS.

Planning to Hold a Union Revival To Run for Weeks.

The Carpenters are planning on going into a union revival scheme following in the general revival at the Auditorium next week, and to that end have their educational secretary Mr. Chase, framing up some programs and looking after speakers. The plan is to have the unions occupying the Carpenters' hall give way their meeting nights for about two straight weeks, allowing the hall to be used for revival purposes. If the plan goes through there will be meetings every night, with prominent leaders in the world of labor to preach good union doctrine to the toilers and revive their interest in the label and enthrone them on the Labor Temple proposition.

The Carpenters have been having an outsider address them every Tuesday night for some time, and are so well pleased with the results that they want to try it on a larger scale with the co-operation of other unions.

PRINTERS' MEMORIAL DAY.

Program Arranged for Observance of the Day in Lincoln.

Printers' Memorial Day will be observed by Lincoln Typographical Union No. 209 on Sunday, May 23. At 10:15 Sunday morning the union and auxiliary will meet at the north entrance of the State House and at 10:30 will proceed in a body to the First Baptist church, Fourteenth and K streets, where special memorial exercises will be held, the pastor, Reverend Samuel Zane Batten, delivering the memorial sermon. Special music will be arranged for the occasion.

At 3 o'clock sharp in the afternoon the union and auxiliary will meet at the Fraternity building, and at 3:15 will take special cars for Wyuka cemetery. At the Typographical Union's burial lot regular memorial services will be held. Addresses will be made by L. D. Woodruff, honorary member of No. 209, and J. R. Bain, president of the union. A quartet will sing and prayer will be offered by Reverend J. Mickel. Decoration of the graves of the deceased members of the union will close the exercises.

Every member of the union and of the auxiliary is invited and expected to attend both of these services. All who can should bring flowers in the afternoon with which to decorate the graves. The program in full will be published next week.

GOT 'EM GOING.

Union Busters Send Out Hurry Up Call For Big Meeting.

The thirteenth annual convention of the National Association of Manufacturers will convene in the Waldorf-Astoria, New York City, on May 18, 19, and 29, 1908.

The "proclamation" issued is a hummer and contains four "whereases" and a resolution to the effect that "industrial legislation of the most vital importance to manufacturers of the country is now pending before congress and that any member physically able to attend the convention and failing to do so, will be derelict in his duty to the association and unmindful of his best business interests." Hurrah!—Detroit Union Advocate.
