

WILL LEAVE JOHNNY AT HOME

Next Time Mother Visits Grandfather Youngster is Not Likely to Accompany Her.

"I think the mother of a six-year-old boy should have a pension to make up to her for the mental agony she suffers," said just such a mother. "I took Johnny to his paternal grandfather's last week, and believe he has cut us out of grandfather's will. Of course, we send him to Sunday school and we both attend church, but we do not ask a blessing at the table, nor do we have family prayers. Grandfather does, and it happened that the morning after we arrived Johnny was excused from the table and went out in the yard to play. Grandfather led the way into the sitting room and we all knelt down in prayer. Imagine my horror to see Johnny's little face peering curiously through the blinds and hear him sing out: 'Hey, in there, what kind of a game is that you're playing? Ain't you the rotten bunch not to let me in on it.' I arose and softly whispered to him to run on and play, and he sang out: 'You're it, mamma, you're it; make a home run.' Now, what can you do with a small boy, anyway? I can never explain matters to his grandfather."

WORTH MOUNTAINS OF GOLD

During Change of Life, says Mrs. Chas. Barclay

Graniteville, Vt.—"I was passing through the Change of Life and suffered from nervousness and other annoying symptoms, and I can truly say that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has proved worth mountains of gold to me, as it restored my health and strength. I never forget to tell my friends what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me during this trying period. Complete restoration to health means so much to me that for the sake of other suffering women I am willing to make my trouble public so you may publish this letter."—MRS. CHAS. BARCLAY, R.F.D., Graniteville, Vt.

No other medicine for woman's ills has received such widespread and unqualified endorsement. No other medicine we know of has such a record of cures of female ills as has Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. For more than 30 years it has been curing female complaints such as inflammation, ulceration, local weaknesses, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, indigestion and nervous prostration, and it is unequalled for carrying women safely through the period of change of life. It costs but little to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and, as Mrs. Barclay says, it is "worth mountains of gold" to suffering women.

CUTICURA COMFORT

FOR LITTLE FAT FOLKS

Most grateful and comforting is a warm bath with Cuticura Soap and gentle anointings with Cuticura. This pure, sweet, economical treatment brings immediate relief and refreshing sleep to skin-tortured and disfigured little ones and rest to tired, fretted mothers. For eczemas, rashes, itchings, irritations and chafings, Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment are worth their weight in gold.

PUT END TO HIS DILEMMA.

But It Was Queer How the Dear Girl Gessed George Was Telling His Own Story.

George stopped rowing, ostensibly to rest. "Gladys," he said, with an elaborate affectation of unconcern, to the young woman sitting in the stern of the boat, "there's a friend of mine that's head over heels—head over ears, I mean—in love with a beautiful girl and as good as she is beautiful. He has known her ever so many years and he has been going to see her a long time, but he's too big a coward—that's what he says—to ask her, you know, if—"

"Here his voice trembled a little and he paused to wipe his perspiring brow. "Beautiful girl, is she?" queried the young woman, idly dipping her fingers in the water at the side of the boat. "Loveliest in the world—that's what he says, I mean." "What's her name?" "He'd—he'd rather not have her name mentioned." "Friend of yours, you say? Who is he?" "Oh! I don't dare to tell you who he is. He might not like it."

"Very much in love with her, is he?" "Clean gone. He says it makes him fairly ache." "And he's afraid to tell her so?" "Yes. He—says he can't guess from the way she treats him whether she—er—likes him or not. He's a coward—that's what he is."

"What are you telling me about him for?" "Well—he asked me what I thought he'd better do and I couldn't advise him. I suppose I—'d be just as big a coward as he is. That's why I'm asking you. Wh-what do you think he ought to do? Tell her and run the risk?" "I am sure I don't know."

George gasped, swallowed and changed the subject. "Isn't this water clear?" he said. "You can see the sand and the stones at the bottom. How deep it is and yet how transparent!" "Yes," she said. "So like you, George?" "Dear girl," he whispered 15 minutes later, as he stroked her hair caressingly, "how did you know I was telling you my own story?" "O you goose!"

THE DIFFERENCE.

"Who teaches you at school, Nora?" "Miss Brown." "And who teaches you at Sunday school?" "Miss Brown—with a hat on."

Wasted Opportunities. The view of the proper uses to which money may be applied depends wholly upon the individual. There are many who will see nothing funny in the old man's comment on the uses of a departed relative had made of her property.

"I dunno what good Elizabeth's money ever done her," said Mr. Sage, reflectively. "She spent it all. Gave it away here and there, and bought things with it." "No, sir," he continued, "it wa'n't much good to her. She didn't leave a cent."—Youth's Companion.

PAINT BEAUTY.

Assured of durability, the next thought in painting is beauty—the complete aim being durable beauty, or beautiful durability.

