AFTER SUFFERING ONE YEAR

Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Pinkham's Vegetable Compound made me a well woman and I have no more backache. I hope I can help others by telling them what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me."—Mrs. EMMA IMSE, 833 FirstSt., Milwaukee, Wis.

The above is only one of the thousands of grateful letters which are constantly being received by the Pinkham Medicine Company of Lynn, Mass., which prove beyond a doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, actually does cure these obstinate diseases of women after all other means have failed, and that every such sufering woman owes it to herself to at least give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial before submitting to an operation, or giving up hope of recovery.

Mrs. Pinkham, of Lynn, Mass., invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health and her advice is free.

RECRIMINATIONS.

She-You have now more than a dozen shirts, and when we were married you had only one solitary one! He-Yes, but that one didn't need Fighting Tuberculosis.

Three large fraternal orders are at resent conducting sanatoria for their form of work in the United States, has a sanatorium at Black Mountain, North Carolina. The Modern Woodmen have recently opened a sanatorium at Colorado Springs, and the Knights of Pythias, one at the East Las Vegas, New Mexico. The Royal Arcanum and the Brotherhood of American Yeomen will consider prop in the northern empire. ositions at their coming grand councils for the erection of similar insti-

The Cause of War.

The fair young debutante was surrounded by an admiring crowd of officers at the colonel's ball. Mamma was standing near by, smiling complacently at her daughter's social suc-The discussion was over the quarrel of the day before between two brother officers. What was the casus belli?" asked the fair debutante.

"Maud!" exclaimed mamma in a shocked voice. "How often have I told you to say stomach?"-Success

Tomato Marmalade.

To one quart of ripe tomatoes, meas ured after they have been peeled, cut up, brought to the boil and skimmed thoroughly, or to each two-pound can of tomatoes, take two pounds of sugar. two oranges and one lemon. Remove the pulp from the oranges and lemon with a spoon, boil the rinds until they are tender and cut them in narrow strips with a pair of scissors. Put all the ingredients on to boil slowly, stirring constantly for about two hours, or until the marmalade is thick and the strips of rind and pieces of fruit are transparent. Seal tightly in small

Pears and Pineapple.—Try canning a little pineapple with pears. One pineapple to about seven or eight pounds of pears, or more, according to taste. This makes a nice preserve, an improvement on the usually flat pear when canned alone.

Paradise Cake. Take half a can of pineapple, three bananas, a cupful of Malaga grapes (seeded), four oranges and the juice of a lemon. Cut the fruit into small pieces, sprinkle with sugar and pour over it half the fuice from the pineapple, the lemon juice and a table-spoonful of maraschino. Let this soak for an hour. Into a glass dish place criss-cross, forming a tower, as it were, a number of stale lady fingers which have been previously spread with apricot jam. Pile the fruit in the middle of the tower, pour the rest of the pineapple syrup over it and garnish the whole with a spoonful of

Romance of Son of Nicaraguan President

ASHINGTON.-Alfonso Zelaya, the president of Nicaragua's only son, and his lovely young American wife, a descendant of the Lees of Virginia, are two great attractions at a

Every morning Mr. and Mrs. Zelaya, who seem devoted to each other, go from their three-room flat to the cheap little amusement house. The wife, who has the dark eyes, the vivid coloring and the lithe figure of her Spanish mother, seats herself in the high chair back of the ticket window. There she remains, all afternoon and far into the night, selling tickets, while the performance is repeated over and over again and nickel Johnnies admire her from afar.

Her husband, heir of the president of a South American republic, takes his place at the plano; he is the orchestra rolled into one. He plays well; he reels off with equal brilliancy martial music when the soldiers charge in the moving pictures; some idio-pathetic ballad when a songtress sings of her dear old mother in the humble cottage far away, or rag time when a burnt cork ethiop gives a stale cake-walk. Thus the Zelayas support themselves and their baby.

Zelaya's father, a pretty good fighter, wished his son to have a military education, so the United States govern- post.

ment politely invited Alfonso to beome a cadet at West Point. He en ered the academy six years ago, and after a couple of years "fluked"failed to pass his examiniations. He came to Washington, and while living in a boarding house met the charming Miss Marguerite Baker, as she was known, adopted daughter of Dr. W. W.

Baker, of the post office department.'
They were wed in the spring of 1906-since then they have learned but seemingly not to their sorrow, that the world is not made up of Repubive-cent theater in Ninth street here. lics and of well-born and considerate Virginians.

