

THE WAGEWORKER

ALLIED PRINTING
TRADES UNION COUNCIL
LINCOLN, NEB.

VOL. 6

LINCOLN, NEBRASKA, JUNE 19, 1909

NO. 11

NEBRASKA STATE Federation of Labor

The first convention of the Nebraska State Federation of Labor will be held in the Hall of Representatives, Capitol Bldg., Lincoln, on

Monday and Tuesday, June 21 and 22

The first session will be called to order at 2:00 o'clock p. m., sharp. Following is the order of business for the opening session:

Invocation, Rev. P. M. Orr, Pastor St. Marks' Reformed church.
Address of Welcome, Governor Ashton C. Shallenberger, on behalf of the State.
Address of Welcome, Mayor Don L. Love, on behalf of the city of Lincoln.
Election of temporary officers and appointment of committees.
From 8:30 to 10:30 p. m. Governor and Mrs. Shallenberger will tender a reception at the Executive Mansion, to the delegates, visitors and their friends. Local organizations are invited.

Tuesday's Sessions

The Tuesday sessions will be devoted to permanently organizing, adopting constitution and by-laws, appointment of standing committees and the transacting of any and all business that may properly come before the convention.

Band Concert Tuesday Evening 7:00 TO 8:00 O'CLOCK

The Musicians' Union of Lincoln has generously prepared to give a public concert, marching from their union headquarters to the First Christian church, Fourteenth and M streets, where a splendid program will be rendered.

Raymond Robins of Chicago

The most eloquent champion of Trades Unionism on the American platform, will deliver an address at the First Christian church Tuesday evening, beginning promptly at 8:30. He will discuss the principles of unionism. Every worker, every church member, every man and woman interested in better and higher things, should hear this splendid orator and clear-headed thinker. Lincoln has never heard his superior. Those who heard Raymond Robins on his former visit to Lincoln will be anxious to hear him again. This meeting is free, and thinking men and women are cordially invited to hear him. Children under twelve years of age will not be admitted unless accompanied by their parents. Mr. Robins will be introduced by the president-elect of the Nebraska State Federation of Labor.