

work and the Lexow committee revelations, in favor of a citizens' ticket and campaign to rescue the city from the vicious class in office. Dr. Parkhurst has made a most eloquent appeal for all good citizens to unite. But now comes the Tribune and says the Doctor should not be considered either "arrogant or impertinent" for what? for asking the honest to come out from both parties and support a reform ticket. The Doctor should believe that the Republican party is ruled by saints, and the evil is all in the Democratic party. He should lead the honest Democrats over to the pure Republicans, and then he would be doing something. Great is the gall and exasperatingly abominable the hypocrisy of the political daily press.

We hope our friends who have sent us in communications will bear with us if they do not immediately get into print. But allow us to be frank with you, friends. Short letters and articles are preferred. It costs money to set type, and you ought to condense more, some of you. We don't like to reject good matter. We don't like to cut your ideas down. Besides it takes the editor's time, which he cannot well spare, so much of it. Send us your most carefully thought out, boiled down, concentrated, best worded ideas. But let no one conscious of his literary deficiencies be restrained from writing us. It is part of our business to fix up manuscripts for publication.

The Republicans, Church Howe and others, are blowing that the old soldiers are going back to the G. O. P. Nothing of the sort. The Kansas state Populist convention contained 246 old soldier delegates. Nebraska will also show that the soldiers are now patriotic, now anxious to save our country from the capitalist slave holders who starve and kill and spread despair. Read what Judge Wilson of Ogalalla has to say, old soldiers, about a column set apart for you in THE WEALTH MAKERS. Do you want to use it? Please say so if you want it. The plan pleases us.

The Kansas Populists had a rally at Topeka on the 12th and the three meetings of the day had an attendance of 3,000, 6,000 and 12,000. Gov. Walte was one of the speakers. His speech elicited great applause and was "temperate, patriotic, eloquent, clear and cogent"—just what his friends expected. But it was a surprise and disappointment to his foes. Kansas is greatly alive. The Nebraska Populists will need to work mightily when they get started to catch up with the Kansas campaign.

The office seekers or the seekers after fame are not leaders of men. They are weather vanes which never move except as the current moves them. Follow not the weather vane, for it will lead you nowhere. Put your confidence in men who face forward and move onward against wind and tide. When the conservative trimmers and outways and fusion schemers get control of a reform movement it kills it. Drive this class to the rear and keep them there.

We call attention to quite a long communication from Mr. A. J. Gustin on page 3, of this issue. Mr. Gustin withdraws his name from consideration for a place on the state ticket. He is the choice of many for state auditor, and would add much strength to the ticket if nominated. Allow us to add that the men who are not seeking office are the best and safest class to select from. And to Mr. Gustin, that the will of the people must be obeyed.

The A. R. U. strike has convinced a great part and the best part of the people of the country that the national Populist platform in its demand for the government ownership of the railroads, is right, is demanding the necessary remedy. The strike has also convinced a vast number of organized workers that their only salvation is to get together in the People's party and strike with the ballot. So the stars in their courses fight for us.

THERE are 17 Populist papers in Idaho, and but 21 of both the old parties. Nebraska leads all other states in the number of Populist papers. The number now is over 120. Kansas comes next with 117. Every Scandinavian paper in Minnesota that was formerly Republican, with one exception, has turned Populist. The Chicago Times is the latest and greatest accession to the ranks of Populist papers. So hums the world along.

We have received for review The Birth of Freedom, by H. B. Salisbury. Published by The Humboldt Publishing Co., New York. We have already read the book in magazine story form and have only words of unstinted praise for it. The price is but 25 cents and it is, while full of information, a story of entrancing interest.

THE struggle between the forces of oppression and the forces of justice is a struggle that crosses and strikes and rack and scaffold cannot end. Lies cannot forever live and make evil respectable. The truth incarnate some not distant day will triumph gloriously. Conrades, face forward. Look onward to the end—the end of evil.

A SCOTCH clergyman, Dr. Walter Smith, in his valedictory to the Free Church Assembly, said: "To trust the heavenly Father is of far greater moment than earning a good wage." Whereupon Keir Hardie, labor member of parliament, answers: "But, my dear Doctor, is it impossible to do both at the same time?"

HAINER voted against the bill making railroads amenable to the state laws, the bill extending the jurisdiction of the state courts over claims of persons against the corporations. Hainer thus shows that he represents not the people of Nebraska. He is the pliant tool of the corporations. But he has a neighbor living at Aurora who will take his place in the next Congress.

