WISE TO THE GAME.

The July number of the American Federationist is red hot. Sam Gompers has burned the bridges behind him and the fight is for a fair deal before the courts for organized labor must now go on to the finish. Now we will see if the "resolutions" on the executive council with him will let him do all the fighting, as they did in the Littlefield campaign, or get out on the firing line and show their colors. Raymond Robins says organized labor has no other alternative than to fight politically, and we don't know a man wiser to the game than Raymond Robins.—Western Laborer.

HIS RIGHTS ARE RESTORED.

Edward Pearce Was Adjudged Capable of Attending to Business.

A jury in the Wyandotte county district court decided Wednesday afternoon that Edward Pearce, 68 years old, was not feeble minded and ordered that he be restored to his property rights. He had been adjudged feeble minded by a jury in the probate court and the case went to the district court by appeal.

Pearce sold his farm in western Kansas and moved to Kansas City, Kas., last January. He placed the money in the bank, but later drew most of it out and carried it about with him. He had $1,200. He gave this to his wife. Later he desired to invest in Wyandotte county land but his family was unwilling.

Trouble followed and he was placed in a sanitarium. Proceedings were brought in the Wyandotte county probate court and a jury adjudged him feeble minded. He was not present at the hearing, but was in the sanitarium. A guardian was appointed. Later he was sent to the Soldiers' home in Leavenworth. Lawyers of Kansas City, Kas., say there have been several cases wherein sane persons have been adjudged insane. They lay it to the law which provides no fees in cases where the person examined is found to be of sound mind.

FOUR TASTY SOUPS

PREPARED ACCORDING TO MOST APPROVED MANNER.

Clear Tomato Perhaps the Most Popular of All—Cream of Sweet Potato Soup a Popular Southern Delicacy.

Clear Tomato Soup.—Add a pint of water to a can of tomatoes and place in a saucepan. Cut into dice one carrot, one onion, one turnip and one white potato; put two ounces of butter in the frying pan. Add the prepared vegetables and toss about until slightly browned, then stir them into the hot tomatoes, adding a stalk of celery or a quarter of a teaspoonful of celery seed, and boil 45 minutes. Remove from the fire and strain. Season with a teaspoonful of salt and a saltspoonful of white pepper, and then stir in two tablespoonfuls of butter. Serve in bouillon cups with toasted crackers.

Creole Vegetable Soup.—Wash and cut into thin slices half a dozen good sized okras. Place them in a saucepan with a pint of stewed tomatoes and one thinly sliced onion. Cover the whole with two quarts of cold water and simmer for two hours. Add two teaspoonfuls of salt, a saltspoonful of pepper, and two tablespoonfuls of butter. When the butter is dissolved stir in a tablespoonful of mushroom catsup and one tablespoonful of chopped green sweet pickles. Serve with triangles of toasted bread.

Puree of Lima Beans.—Cook one can of lima beans in a pint of salted water, adding a tablespoon of grated onion, a bay leaf, a blade of mace, and three whole cloves. When reduced to a pulp press through a fine sieve. Return to the fire and stir in two coffee cups of milk and season with half a spoonful of salt and dash of cayenne. Thicken with one tablespoon of butter and one of flour rubbed to a paste, letting it just reach the boiling point, to cook the flour. Serve at once with tiny crescents of fried bread.

Cream of Sweet Potato Soup.—This southern delicacy is made by peeling four sweet potatoes, covering with boiling water, and cooking five minutes, after which they should be drained and the water thrown away. Then cover them with one pint of boiling water, adding a slice of onion, a stalk of chopped celery, a bay leaf, and a pinch of thyme. Cover and cook until the potatoes are tender; then press them through a colander. Add one quart of milk and turn into the double boiler; rub together two tablespoonfuls of butter and flour; add to the soup and cook until smooth; season with a teaspoon of salt and a dash of cayenne and strain through a fine sieve. Reheat and stir in two tablespoonfuls of thick cream.

To Clean Lettuce.

When cleaning lettuce one often finds that each leaf is covered with a lot of tiny green bugs which it seems impossible to remove. It is a great time saver to wash the lettuce in cold water first to remove it of dirt, and then take water as hot as you can bear the hands in and place each leaf of lettuce in the water and shake it around in the water several times. You will find that the bugs will loosen their hold on the lettuce and will remain in the water. If the water becomes cool add some more hot water, as the hot water is a great deal more effective than cold. After the bugs are all off the lettuce replace it in cold water for a short time to renew the crispness.

Rotation Cake.

One, two, three, four cake, or rotation cake, as it is sometimes called calls for the following ingredients: One cup butter, 2 cups sugar, 3 cups flour, four eggs, 1 teaspoon soda and 1 cup sour cream. Cream the butter and sugar, beat the eggs well and add to the mixture. Beat in thoroughly half of the flour, then stir the soda into the cup of sour cream, allowing it to foam over into the mixing bowl. Beat in the rest of the flour. Meg Dod's rule of giving 200 beats to every cake the last thing before putting into the oven is an excellent one.

Blueberry Slump.

Bring berries to a boil and sweeten to taste. Mix a dough as follows: Two cups flour, two even teaspoons baking powder, one teaspoon salt, and a little sugar. Moisten with milk or water, or both, until the consistency of dumplings, and drop into the boiling berries. Cook about 15 minutes and serve hot. Allow a teaspoon of baking powder for each cup of flour when making biscuit, dumplings, flapjacks, etc.

To Serve Tomatoes.

Take small yellow tomatoes, remove skins carefully, put them in the ice chest to get cold without freezing. Make a bed of crisp, white leaves of lettuce and arrange tomatoes in uniform order on this; over all sprinkle a little parsley chopped fine. Serve with French dressing.

Asparagus Fritters.

Make a thick sauce with one-half cup of milk, one rounding tablespoon of butter and one-quarter cup of flour. Stir in one cup of cooked asparagus tips and cool. Add one beaten egg and cook on a hot buttered griddle in small cakes.

Protect Sheet Corners.

To prevent sheets from tearing at the corners when hanging on the line on a windy day stitch four or five rows of machine stitching diagonally across each corner of the hem. This will strengthen them wonderfully.
