Mr. Le Fevre Has More to Say.

Editor WEALTH MAKERS: I regret to have my remarks concerning Mayor Weir construed as an attack I only desire to post the Populists ir the state so that they may know what the Populists of this city already know, in order that no blunder may be possible at our state convention. Mr. Weir appears to regard the reasons of those who oppose his nomination as trivial. Let me say the strongest objection that can be urged to the candidacy of any man is, that he has failed to use his best efforts to secure the triumph of the principles that lie under the Omaha platform. I challenge the mayor to show where and when he has ever done anything to advance those principles. Certainly it has not been said and done who has not braved the displeasure of Swan, one of our state committee, is our leader. The mayor has had such 13th to the 17th of August. Out of our glorious opportunities to advocate our ly out of place for him to expect any party desire to attend both meetings,

This idea was some- cient importance to submit a proposiwhat encouraged by Populist managers | tion to the members of the state central because of the bracing effect it might committee asking their opinion as to a have upon the movement in the west- change. ern part of the state. Under the circumstances it was but natural that ply by members of the committee, fiftysome of the editors who were not familiar with the real facts, should favor- change, cleven were conditionally in sentation as follows: ably mention Mr. Weir in connection with the governorship, thinking that he was in fact a Populist. Thus you see that the embryo "boom" of Mr. Weir is the result of an assumption and decided to change the date of the cona misunderstanding, skillfully taken advantage of by the mayor, who is re- o'clock, a. m. at Grand Island, Nebr. puted to be the smoothest of political workers, and who has been for months engaged in a quiet but systematic effort to capture the nomination. Just prior to the Hastings conference I met the president of the Central Labor Union of Lincoln who informed me that the mayor had sent word two or three times requesting him to call at his office. He finally went, and the months. See our special offer in mayor then expressed his desire to another column. square himself with the organized labor element, who had become (and still are) greatly displeased with the manner in which Mr. Weir has ignored the men who gave him his nomination and made it possible for him to be mayor of Lincoln. The gentleman told me that the yor had an addrsss already prepared or delivery at the Hastings conference and that he was reaching after the gubernatorial nomination. Knowing that Mr. Weir had never associated with Populists in any way whatever, beyond appearing at a convention when h : wished a nomination, and that he had emtinually taken his advice and counsel from the opponents of the People's party. I spoke of the address to several prominent Populists. They assured me that the mayor was using every effort to secure the nomination for governor, and that he had been so engaged for some months. I then called upon the chairman of the county central committee to learn if he had issued any eredentials to Mr. Weir to attend the conference. He replied that he had not, and that he would not issue any to him, as the mayor was not recognized as a Populist. The mayor, however, was not to be hindered by trides. He attended the conference and delivered the address, which was doubtless made up largely of the same "buncombe and compliment" that he admits having u ed upon Prosident Harrison. These who heard the address say it said nothing in a great many words and that it

ARMAGEDDON.

Prospectus of the New Song Book for the People.

The editor of THE WEALTH MAKERS has devoted his spare time during the last two years to the preparation of a book of songs such as is needed to educate, unite, arouse and inspire the wealth makers of the world in their im pending conflict with the wealth takers. The battle before us is the battle of the ages, the Armageddon of prophecy, the last great conflict between greed and goodness. It is the organized brotherhood of right, against the legalized despotism of might. Truth has been spreading, love has been growing, fraternal organization has been extending; and the increasing oppression of monopoly power is in these closing years of the 19th century precipitating the final struggle. That it may be a peaceful political conflict we agitate and pray; but whether peaceful or otherwise it cannot be averted, it cannot be longer delayed.

The new song book is to be called "ARMAGEDDON." The book will contain about 70 songs for the times, over half of them new, and half of the rest are nearly new and famous, and the remainder are most carefully selected. Fifteen of the numbers are a series of songs sent out by the writer two years ago in sheet music form, under the general title of "Songs of the People."

The titles of the songs which Armageddon will contain are in part as fol-

ON TO WASHINGTON. The above named songs have most of them been set to new music for the author and compiler by a half dozen very excellent composers in Lincoln and Chicago. But a dozen or so of the songs he's been written by the editor of THE WRALTH MAKERS to be joined to world celebrated tunes-French, German Austrian, English and Scotch-such tunes as The Marsellaise, Die Wacht Aus Rhein, Austrian National Air, German Fatherland, Robin Adair, &c.

The above songs are soles and quartettes with plane prejudes and accompanyments, also many for mixed voices. The music of most of the songs is easy, and the more difficult can be handled by good voices with thrilling, wonderful effect.

Gen. C. H. Howard of Chicago, editor of the Farm, Field and Fireside, expressed himself in the following words of praise and appreciation in reviewing the fifteen songs which have formed the nucleus of Armageddon;

"It has been left to Mr. George Howard Gibson to introduce a new tone into the songs of the party, and to write a series of patriotic songs wat here hardly surpassed by any is our literature for loftiness of motive and real merit from a literary point of view, the same time they are not at all lacking in the musical quality which must necessarily be present before any song touches the chord of popularity. They are remarkable for their cavid natriotic mend bread humanity. Is fact, if the People's party rises to the patriotic in and broad songs, we have diable dustriof its nitimate success as a party. The songs atrike the whole occurs of humanitational by. Sparkling humor, keen wis and biting sureasto, as well as the fall and following streams, are touched in turn by the talculed author."

No higher praises, have given the li songs, and certainly as much can be said regarding the 70 congs of Armsgeddon, which include the 15 and furnish a much wider runge and fuller treatment of the question of human needs and rights. They are full of pathor, patriotion and power, and are not lacking in humor, wit and sarcasm. The book will be ready in a few weeks and will be