> A most romantic fact in this courtship and marriage became known months after Zelaya had won his bride. Then she produced proofs of her descent from the Lee family. Mrs. Zelaya's' mother was a beautiful Spanish woman, and records in the District of Columbia courts show that the daughter was committed to a local foundling asylum years ago under the name of Lee. She was taken from the asylum and adopted by Dr. Baker, and until she wed young Zelaya it was believed that she was Dr. Baker's daugh-

> Mrs. Zelava speaks with a pronounced Spanish accent. Her husband and she visited Nicaragua, and reports came back to this country that President Zelaya had been won over by his daughter-in-law. Just why the young couple are living under such circumstances it is impossible to learn, their pride bars them from making an explanation. It was rumored, not long ago, that Zelaya's father would appoint him to a diplomatic

Ambassador Rockhill Has Delicate Job

WILLIAM W. Rockhill, the diplomat, Taft for the St. Petersburg post, is sent to the czar's court with one important but exceedingly delicate purpose in view. He is to fulfill one of tactful protests and passed resolutions the president's ante-election promises, until they were black in the face, all tuberculous members. The Royal circulated widely during the campaign, League, the first order to take up this jbut heretofore considered practically impossible by most statesmen.

It is up to Rockhill to tie the Russian government up to a foreign polley which, in one respect, is at direct variance with every previous ruling. He is to secure the proper treatment and protection of all Hebrew citizens of the United States who may travel when it is extended to a former scion of the czar's domain has been one of the unsolvable puzzles of this government for some years. Men who fled from the tortures and oppressions of Russia to America, became naturalized and then attempted to go back where their families or parents still remained, have been seized by Russian authorities, thrown into prison recently named by President or sent to Siberia. American presidents, state departments, ambassadors, senators and congressmen have argued, pleaded, threatened, made without result. Russia has had one cherished declaration, that no Russian subject can end his allegiance to that government by pretending to become an American citizen.

Forcing Russia to recognize the in-

> President Taft has determined to cut the diplomatic Gordian knot, and Rockhill, one of the most accomplished and successful diplomats in the service, is instructed to bring about the action necessary to make Uncle Sam's passports a pledge of

Uncle Joe is Seventy-Three Years Old

UNCLE JOE CANNON, speaker of the house of representatives, was 73 years young the other day. Seventythree years-quite a bunch of years en? Does he show it? Not so's you'd notice it any. Why, he didn't' even know it was his birthday until he was reminded of the fact, but the 73 did not faze him.

He waltzed into his rooms at the comingly on the side of his head, a big black cigar tilted up in the corner of his mouth, and his vest fastened loosely by the lower button, display-year-old, a thing of beauty and a joy forever.

Your Uncle Joe looked as if he were just hankering for somebody to make a remark about the old swimmin' hole, or a game of town ball, or such like. During the forenoon a constant stream of callers dropped in to wish him a long life and a merry one, and a large number of telegrams of congratulation were received from friends all over the country.

There was no special celebration of the anniversary nor any candles around the table. They do whisper, however, that what Uncle Joe really would like would be to have certain gentlemen of the house, whose names will not be mentioned in this presence, capitol on his birthday wearing a and one in patricular from the other brand-new pearl fedora hat tilted be end of the capitol, around a table and collect from them one blue chip for every year of his life. However, let that pass.

Uncle Joe saw the president in the ing a wide expanse of "biled shirt." morning and received the congratu-us they say out Sangamon way. He was as jaunty and dashing as a two-enty-third birthday.

Taft's Saving Money in the White House

DRESIDENT and Mrs. Taft are going on the principle that if the government is to economize, economy ought to begin at home. Therefore, the running expenses of the White House are being kept down. Since March 4 savngs and curtailments have been effected in various directions about the executive mansion.

When the new administration took assession of the White House it was found that there were nine laun-This number has been reduced to three. Formerly there was a plumber. One man is now retained to do engineering or plumbing work.

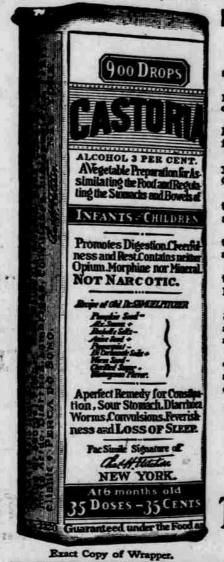

Under the Roosevelt regime Pinkney, the colored steward, was an important functionary about the establishment. Now a steward is no longer kept. Pinkney has gone on the goverment rolls as a messenger. Mrs. Taft has obtained a first-class house keeper, Miss Jefferson

One of the important reforms consists in reducing the number of tables at which the negro servants take their meals from three to one. One table formerly was for the high caste part of the force. Here, Charles Reader. the coachman; Pinkney, the steward, and a few of the elite of the servants land, having what the White House family had.

The second table was reserved for the chef and the middle class of servants. The third table was for the laundresses and the scrubwomen. Now an engineer, an assistant engineer and these distinctions have been thrust

Don't Poison Baby.

