

FOUL PLAY IS SUSPECTED.

BANK EXAMINER MILLER'S SUICIDE QUESTIONED.

GOVERNMENT WILL LOOK INTO IT.

Evidence said to be strong that Miller of Pennsylvania, Did Not Die by His Own Hand in the Wrecked Altoona Institution—The Cashier Was Found to be Short About $100,000.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 20.—O. P. Tucker, deputy controller of the currency, today received a telegram from a government official at Altoona, Pa., stating that it was very doubtful whether Bank Examiner Miller committed suicide yesterday as was reported.

An officer of the bureau will immediately be sent to Altoona with Miller's report on the condition of the suspended bank, and an effort will be made to arrive at the solution of the mystery.

It is understood that Miller's report showed that the bank was practically without assets and that the shortage, both in cash and bills receivable, traceable to the peculations of Cashier Gardner will amount approximately to $100,000.

According to the report sent out from Altoona yesterday, Miller, after a brief talk with President J. P. Levan of the defunct bank, went into the private office as though to resume his work and a few minutes later, after a shot had been heard, was found dead on the floor of the room with a bullet hole through his head. No cause for the alleged suicide, save insanity due to overwork on the books of the bank, was given, but the fact that the report had been completed and sent to Washington makes the case mysterious in every way.

Eaton put whip to his horse and started away, but a crowd gave chase and he was finally captured.

Many of the strikers are taking advantage of the company's offer of free transportation to any point on the system.

Verdict in the Lincoln Wreck.

LINCOLN, Neb., Aug. 20.—The coroner's jury has found that the wreck on the Rock Island road, which resulted in the death of eleven persons, was caused by wreckers, and recommends that George Washington Davis, the colored man now in custody be held for rigorous examination, as circumstances seem to implicate him.

Lashed by Angry Women.

SIoux CITY, Iowa, Aug. 20.—Two disolute women went from here to the little town of Dalton to live a few days ago. THE PULLMAN INQUIRY.

Chairman Heathcote and Others Give a Bad Record to the Company.

CHICAGO, Aug. 20.—Chairman Heathcote of the Pullman strike committee was recalled by the strike commissioners to-day and questioned at length as to the causes of the strike. He related instances of what he considered the company's tyranny. He said that one of the workmen had been struck in the face by another, and that when the assaulted man attempted to prosecute his assailant he was told by his foreman to drop proceedings or he would be discharged. About 4,000 men struck at Pullman and each paid $1 to the A. R. U.

Mary Abbott Wood, one of the women strikers said that the wages paid by the Pullman company were insufficient for the bare necessities of life. "I received $1 a day," she said, "and paid $1.75 per month rent for one of the company's houses."

J. B. Pierson of Pullman stated that the Pullman company's houses averaged from one-third to one-half higher than similar houses in the surrounding suburbs. In the residence districts about Pullman rents had been materially reduced lately, but no reduction had been made in the manufacturing town.

Miss Jane Adams, superintendent of the Hull house charitable work and a member of the board of conciliation of the civic federation, said that during her investigations of the strike she had found the strikers always ready to arbitrate but that the Pullman officials did not appear disposed to make any effort to settle the trouble. She also declared that the rents in Pullman were higher than in other localities.

F. P. McDonald, Chicago and Great Western engineer, said that his employers sometimes compelled him to remain on continuous duty from sixty to seventy-two hours without rest. He told of the blacklisting of several of his fellow workmen and gave a long account of the strike on his road. "I am opposed to strikes in general," said he, "but when the federal government will do nothing for us we have no weapon but the strike and we must use it. If it were not for strikes the railroad men in this country would be working for one-half the pay they are now getting." He told how impossible it was for him to get employment after the Burlington strike when he was blacklisted. The company's influence was used against him even to the extent of protesting to Governor Francis of Missouri against his appointment as oil inspector at St. Joseph, Mo. He knew of no cases where striking members of the American Railway union, while abstaining from violence themselves, instigated it on the part of others.

Death Ended Her Walk.