BURT COUNTY Alliance week before last sent us in a list of sixty new names paid for by the Alliance. Atlanta Alliance has just sent in a list of 25 new subscribers. We call attention to this plan to get THE WEALTH MAKERS into new hands where it will make votes. Twenty cents for the campaign. Solicit subscription, and make up a little extra purse to place the paper where it will make Populist converts.

THE Coming Nation tells us that 3,700 families in Cleveland had their water supply shut off because they could not pay for it, and hundreds more were begging for more time. This is worse barbarity than the slow starvation cruelly which the poor must endure to yield wealth for the greedy.

A LONG letter from Congressman Kem in which he wishes to address the people of Nebraska through the columns of THE WEALTH MAKERS has reached us just as we were going to press. It is on the subject of irrigation and is of great interest. Sorry we have to delay it till next issue.

WANTED—To know when and where each Populist convention convenes.

WANTED—A good solicitor in each precinct and town.

WANTED—10,000 campaign subscribers. Twenty cents only for the campaign.

TWENTY cent subscriptions are easily secured. Everybody needs THE WEALTH MAKERS. See what you can do for us, and help thus to make votes. A hundred twenty cent campaign subscribers might be sent in from almost every single post office.

THE Democrats are quarreling like cats and dogs ever their own tariff bill. Cleveland has pitched in to the Senate leaders, Gorman, Vest and the rest, and they have got back at him in great style. "When rogues fall out"—

A VERY interesting and stimulating letter has reached us, showing the perfection of our party organization in Sheridan county, and the hard work of the committeemen, there. All counties should be stirred to do likewise.

THE trial of Mr. Debs and his associates has begun. They will be convicted, of course, and it will show that the courts belong to the corporations. The government itself is on trial.

THE Pullman Co. last week declared another quarterly dividend of two per cent. Losing money, eh? The dividends must come though the workers starve.

REMEMBER Second ward caucus in sheriff's office, court house at 8 o'clock p. m. Saturday next, by special request of Woodard, ward committeeman.

DELEGATES to the State and congressional conventions have already been chosen in Brown county. They are instructed to support Kem for congress.

MR. DAWES, our solicitor, is now in Chadron. He is finding lots of Populists and friends of THE WEALTH MAKERS.

WANTED—some friend in each county convention to gather up a club of subscribers for THE WEALTH MAKERS.

without giving adequate compensation. Manfully shouldering our own burdens, we may be enabled to leave our children a fair field for exercising their energies in supplying their wants, unburdened by any legacy of debt; and in endeavoring to carry out our reforms on the only practicable lines—those laid down in the last two verses of the Old Testament, we may find a peaceable solution of our difficulties that otherwise threaten to enslave us in a bloody revolution which we have every reason to expect would leave us as far from a satisfactory settlement as we were before. ARMAGEDDON, THE NEW SONG BOOK

Our new song book, Armageddon, has been delayed by the music typographers, but it is now rapidly approaching completion. We expect to have it ready for delivery by August 10th, and call attention of the local workers everywhere to it. It will, by its heart-touching, battle-breathing and educating and uniting truth greatly arouse the people, and there is enough of the humorous element in the songs to attract all classes. Armageddon, we must believe, will be a great moving and enthusing power in the present campaign, and until the workers of the world win the final battle which shall give them perfect justice. It is a product of the times, for the people, the words being written and selected by one who has both suffered and studied. It is a book for the masses to sing out of in their future mighty conflict with the classes.

See partial list of the songs it will contain in prospectus advertisement on third page of this paper.

The book will contain about 125 pages of a little over 7 by 8 inch size, mostly new music as well as new words, music suited to the stirring thought. The price of the book will be 35 cents a single copy, 30 cents by the dozen. Send orders at once to THE WEALTH MAKERS Publishing Co., Lincoln, Neb.

Stock Notes.