FORTY YEARS AGO almost every mother thought her child must have PAREGORIC or laudanum to make it sleep. These drugs will produce sleep, and A FEW DROPS TOO MANY will produce the SLEEP FROM WHICH THERE IS NO WAKING. Many are the children who have been killed or whose health has been ruined for life by paregoric, laudanum and morphine, each of which is a narcotic product of opium. Druggists are prohibited from selling either of the narcotics named to children at all, or to anybody without labelling them "poison." The definition of "narcotic" is: "A medicine which relieves pain and produces sleep, but which in poisonous doses produces stupor, coma, convulsions and death." The taste and smell of medicines containing opium are disguised. and sold under the names of "Drops," "Cordials," "Soothing Syrups," etc. You should not permit any medicine to be given to your children without you or your physician know of what it is composed. CASTORIA DOES NOT CON-TAIN NARCOTICS, if it bears the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher.

Letters from Prominent Physicians addressed to Chas. H. Fletcher.

Dr. J. W. Dinsdale, of Chicago, Ill., says: "I use your Castoria as advise its use in all families where there are children." Dr. Alexander E. Mintie, of Cleveland, Ohio, says: "I have freque prescribed your Castoria and have found it a reliable and pleasant

Dr. J. S. Alexander, of Omaha, Neb., says: "A medicine so valuable and neficial for children as your Castoria is, deserves the highest praise. I find it in use everywhere." Dr. J. A. McClellan, of Buffalo, N. Y., says: "I have frequently prescribed your Castoria for children and always got good results. In fact I was

Castoria for my own children." Dr. J. W. Allen, of St. Louis, Mo., says: "I heartily endorse your Castoria. I have frequently prescribed it in my medical practice, and have always found it to do all that is claimed for it." Dr. C. H. Glidden, of St. Paul, Minn., says: "My experience as a practitioner with your Castoria has been highly satisfactory, and I consider it an excellent remedy for the young."

Dr. H. D. Benner, of Philadelphia, Pa., says: "I have used your Castoria as a purgative in the cases of children for years past with the most happy effect, and fully endorse it as a safe remedy."

Dr. J. A. Boarman, of Kansas City, Mo., says: "Your Castoria is a spiendid remedy for children, known the world over. I use it in my practice and have no hesitancy in recommending it for the complaints of infants

Dr. J. J. Mackey, of Brooklyn, N. Y., says: "I consider your Castoria an excellent preparation for children, being composed of reliable medicines and pleasant to the taste. A good remedy for all disturbances of the Children Need Acting.

Rev. Perry Grant of New York

thinks that acting is a psychological need, and is looking for the rich man who will huild a theater for children. The purpose of such a theater, he says, is educational and is in keeping with the discoveries of Froebel, who knew that play is an instinct implanted by nature for educational purposes.

Safe and Sure.

Among the medicines that are recon mended and endorsed by physicians and nurses is Kemp's Balsam, the best cough cure. For many years it has been regard-ed by doctors as the medicine most likely to cure coughs, and it has a strong hold on the esteem of all well-informed people. When Kemp's Balsam cannot cure a cough we shall be at a loss to know what will. At druggists' and dealers', 25c.

Practical Derivative. Teacher—Now, children, who can tell me what "obedience" is derived Pupil-From gettin' licked, Miss.

A Domestic Eye Remedy Compounded by Experienced Physicians. Conforms to Pure Food and Drugs Laws. Wins Friends Wherever Used. Ask Drug-gists for Murine Eye Remedy. Try Mu-rine in Your Eyes. You Will Like Murine.

"Some say it's a mistake to marry." "Well," commented Mrs. Sixthhub,

"to err is human." If You Have Common Sore Eyes,

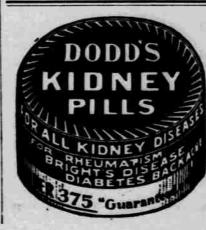

if lines blur or run together, you need PETTIT'S EYE SALVE, 25c. All drug-gists or Howard Bros., Buffalo, N. Y. There is no pleasure beyond the rules of righteousness; there is no pleasure in what injures another. Underground trolley wires neve

If you have friends in adversity stand by them.-Dickens.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup.
hildren teething, softens the guras, reduces in action, allays pain, cures wind colic. Ze a bottle.

Bathing in the snow is a comm

WIZARD

JUST DOUBLE

has increased the area that may be taken by a homesteader to 320 acres—160 free and 160 to be purchased at $3.00 per acre. These lands are in the grain-raising area, where mixed farming is also carried on with unqualified success. A railway will shortly be built to Hudson Bay, bringing the world's markets a thousand miles nearer these wheat-fields, where schools and churches are convenient, climate excellent, railways close to all settlements, and local markets good.

"It would take time to assimilate the revela-tions that a visit to the great empire lying to the North of us unfolded at every turn."— Correspondence of a National Editor, who bisited Western Canada in August, 1908.

nds may also be purchased from railway and nd companies at low prices and on easy

W. V. BENNETT, 861 New York Life Building.

Suicide-

Slow death and awful suffering follows neglect of bowels. Constipation kills more people than consumption. It needs a cure and there is one medicine in all the world that cures it-CASCARETS.

Regard Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment as unrivaled for Preserving, Purifying and Beautifying the Skin, Scalp, Hair and Hands, for Sanative, Antiseptic Cleansing and for the Nursery.

