Clay county has another new Alliance

No. 2319. Polk County News In regard to the Alliance Manual I will say that we are well pleased with it. It has put new have them. In this way we can tell what each Alliance believes and what they need. May Alliance No. 1772 answered: What is wealth? Anything which will benefit mankind. How is it created? By labor.

Who has the first right to its ownership and possession? The creator.

Ought the law to protect the creator of wealth in its full ownership and possession unless voluntarily relinquished?

What proportion of each individual's wealth may be rightfully claimed by the government? No one should be fined for producing wealth by labor. The necessary taxation should be made on the natural sources of national wealth which are monopolized by individuals.

What relation have land, mines, natural forests, streams, etc., to wealth? They are natural sources of wealth, becoming wealth by the application of labor.

To whom did the Creator of these things give them? To all the people. Should the law secure their possession to those to whom God gave them? Yes.

Have the residents of one country any rightful claim on the land or other natural resources of another country? No. Should aliens be prevented from holding land in this country by law? Yes.

Ought non-residents to own land? No. Should individuals or corporations be permitted to own land? No.

THE ALLIANCE AID WORK.

In answer to inquiries Brother W. F. Wright says:

As State organizer of the Alliance and Industrial Union, Brother Wardall as national organizer I am commissioned and empowered to organize new Alliances, reorganize old ones, and to delegate the same power I have to all the county organizers I appoint to do the or not. They remain as independent getting common. embers of the F. A. & I. U. until there is a sub. organized near enough for them to join.

In this way the national organization is gathering the men and women of the land, and each one is a member of the national organization regardless of State Alliance or subs. Another point many fail to grasp, that the Alliance Aid is just as much the work of the Alliance as any part of it, and It is made the duty of every State officer and every county officer of the Alliance to push the Alliance Aid as much as possible.

If any one has any minutes of the annual meeting of the State Alliance prior to 1890 or of 1891 or 1893 they will confer a great favor on the state officers by forwarding a copy to the state secre-

Rev. J. M. Snyder has promised to devote the summer to Alliance work. He writes: "For myself I never felt that I was more in line of Christian and patriotic duty than I am now. Of course I may not judge wisely. It is easy for human beings to be mistaken, and I am no exception, but the conviction grows on me that the church has all along been mistaken in directing all attention and interest to what will be after we are dead. The gospel was quite as much for this world as for the next world, and the whole truth is not told nor applied to human interest until this is done. In this view of the case I am devoted to our cause so long as my strength remains."

Of Interest to Labor.

Nothing that God ever created is so contemptible as the man who, because he is living in comfort and security himself, is indifferent to the wrong that is being inflicted upon his follow for several years about the people of lowa controlling the railroads. These ratiroads have recently elected one of their own pliant tools to the higher state office. A "dummy" named Jack son, however, is the nominal governor

At the congress of the American Federation of Labor held in Chicago last December, the "collective owner-ship by the people of all the means of ship by the people of all the mans of horses at $4.00 for the season production and distribution" was advemove" if it would keep at the front of the procession.

The whole country was startled at the wording of the decision of Jusgo Caldwell in the case of the U. P. employees against the receivers of the road. Yet the decision was merely what any fair County Alliances, 25 gents and called man would have made, and its Chefor books for Sub-Alliances and the steels on was merely want any minded man would have made, and its movelty shows how far the courts in County Alliances Elevants.

A goldbug paper suggests that Coxey's men be enlisted in the regular U. S. army when they arrive in Washington life in our Alliance. Every member takes a great interest in it. Thirteen new members this quarter. C. J. D.

It is desired that all Alliances will report on the use of the Manual, using the blanks for that purpose when they have them. In this way we can tell bard of lows. bard of Iowa.

> The Lincoln Labor Club with a membership of nearly five hundred meets every friday evening at Danish Hali, 119 North Ninth street. These meetings are well attended, and the applause which follows each denunciation of the Wall street gang and the railroad com-binations is refreshing in the extreme. The plutocracy went a step too far when they repealed the Sherman bill, and the people are getting ripe for radical ac-tion that will sweep every vestige of inequality from the United States.

"Free silver" which is still an important issue is but a side show compared with the momentous questions that are forcing themselves to the front. Those semi-Pepulists who fancy that a conservative platform or a single plank platform is the thing, little realize the temper of the people at the present time. If the People's party expect to carry the labor vote is coming elections they must have a platform that reaches farther and deeper than the Omaha farther and deeper than the of govern. they must have a platform that reaches farther and deeper than the Omaha platform. Nothing short of government ownership and operation of all the broken down industries of the country will satisfy the wage element in the future.

The members of the Farmers Alliance in Nebraska who think that they are progressive must look out for their laurels. The working men of Lincoln are not only indorsing the Omaha platform, but go farther and demand that the government take possession, under the law of eminent domain, of all crippled industries and operate the same for the purpose of giving employ-ment to labor, the product of said factories to be exchanged at actual cost of manufacture for produce and other necessaries for the workmen. With plenty of employment for the wage earners the prices of farm products will advance naturally.

All workingmen should remember that as a rule no reliance can be placed on the news that comes through the associated press dispatches, particularly when it relates to the labor movement or to the friends of labor in Consame. In addition to this I am com- gress. The associated press has demissioned to take into the Aid de-partment any man or woman over 18 when you read that Senator Allen or Senator Peffer said so and so, don't you believe it without confirmation from principles, regardless of whether they other sources. This thing of foisting have a subordinate Alliance near them [ske interviews upon the Populists is and has won many friends in all parties ticket the strongest man, thinking that his strength will help to elect the weaker ones. We want no men whom we will have to carry through the campaign, but rather, able advocates of our principles and who will not be an easy target for the political guns of the old

Now as for the head of the ticket, we have a man in this county who is known throughout the state, a man who was speaker of the House, last legislature, by the ability, honesty and fairness shown while in that responsible position. By placing Hon. J. N. Gaffin as leader of our state ticket we will be sure of success, and also certain of having a man who will receive not only Inganizer of N. F. A. & I. U. and Altiance dependent votes, but the votes of all honest voters of other parties.

tion will be in many respects the most important ever held in the state, and it is incumbent on the People's party to use great discretion in its selection of candidates. I would say, first, that we must take no backward step as to any reforms which we advocate, and our party must declare sitself in a clear and concise manner on the great topics which are before as as a state and nation. The time for a change is at hand, and every thinking man knows there must be a change that will further debase and impoverish the great mass of the people, or a change that will break the shackles of the corporations and moneyed interests and enable the laborer to secure a just recompense for his toll. This is no time for half-way business, and every man must soon declare himself one way or the other. Our candida e must therefore be free from all corporation influence and must declare himself in language that cannot be mistaken. This point conceded we must consider the question of availa-

The probabilities are that the Republicans will nominate for their standard bearer, that "distinguished" states. man (?) Thos. Majors, and the Democrats, if they muster the courage to nominate a ticket, will select a candidate from Omaha. This being true it would seem that our candidate should come from Lincoln, provided we have a man who will command the respect of the people and who has the courage of his convictions, and the dackbone to enferce the laws if elected. Mayor Weir is such a man; and the only question with me as to his availibility is his position in relation to the reforms which we advocate. We certainly do not wan! a man who is not in thorough accord with our party, nor one who is assamed of our party or its principles. If Mayor Weir is such a min we should not consider his name for a moment; but if he is willing so take an advanced, an unmistakaple stand with the party, I am luctimed to think that he would embedy more elements of strength than perhaps say other man who has been mentioned.
