

DUNNING DENOUNCED.

Our Congressman Boundly Disclaim Part in a Fusion Scheme.

HAVE NO DISPOSITION TO BOSS

No Right to Even Suggest Fusion, or Direct the Party's Course—Do Not Know What the People Want.

The Watchman Called

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 10, 1894. To the People's Party of Nebraska:

The National Watchman, a newspaper published in this city by N. A. Dunning, contained in its issue of June 22nd, an editorial under the caption of "Fusion Conspiracy" in which, among other things, it said:

"It is evident that a conspiracy for a fusion has been entered into between Weaver, Bryan, Kem and McKelghan. These are the beneficiaries but do not constitute the entire number. Weaver has moved into another district in order to make the race, and his paper is filled with laudation of Bryan and arguments for fusion."

That this statement is entirely false and that there is not the shadow of an excuse for its publication, the people of Nebraska, and especially the Populist party, will understand.

The Populist delegation in Congress from Nebraska have studiously refrained from doing or saying anything having the least appearance of "Bossism," believing that it is for the party in its state convention, unprejudiced and uninfluenced by anything that we may say or do, to determine what course should be pursued this fall. We have at no time supposed that we had a right to participate in or suggest fusion, or prescribe the course to be pursued by the party. And this is made more manifest to you when it is remembered that we have been removed for so many months from our friends in Nebraska as to be unable to form a correct judgment of the situation there and the course that ought to be adopted. Our opinion, under such circumstances, would be of no value.

We look upon Mr. Dunning as far from being a true Populist. His chief desire seems to be to procure money of Populist congressmen and others, for the support of his paper and himself, and when he finds a member of congress who refuses to respond to his oft repeated requests for money he immediately begins to misrepresent him through his paper.

About two years ago he told Mr. Kem that it was his purpose to defeat Mr. McKelghan if he could because the latter would not contribute money to him, and recently he has expressed his bitter hostility to Mr. McKelghan to different persons, admitting that his chief ground of complaint was a failure upon the part of the former to contribute money.

He has also expressed hostility to Mr. Kem because, after making a donation of twenty five dollars, the latter refused to continue contributing money to him.

After inducing Mr. Allen to make a donation of fifty-five dollars to his paper, Dunning professed that the latter had become a stockholder in the paper and by some means unknown a certificate of stock for one hundred dollars in the National Watchman was placed on Mr. Allen's desk, and then Mr. Dunning made a claim of a balance of forty-five dollars due him on the stock. On discovering that a stock certificate had been issued to him, Mr. Allen promptly returned the same and refused to be recognized as a stockholder or as having any interest in the paper whatever, whereupon Mr. Dunning became his enemy and is indirectly responsible for the attacks made upon Mr. Allen through the Nonconformist, published at Indianapolis, Indiana.

We are possessed of information which leads us to believe that when Mr. Dunning is able to obtain money from Populists, he gives his services to the R-publicans, and by that means tries to obtain money from anyone who will pay him. Information in our possession satisfies us that Mr. Dunning has given his influence and the influence of his paper to the Republican party for money and that he is really and truly an enemy to the cause of the Populist party. Support extended by Populists to the National Watchman under such circumstances, is, in our judgment, giving support to the enemy of our cause.

In this connection it is proper for us to say that it is not concealed from us by the correspondents of certain papers that it is their purpose and the purpose of the publishers of their papers, to misrepresent us to the people of Nebraska and by that means create a false impression in the minds of the people of our state, as far as that can be done. We have not, thus far, thought it advisable to contradict any reports or statements appearing against us, believing that you are fully cognizant of their purpose to destroy the Populist party and its representatives by persistent misrepresentations. We have noticed this matter at this time only for the purpose of saying that we shall not in the future contradict, publicly or privately, any statement that may appear against us, relying on the good judgment of the people to discover the falsity and animus of such statement.

We have the honor to be Your obedient servants, W. A. McKEIGHAN, O. M. KEM, WM. V. ALLEN.

THE WEALTH MAKERS ALLIANCE DEPARTMENT.

BY MRS. J. T. KELLIE, SEC'Y.

The new password has just been received from the National Secretary under instructions to give it only to the Alliances having paid this quarter's dues (September 30).

The National Secretary, B. P. Duncan of Columbia, South Carolina, writes: "Our sympathies are with the strikers, and if they would vote like they strike they could and would accomplish some thing."

"We have got to turn the lawyers out of Congress and fill their places with our own people before we will accomplish anything."

We should not fight all lawyers, and yet nearly every disgrace and disension in the new party has been caused by them.

They work to the front, not by ability, but because the working class push them ahead because they admire the gift of gab.

A lawyer who has conscience enough not to work to clear the guilty, or punish the innocent, is all right; but I would just as soon trust Judas as one who would do those things.

A Lancaster County brother writes, who is well posted in affairs of the state: "We must rally the Alliances to the work. Now is the crisis of our cause in the state. Every true man and woman must now rally to the rescue of our cause. Make Rome howl. Wake the Alliances up to their responsibility as men and women and take the reins of political action out of the hands of lawyers and the rings in the towns. Send the note of warning. Ring the bells, and rally the farmers to the danger that the party has encountered by allowing the towns, and lawyers, and slysters to get control of our party. Rally as never before. Sound it out all along the line, that the farmers must arouse themselves to the emergency, or all is lost. Thank God we have one farmer in Congress that will not be caught in any of their traps, and that is O. M. Kem. All honor to such manhood, if not quite so great a statesman to fall."

Brother A D'Allemand writes: "My bill was $97.20, not including railroad fares, which was to be paid by N. F. A. Actual expenses such as printing, reports, constitutions, proceedings, stamps, express, freight, etc., $187.20 for the year, no allowance for rent, fuel or light, and I have not even asked my salary included in the first amount. I have been twice sued for printing, which for defending, cost me $10 each time. At last I borrowed money to quiet the plaintiff. Hence you see it is not charity, because you will see it is due me. January 14, 1893, Allen Root says in his letter: "You state truly that the State Alliance assumed the National Alliance debt to relieve you, etc."

All the delegates to the State Alliance at Hastings were instructed and pledged to use their utmost efforts to get their Alliances to pay this debt; yet half of it has not been raised. An account is kept of every cent sent in for this fund, and will be submitted at the annual meeting. Sherman County Alliance paid for all the Alliances in that county and where there is money in the treasury that can be spared it is a good plan. The sub-alliances have so many calls. The assessment was ordered on the Alliances in good standing at Hastings; but in my judgment, all in good standing at Grand Island where the debt was assumed, should help to pay it.

Should too much be sent in it will be used to pay other debts. We will pay all just debts as fast as possible, but under no circumstances will any new debts be contracted under the present management, all the officers being unanimous on this point. When little comes in little will be spent. We shall not try to make a garment for a grown person with the cloth meant for a babe.

Collect Campaign Funds at the Primaries.

OMAHA, July 14, 1894.

Editor WEALTH MAKERS:

I have just completed a trip through the south part of the state and I find several of the members of the party do not know that they are expected to raise money at the primaries for the state committee. In order to win the coming campaign the committee must have money to carry on the campaign; and it is much better that the money be collected early than just before the campaign closes. Now I hope to see at least one dollar collected in each voting precinct at the time of the primaries are held, and the one dollar or more that is collected sent to the county conventions and there all be put together and sent by the delegates to the state convention. In this way the committee will have something to open the campaign immediately after the convention. Now every precinct can raise one dollar, and no precinct should fail to send that much to the state convention.

Respectfully, D CLEM DEVER.