National Lead Company here again offer you the co-operation of their paint experts—this time in the line of color schemes, artistic, harmonious and appropriate. You have only to write National Lead Company, 1902 Trinity Building, New York City, for "Houseowners' Painting Outfit No. 49," and you will promptly receive what is really a complete guide to painting, including a book of color schemes for either exterior or interior painting (as you may request), a book of specifications, and also an instrument for detecting adulteration in paint materials. This outfit is sent free, and, to say the least, is well worth writing for.

WIFELY SOLICITUDE.

Burglar—Hands up! Wife—Oh, John, be careful of those globes; you'll break them!

Wedding Fee in Installments. Some of the 'squires in rustic New Jersey seem to be pretty hard pushed for cash. To get the cash they do not hesitate to use most unusual methods. One of these J. P.'s advertised the other day that he was ready and willing to marry couples at any time, day or night, for a consideration of $5 and that he was willing to accept $1 in cash down and the rest in weekly installments of $1 until the fee of $5 was paid up. The very night after the first appearance of this advertisement the J. P. referred to was called upon to "make good" his bluff. Shortly after midnight a couple which had come in an automobile awakened him from his sleep and asked to be married under the installment plan offered in the advertisement. And the J. P. was game and made good.

Unfortunately Coupled. Alison tells how Napoleon's Egyptian campaign no sooner won the Mamelukes observed at a distance than the word was given: "Form square; artillery to the angles; asses and savans to the center." The command afforded no little merriment to the soldiers even at such an exciting moment, and made them call the asses demi-savans.

Trifle Too Esthetic. "There's no use o' talkin'," said Farmer Coratossel, as he sat down on the horse trough. "I can't get along with some o' these here summer guests." "What's the trouble?" "I have jes' been lectured by that good lookin' young woman with glasses fur sp'illin' the color scheme of the garden by puttin' paris green on the vegetables."

Measuring Brains. The cephalic index of old Athenians was a wee, wee bit better than ours. Cephalic index means volume of brain. It is found by filling a skull with peas and then measuring them. Ancient Athenians have a few peas on us. The Greeks never lusted bloodshed like the Romans and some of us moderns.—New York Post.

Mother-in-Law Again. Husband—Why do you hate to see me come home smiling? Wife—Because I know it means something has happened to poor mother.—Illustrated Bits.

A New Fad. Rural Auntie—My dear, your mother tells me you are going to get married. Miss de Fad—Yes, auntie; it's all the style now.—New York Weekly.

Scoons. Sift into a bowl a quart of flour, a teaspoonful of salt and two table-spoonfuls of baking powder. Chop into this two heaping table-spoonfuls of shortening. Moisten with enough milk to make a soft dough, turn out upon a pastry board and roll into a sheet a half-inch thick. Cut into rounds and bake on a soapstone griddle, turning when done on one side. The scoons should be a delicate brown in color. Split and butter as soon as done.

The German company which is building a non-rigid dirigible balloon with a lifting capacity of 54 persons has evidently not been frightened by the fate of the big non-rigid California dirigible which broke under the weight of a large load of passengers and dropped them to the earth. Unless the weights beneath a non-rigid airship are carefully adjusted the strains are apt to be dangerous to the envelope when the ship is driven through the air by her propellers.

Under the Friendly Awning. "How it rains! Doesn't the lightning scare you dreadfully?" "Not when my husband is around." "He's a—er—conductor, is he?" "Oh, no. He carries a $5,000 accident policy."—Chicago Tribune.

Painter's Colic. Mamma—What's the matter with Fido? Tommie—Oh, I was playing with my soldiers and he came in and insisted upon licking the whole army.

Look For That

He Was Well Equipped. A Methodist bishop was recently a guest at the home of a friend who had two charming daughters. One morning the bishop, accompanied by the two young ladies, went out in the hope of catching some trout. An old fisherman, out for the same purpose, wishing to appear friendly, called out: "Ketchin' many, pard?" The bishop, straightening himself to his full height, replied: "Brother, I am a fisher of men."

Try the Laughter Cure. If laughter is good for the bodily well being it is equally good for mental health. We are beginning to realize this. Anxiety, fear, worry are deadly enemies to the mind. Fight against them and against every influence that tends toward mental depression as you would fight against a temptation to dishonesty.

Don't dope yourself for every little pain. It only hurts your stomach. Such pain comes usually from local inflammation. A little rubbing with Hamline's Wizard Oil will stop it immediately.

Beware of people who pat you on the back. They may be looking for an opportunity to kick your feet from under you.

WHY TAKE ANY CHANCES with some untried medicine diarrhoea, cramps, dysentery, when for 20 years Pinkettes (Perry Davis) has been relieving millions of cases.
