

INHERITED KIDNEY TROUBLE

Could Feel It Constantly Gaining Ground as Time Passed

Mrs. Frank Roseboom, 512 W. Washington St., Moscow, Idaho, says: "Kidney trouble was hereditary, and my parents spent hundreds of dollars trying to cure me. I was nervous, my eyesight had failed noticeably, my circulation was bad, sleep fitful, heart action irregular, and my back so weak and painful I could hardly stand it. There was also an irregularity of the kidney secretions and a cold always made the whole trouble worse. I could tell many other symptoms, too, but shall only add that Doan's Kidney Pills made me free of all of them."

The childlike way in which our jewelers leave $3,000 worth of diamonds where a man armed with a brick can get at them by breaking the plate glass goes to show that there is faith in the world which human experience would hardly justify.

Tennessee has joined the ranks of the prohibition states. After July 1 it will be illegal to sell liquor within four miles of a schoolhouse. Now all that is necessary is for the people to see that schoolhouses are not more than eight miles apart.

A New Orleans policeman arrested his wife because she was quarreling with another woman and led her to the police station. Most men would hate to hear what he will have to listen to when the affair is a closed incident so far as the public is concerned.

Bills to make compulsory wireless outfits on ocean-going vessels have been introduced in congress. They will be supported by public sentiment, after the splendid showing made by this service, and it will tend greatly to reassure those who either for business or pleasure go down to the sea in ships.

The New York Times tells of a distinguished citizen, asked the other day to sign a petition favoring woman suffrage, who replied that he would do so if two changes were made in the document; first, that if the suffrage were secured by the women it should be taken away from the men, and, secondly, that all women over 40 years of age should have two votes. The ladies are thinking it over.

Senate Sifting File.

The senate sifting committee comprising Diers, Buck, Miller, Ollis, Tanner, Tibbets and Volpp met for the first time Monday evening and decided to report the following bills for consideration:

S. F. No. 235, by Raymond—Publication of proceedings of irrigation boards.

S. F. No. 236, by Raymond—Contracts for water right to include ownership of canals.

S. F. No. 33, by Donohue—Court to give judgment for costs when judgment is rendered.

S. F. No. 344, by Partos—To protect innkeepers from dead beats.

S. F. No. 345, by Partos—Liability of innkeepers for property lost.

S. F. No. 306, by Ransom—Designating the amount of bonds to be given by heads of state institutions.

S. F. No. 321, by Tibbets—Corporations to appoint agents upon whom service may be had.

S. F. No. 304, by Brown—Property outside of villages to be included in school districts.

S. F. No. 348, by Miller—One-fourth of fine in liquor cases to be paid to complaining witness.

S. F. No. 330, by Miller—Extension of street railway lines or purchase of construction lines.

S. F. No. 314, by Howell—To repeal county comptroller law.

S. F. No. 273, by Black—Contractors on public works to give bond to pay for material.

S. F. No. 312, by Hatfield—Fees of county surveyors.

S. F. No. 305, by Ransom—To secure levy of taxes to pay principal and interest on municipal bonds.

S. F. No. 307, by Ollis—Unlawful to assess appointive officers for political purposes.

S. F. No. 334, by Brown—Prohibiting the keeping open of saloons on Sundays.

S. F. No. 335, by Brown—Indeterminate sentences.

S. F. No. 351, by Volpp—For the incorporation of safety deposit companies.

S. F. No. 296, by Volpp—Remonstrators against saloon licenses not in good faith liable for damages and costs, each party to pay for his own witnesses.

S. F. No. 355, by Lavery—To compel a county to pay its half of the cost of building a bridge, not exceeding one-half of $300.

S. F. No. 357, by Ransom—Maintenance of roads and construction of permanent highways outside of cities and towns.

Signed by the Governor.

Governor Shallenberger Monday signed the following bills:

S. F. No. 52, by Miller—A curative act relating to the law of blackmail.

S. F. No. 130, by Miller—To make decrees of divorce effective one year after date of granting.

S. F. No. 66, by King—County judges to report marriage statistics to the state board of health.

H. R. No. 12, by Taylor of York—Costs due decedents to go to estates.

H. R. No. 22, by Talcott—To place criminal insane in asylums.

H. R. No. 27, by Taylor of Hitchcock—Anti-discrimination law to apply to grain buyers.

H. R. No. 13, by Taylor of York—To extend the time for settling estates to three years.

H. R. No. 137, by Chase—For the appointment of county inspectors of cattle and horses.

H. R. No. 34, by Sink—To require hotelkeepers to furnish clean towels and bedding and to regulate sanitary conditions of hotels.

H. R. No. 99, by Bushee—For re-survey of counties by a majority vote.

Governor's Bill.

Governor Shallenberger's bill, introduced by Snyder of Harlan, providing some amendments to the law on seeking pardons from the executive was recommended for passage without discussion. This bill is aimed partly as a relief for the executive from the flood of applications he receives at all times from criminals under sentence asking for hearing with a view of securing a pardon and partly to allow the governor to use his discretion in pardoning a criminal under death sentence when afflicted with an incurable and contagious disease without having absolutely to pardon them. These two points only are added to the present law, and beyond asking a few questions the house made no objection to recommending it.

For District Referendum Bill.

One form of the initiative, restricted to a small unit, a legislative district, was recommended for passage by the committee on privileges and elections Thursday morning despite the fact that the senate turned down the initiative and referendum as applied to a larger unit, the state.

