NO RELIEF FOR THE ARMY.

KELLY'S "INDUSTRIALS" IN CAMP AT WESTON.

WAITING FOR A TRAIN TO TURN UP.

The Railroad Officials Decline to Do Anything for Them-The Mayor of Omaha Issues a Proclamation Warning the People Against Lawlessness A National Guard Member Court Martialed.

OMAHA, Neb., April 23.—Threatening weather caused Kelly to delay his proposed march from Weston back to Council Bluffs. He is waiting to hear the result of the efforts of General Manager St. John and W. H. M. Pusey to secure a train for the army over the Rock Island. He is also favorably impressed with a suggestion that he secure teams and make the trip overland to Washington, and he is already receiving encouraging responses from the farmers to his appeal for assistance for this purpose. He expresses the hope that his friends in Omaha and Council Bluffs will strictly observe the law even though they are laboring under great excitement.

The army has only enough provisions to last for another meal and then if relief does not come they will be compelled to go back to the Bluffs. Reports from all tows near here are that the people have contributed plenty of supplies, but have no means of getting the stuff to the army.

Kelly thinks that he will not accept the proposition for transportation to Kansas City by water except as a last resort, as it will not land him any nearer his destination.

A PROCLAMATION BY THE MAYOR. At noon Mayor Bemis issued the following proclamation: To the Citizens of Omaha—Notice has been served on me, as chief executive of the city of Omaha, by the officials of the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific railroad and the Burlington and Missouri river railroad, that their com-panies will hold the city liable for all damage done to their property by mobs and lawless

Now, therefore, I, George P Bemis, mayor of the city of Omaha, hereby caution all persons within the boundaries of the city to desist from interfering with the roadways, rolling stock or other property of said corporations, and in all respects to observe the laws and maintain good order.

laws and maintain good order

I furthermore urge and recommend that all parties in sympathy with the Industrial army now detained near Council Bluffs contribute to their relief in securing horses, wagons and subsistence to enable them to continue their march across Iowa, independent of railroads and corporate charity. All contributions made through the mayor's office will be for warded to General Kelly as rapidly as they can be conveyed. George P. Bemis, Mayor.

A largely attended meeting was held in Knights of Labor hall at 11 o'clock and speeches were made by many labor leaders. All seemed to be at sea as to the best course to pursue, but every speaker denounced the railroads in most vigorous language

This morning at Weston all the cap tains and Colonel Baker convicted A. Madison of company H. of violating the rules by furnishing and using liquor and he was drummed out of

At 12 o'clock Kelly declared that if transportation was not secured for his army between new and morning he would begin moving on foot eastward through the state.

THE KIND OF MEN THEY ARE. General Manager St. John Speaks Highly

Kelly's Army.

DES MOINES, Iowa, April 23.-General Manager St. John of the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific railway, who passed through this city from Council Bluffs, said of the "commonweal army" now near Council Bluffs: "It is made up of sober, intelligent determined men. Nine-tenths of them are American born. They are respectable, honest, and remarkably well organized. There are no 'bums' among them. The statements that have been sent out about their being tramps and all that sort of thing are utterly untrue. Their leader is a man of brains and character and great determination, and he is a religious man, too. He is a perfeet gentleman and thoroughly honest. He will never permit any outrages to be done by any of his men if there should be any inclination in that direction, which there is certainly not now. He will not permit any tramp or disreputable person to enlist in his army and he will remove the first one he can find. He has absolute control over his men, which he never could have over a body of tramps or disreputables. He said to me that his men would never go back under any circumstances. They are going to Washington in some way, of that I am sure. 'We may be wrong,' Kelly said to me, 'but we are determined to go to Washington and present a living petition to congress-one that cannot be thrown into a waste paper basket. We think we are right and nothing can stop us." What they can accomplish I do not see, but they are bound to make a profound impression. There will in a sad condition, being almost enbe probably 100,000 people in Washington by the 10th of May on this mission. And what can we do about it? Nothing but treat them kindly and let them go. The more opposition they meet the stronger they become. The laboring classes all over the country are in sympathy with them. If they have a few more days of such treatment as they have had the last two days I tremble to think of what may happen. You can't tell what a man will do when he is hungry and hunted down."

Chicago "Commonwealers" Propose to Hand Together to Look for Work. Catcago, April 23.—Chicago is to have a "commonweal army" of its own, was the announcement made today at the headquarters of the movement on La Salle street by J. H. Raudall, the recruiting officer. He twenty-seven men had signed the roster and continued: "Our plans are to gather as many of the unemployed who think as we do to-

Our original plan for joining either Kelly or Coxey has been abandoned. That Oklahoma Outlaw Battle Old Come Off According to Latest Reports.

GUTHERE, Ok., April 23 .- The report received of a battle between the Dalton gang and deputy marshals near ingalls, fifty-five miles from this city. is confirmed. The fight occurred at the house of Bruce Miller, one of the outlaws. The officers surrounded the house, all of them armed with Winchester, just before daylight. Dalton bandits were inside. No shots were fired until one of the desperadoes came out, just about daylight, to feed the horses. He was held up and told to take a look around the grounds and then return to the house, tell the bandits to come out one at a time, unarmed, and surrender, or hostilities would be commenced.

After looking over the field, and finding in shooting distance of the house twenty men well armed, the outlaw returned to his companions. Fully a half hour's consultation was had by the bandits before a stir was made by either party, and then the officer in command of the party ordered his men to begin firing.

The house is a simple weatherboarded structure, and not plastered, and the shots from the marshals' Winchesters quickly perforated the sides of the building. The bandits returned the fire on the officers through the windows and crevices of the house.

At 10 o'clock Mrs. Miller had been wounded, left the house and crawled to where one of the marshals was located behind a tree. She had received a flesh wound and begged that she might be permitted to ride to Ingalls for a doctor to attend to herself and also her baby and hired man who were both wounded.

She was permitted to saddle a house and leave. She would not state how many outlaws were killed, but admitted that Bill Dalton and Bill Doolan had been seriously wounded. The fight was kept up all day during Wednesday. Volley after volley was fired into the house by the officers, and the constant crack of the bandits Winchesters told of their determination to hold out and refuse to surrender. Shortly after nightfull, during a lull in the firing, the bandits made a break from the house and fled, pursued by the deputies. They went in the direction of the Creek Indian country.

The messeng who brought this news did not learn whether or not Dalton and Doolan had been killed but were told that three fatally wounded bandits were left in Miller's house after their companions had broken through the line of officers. He states that two of the officers posse were killed and three wounded.

The army had to buy its own firewood to cook supper on Logan Hill, and as the town authorities refused to allow the army to draw on the hydrants of the city, the camp was without water until the railroad company gave the use of a plug.