The keeping of hogs may be made very profitable where home dairying is carried on, says John Gould in Practical Farmer, but there should be as much judgment and method in the matter, as in the selection and care of the cows. To get the best results, milk and butter-milk should be fed in conjunction with grain. The taking off of the cream has not lessened the feeding value of the milk so much as to deprive the animal of an agency of quick digestion. With the corn meal and shorts fed with the milk, there should be some oil meal which takes the place of the missing fats and makes the cheese of the milk easily digested. The swill milk tank should be cleaned out as often as every two days, and scalded. The "bitter water" of very sour milk is poison to a hog. Where much grain is fed with the milk, the latter should never be allowed to become thick, the acid of changing milk—lactic—may be all right with grain, but never should be allowed to get very sour. Young pigs should always have the skim milk and oil meal, etc., fed sweet and warm. Sour, cold milk and no grain kills thousands of small pigs with dysentery, and then it is charged up to bad luck.

Stock Notes.

Let the hogs have access to wood ashes. They will prevent worms.

Corn, oats and middlings make a good ration for the sow that is suckling pigs.

A New York farmer says an acre of Hubbard squash will fatten ten hogs more than an acre of corn.

A hog raiser of experience says he believes a brood sow reaches her limit of usefulness at the age of seven years.

Mud is one of the means which the hog employs to defend itself from flies. A mud puddle in the hog pasture pays.

The work team should be kept strong. They need a variety of feed. Besides being more palatable, it aids digestion and preserves a good appetite.

A New York dairyman warms his barn in winter with a hot air furnace. Foolish expense. Barns can be made warm enough by proper construction for all practical purposes.

It is a blooming theory of some that chewing the cud is all the exercise a cow needs, and upon the same principle one might conclude that a good all round tobacco chewer would get all the exercise he needs.

We want fifty thousand new subscribers to THE WEALTH MAKERS. Will each one of our present subscribers help us by sending two new names? If you are unable to get yearly subscribers, send them in for three or six months. See out special offer in another column.

Irrigated Farm Lands

—IN THE—
FERTILE SAN LUIS VALLEY, COLORADO.

THE SAN LUIS VALLEY, COLORADO, is a stretch of level plain about as large as the State of Connecticut, lying between surrounding ranges of lofty mountains and watered by the Rio Grande River and a score or more of small tributary streams. It was the bottom of a great sea, whose deposits have made a fertile soil on an average more than ten feet deep. The mountains are covered with great deposits of snow, which melt and furnish the irrigating canals with water for the farmers' crops.

The Climate is Unrivaled.

Almost perpetual sunshine, and the elevation of about 7,000 feet dispels all malaria, nor are such pests as chinch bug, weevil, etc., found there. Flowing artesian wells are secured at a depth, on an average, of about 100 feet, and at a cost of about $25.00 each. Such is the flow that they are being utilized for irrigating the yards, garden and vegetable crops. The pressure is sufficient to carry the water, which is pure, all through the farmers' dwellings.

Irrigation.

Already several thousand miles of large and small irrigating canals have been built and several hundred thousand acres of lands made available for farming operations. Irrigation is an insurance against failure of crops, because success is a question only of the proper application of water to them. The loss of a single corn or wheat crop in Nebraska, for instance, would more than equal the cost of irrigating canals to cover the entire state, so important is the certainty of a full crop return to any agricultural state. The San Luis Valley will grow

Spring wheat, oats, barley, peas, hops, beans, potatoes, vegetables and all kinds of small fruits and many of the hardier varieties of apples, pears and all kinds of cherries.

In the yield of all these products it has never been surpassed by any other section on this continent.

Forty Acres Enough Land.

Forty acres is enough land for the farmer of ordinary means and help. Besides the certainty of return, the yield, under the conditions of proper irrigation, will average far more than the 100-acre farms in the Mississippi and Missouri Valleys, and the outlay for machinery, farming stock, purchase money, taxes, etc., are proportionately less. There are a hundred thousand acres of such lands located in the very heart of the San Luis Valley, all within six miles of the Denver & Rio Grande Railroad, convenient markets and shipping stations, for sale at $15.00 per acre. Most of these lands are fenced and have been under cultivation and in many instances have wells and some buildings, everything ready to proceed at once to begin farming. A small cash payment only is required where the purchaser immediately occupies the premises, a long time at seven per cent. Interest is granted for the deferred payments.

A Specially Low Homeseekers Rate

will be made you, your family and friends. A large party will leave for the Valley on July 21 and 22. Should you settle on these lands the amount you paid for railroad fare will be credited to you on your payments; and remember the land is perfectly and thoroughly irrigated, and the land and perpetual water rights are sold you for less than other sections ask for simply the water rights without the land. No better lands exist anywhere on earth.