Marlett's bill provides that 10 per cent of the voters of any legislative district may petition to have placed on the primary ballot any subject of prospective legislation, the description of the proposed act not to exceed forty words.

Department at Work.

Chief Game Warden Dan Geilus is now at the head of the game department of the state and his deputies are at work. They are Joseph Boehler of Alma, John Donovan of Madison and Isaac King of Superior. Miss Phoebe Mullen of O'Neill is secretary. Last week Deputy Boehler prosecuted John Chevillier of Maywood for selling and having fish in his possession. The defendant was fined $25 for selling and $10 for having two fish in his possession, making a total of $35. S. F. No. 110, by Banning of Cass, has been approved by the committee of the whole in the senate. It shortens the spring shooting season on ducks five days, shortens the season on chickens in the fall by fifteen days, closes the season on doves and makes an open season on squirrels and makes a closed season for quail.

Carnegie Bill Not Brought Up.

No attempt was made to reconsider the Carnegie pension bill that was killed twice in the house last Friday. The house rule provides that a reconsideration is in order if made by a member of the majority on the same or succeeding days and that a majority of all members of the house is necessary to carry it. Not nearly the full membership of the house was present and it would have been impossible to have secured the required fifty-one votes. It was evident, however, that the opponents of the bill were afraid such an attempt would be made, for they repeatedly sprung the motion to adjourn after the committee of the whole had risen until the speaker ruled that the motion had carried.

House Does Its Own Sifting.

The house sifting committee has not begun action and will not according to its chairman until the house orders it to work. According to Speaker Pool the only purpose of a sifting committee is to get bills which have a strong pull behind them sifted forward so that they will take precedence over other bills, perhaps equally meritorious, which have no such power behind them. The speaker believes that the house in action with all members present is better able to tell what bills are to be advanced and what deserve better than any group of fifty men. Douglas county has not yet selected its two members of this committee.

More New Banks.

Two new banks have incorporated, making a total of eleven new state banks in four weeks. The last two to obtain charters from the state banking board are the Webster county bank of Red Cloud and the Farmers and Merchants bank of Shickley. The Red Cloud bank has a capital stock of $25,000, and is incorporated by S. R. Florence, who is to be cashier and B. F. Mizer, Edward Florence is to be president. The Shickley organization was incorporated by Frederick S. Johnson and George E. Saladin. The latter is president and William A. Snare is to be cashier.

Physical Valuation.

The Ollis physical valuation bill was finally recommended for passage in the house without a sign of antagonism or enthusiasm, or even without a sign of interest on the part of members. There were no negative votes. As it was amended and placed on the desks of members the bill called for the valuation of all public service corporations. Such corporations are defined as steam railroads, telephone and telegraph companies, express companies, water works companies, gas companies, electric light companies, interurban railroads, and the South Omaha stock yards company.

Executor to Select Newspaper.

C. W. Poole's bill providing that the legal representative of the estate of a deceased person shall name the newspaper in which notice of the sale of the property of the deceased shall be published was reported for passage by the house committee on public printing Thursday morning. The probate judge has the power to name the paper in which the notice shall be published under the present law. While Pool does not charge anyone with a graft as a result of the present statute, he is sure that much favoritism is shown by the county judges and depletes the ability given the probate judge to build up a political machine.

To Probe the Packers.

Connolly of Omaha Friday afternoon offered a resolution in the house looking toward the investigation of meat packing companies in Nebraska with a view to ascertaining whether they are in a combination to regulate prices. The investigation is to be made by a committee of three appointed by the speaker. On an objection from Raper the bill went over for one day under the rules.

Recommend State Buys It.

The special committee of the house sent up to look over the Wayne normal school reported Friday afternoon recommending that the state purchase the buildings and grounds at a price of $90,000. The president of the institution has just died, and the property is on the market for $100,000. The committee thinks it is worth fully $150,000 and will supply a section of the state that needs normals.

Carnegie Bill Killed.

In the house Friday afternoon an effort to reconsider the vote of Friday morning, indefinitely postponing the bill to allow the state university to accept the benefits of the Carnegie pension fund, failed by a vote of 47 to 45.

Kills Binding Twine Bill.

By a vote of 21 to 10, the senate Friday afternoon killed the bill providing for a binding twine factory at the state penitentiary, and appropriating $200,000 therefor.

CUTICURA CURED HIM.

Eczema Came on Legs and Ankles—Could Not Wear Shoes Because Of Bad Scaling and Itching.

"I have been successfully cured of dry eczema. I was inspecting the removal of noxious weeds from the edge of a river and was constantly in the dust from the weeds. At night I cleansed my limbs but felt a prickly sensation. I paid no attention to it for two years but I noticed a scum on my legs like fish scales. I did not attend to it until it came to be too itchy and sore and began getting two running sores. My ankles were all sore and scabby and I could not wear shoes. I had to use carpet and felt slippers for weeks. I got a cake of the Cuticura Soap and some Cuticura Ointment. In less than ten days I could put on my boots and in less than three weeks I was free from the confounded itching. Capt. George P. Bliss, Chief of Police, Morris, Manitoba, Mar. 20, 1907, and Sept. 24, 1908."

Worse and Worse.

"I tell you, mamma," cried Freddie, "I don't like that doctor's medicine."
"But this is liniment, my dear," coaxed his mother.

"Well," replied Freddie, very doubtfully, "isn't that rubbing it in?"—Harper's Weekly.
