THE PHILOSOPHY OF LABOR UNIONISM

Is Its Economic Foundation Scientific? Question Answered by Clyde J. Wright.

"Whether or not a boycott is ethical, or whether or not picketing is scientific, is not the question. These movements of organized labor are questions of tactics and have both a philosophical and scientific basis in economics, namely: 'The law of resistance.'"
 These were the remarks of Clyde J. Wright in dealing with the problem of organized labor, in his lecture, "The Doctrine of Resistance," at A. O. U. W. hall, last Sunday.
 Mr. Wright proceeded to qualify by saying: "One set of men, under the present system of capitalism, owning for the sole purpose of making profits, the factories—the only factories; the mines—the only mines; and all other machinery and resources by which men are employed for wages, continually strive to drive downward wages, until American consciousness rebels in the face of an unwarranted low standard of living.
 "Asking" for just legislation has proven useless, pleading for living wages has been in vain.

 WITH NO LAW FOR THE WORKING CLASS AND ALL LAW FOR THE CAPITALIST CLASS, IN OBEDIENCE TO THE LAW OF "SELF PRESERVATION," THE WORKING CLASS, IN SPITE OF THEMSELVES, HAVE BEEN FORCED TO BAND TOGETHER AND TAKE ADVANTAGE OF THE ONLY LAW LEFT IN HUMAN DEFENSE—"THE LAW OF RESISTANCE."
 Mr. Wright flayed the Anarchists—drove his arguments home and clinched them.
 The subject of next Sunday's lecture will be, "The Clash of the Classes."
 Professor Franta will render a violin solo. There is no need to eulogize Professor Franta—he is an artist.
 Union men and their friends will find these meetings exceedingly interesting.
 Meeting opens promptly at 3 p. m., Sunday, Feb. 20.
 At A. O. U. W. hall, 1007 O St. Admission Free.

ARE YOU DEALING WITH THEM?—THE HOME MERCHANTS.

 We want to call attention to our advertisers. Are you dealing with them? They are the ones who are making this paper possible and are demonstrating in the only way practicable that they want your trade. They deserve it and should get it. Are you trading with merchants who refuse to patronize these columns? If so, you are defeating the purposes of this paper, which is to aid you in keeping fair living conditions. If a merchant wants your patronage we know of no better way to demonstrate it than for him to say so through these columns. Please keep in mind and watch the regular change of advertisements. Our advertisers are giving you the best goods at the lowest rates. We pride ourselves on the select quality of our advertisers.

They keep right on putting the screws to the union workers. And the union workers act very much as if they like it.
 If you want to save a few dollars in buying furniture or carpets we have both new and second-hand. Call and see us.—J. C. Pantone & Co.

The Long Winter Nights

May be made bright and cheerful by illuminating the home with either Gas or Electricity. And the disposition of the housewife may be sweetened by relieving her of the drudgery of filling "smelly" kerosene lamps and cleaning smoky chimneys. Nothing is so well calculated to make home happy as bright lights and cheerful dispositions. We will furnish the illumination—and the cheerful dispositions will follow as a natural result.

If It's a Question of Cost

Let us prove to you—as we can—that it is cheaper, more convenient and far better to illuminate with gas or electricity than it is to illuminate with kerosene amps. Counting cost of kerosene and chimneys, to say nothing of the drudgery connected therewith—it costs no more to use gas or electricity. And as for the result—dollar for dollar you get immensely more and better light—always ready, no cleaning, no breakage—by using our illuminants.

Equipping a Modern Kitchen--

Mr. Mechanic, you insist upon having the best and most up-to-date tools. Why deny your good wife the same conveniences for her trade. If you think housewifery is not a trade, just try it. Equip the kitchen with labor saving devices—first a gas range, then electric irons, toasters, etc. Come in and let us show you a few things.
