The Final Clearance Sale Begins Saturday Morning, July 31st

The biggest bargain feast of the season promises to begin with marked enthusiasm. Prices are now cut deep, without a thought for profit or cost; cut right down to where the order to sell will get instant response. Every suit in our tremendous stock was made to do service this season, and everyone will find service this season.

It's the Armstrong Way They Are Marked to Go

The Suits Priced at $20 are hand-tailored garments of the finest imported wools. These are absolutely perfect clothes—better than any other Lincoln store offers at any price. At $40, $35, $30 and $27.50 these suits were extreme values—at $20 they are wonderful bargains.

The Suits Priced at $15 are also hand-tailored garments, imported and finest grades of American wools, made expressly for us by makers of fine clothing. These suits were great values at $25, $22.50 and $20—at $15 they are great bargains.

The Suits Priced at $10 are, in many instances, worth just about double the price asked. Most everybody knows that our line of suits at $18, $16.50 and $15 were the biggest values in town at the prices—now, think of buying any one of these suits at $10.

The Suits Priced at $5 were formerly priced $12.50 and $10. Bear in mind the fact that this store sells nothing except good clothes—that here is the only place where a really good suit can be bought for $10 or $12.50. Now, think of the chance for saving when we cut these suits to $5.

Boys' clothing is almost given away in this Final Clearance Sale at Armstrong's

The ice axe of Dr. Spitz of Baltimore, who was killed by an avalanche in 1870, was found at the bottom of the Bossoms glacier at Chamonix. The axe bears the name of Dr. Spitz.

Arthur, duke of Connaught, brother of King Edward, has resigned as commander-in-chief of the British Mediterranean squadron. The members of the admiralty refuse to explain this unexpected action of the king's brother, but it is confidentially known in all quarters that the resignation is due to the duke's opinion that his royal blood entitles him to a far more important naval post or civil appointment.

The Wright brothers made a new record for aviation by making a flight lasting eighty minutes and covering a distance of seventy miles.