BRISTOL, Tenn., Aug. 20.—Mrs. M. M. White, 75 years old, left Plattsburg, Miss., some time ago on foot for Washington. She reached Bristol and mailed a letter to her son, informing him where she was. A few hours later she was killed on a bridge by a train. Some papers in her satchel showed that she was going to Washington to see about some land claims and a pension.

THE BUSINESS SITUATION.

BRADSTREET'S ON THE EFFECT OF THE TARIFF BILL.

LITTLE ENTHUSIASM IN THE EAST.

Uniform Satisfaction Throughout the Southern, Central and Northwestern States Except Where Serious Crop Damage Has Been Sustained.

—In the Far West Little Interest is Manifested.

NEW YORK, Aug. 20.—Bradstreet's says: Special telegraphic and summer summarizing interviews with more than 500 leading wholesale dealers in forty-seven cities throughout the country as to the present effect of the prospective tariff settlement and the outlook as to the effect of the senate tariff bill, should it become a law, indicate relatively less enthusiasm at larger Eastern cities, except at New York and Baltimore, almost uniform satisfaction throughout the Southern states and similar advices from the Central and Northwestern states, except where serious crop damage has taken place. In the far West little interest is manifested in tariff agitation, notably at Denver and Helena, where silver attracts more attention. Portland fears the result of the reduction of the tariff on lumber, but at San Francisco an improved demand is expected and considerable freight is offering for shipment to China. A feature is found in declarations from glassware, pottery and iron and steel manufacturers at various centers of products that wages will be promptly reduced.

The serious damage to corn in Kansas has had an unfavorable effect at Kansas City, crop damage in that state, as well as in Nebraska and Iowa, overshadowing other conditions and characterizing trade reports from Lincoln, Omaha and Burlington.

THE A. P. A. WAR.

Mr. Kerens Will Bring the Matter Before the National Committee.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Aug. 20.—Hon. Richard C. Kerens, the Missouri member of the national Republican committee, will leave for New York to-day for the purpose, it is said, of consulting with members of the national committee as to the mode of casting the A. P. A. drift. It will be remembered that a resolution presented by Mr. Kerens at the Missouri Republican convention was turned down. Mr. Kerens, in an interview, said of the prospects of Republican success in Missouri this fall: "I think that our chances were excellent. The menace to success in the attempt of the A. P. A. to attach itself to the Republican party. We don't want them. Nobody knows who they are nor how many there are of them. They are a band of fanatics who deny their own identity. They are a lot of sand-baggers in politics and my friends and myself want to know who they are. They belong to no political party. Their doctrine is almost the same as that of the Orangemen of the Dominion of Canada. Emphatically the party must divorce itself from the A. P. A. and any other secret political organization."

HARRISON TO SPEAK.

The Ex-President to Make a Few Speeches During the Campaign.

NEW YORK, Aug. 20.—Ex-President Harrison in the course of an interview, says he has kept thoroughly posted about what was going on, and has some very decided opinions as to the news from Washington during the past two weeks. It was, however, absolutely impossible to induce him to express these opinions for publication. When asked for a reason he simply said that he did not want to, and he considered that reason sufficient. "I shall make two and possibly three speeches," Mr. Harrison said, "during the coming campaign. I shall make them in my own state and very near my own home. All that I have to say about the tariff and every other topic that you want me to talk about will be said then. I have numerous invitations to make political speeches in different parts of the country, but have resolved to limit myself to the field I have mentioned."

THE EX-QUEEN'S ENVOYS.

They Denounce the New Republic of Hawaii.

CHICAGO, Aug. 20.—H. A. Wideman, Samuel Parker and J. A. Cummings, the ambassadors of ex-Queen Liliuokalani, who went to Washington to prevent, if possible, the recognition of the new Hawaiian republic by congress, and who were not successful in their mission, left the Grand Pacific hotel yesterday for the West, bound for home. The disappointed ambassadors met many friends in the hotel lobby and were not slow to denounce the new government of their island home. Mr. Wideman said the new republic is not a republic in fact, but an oligarchy which this great republic ought to be ashamed to recognize in any way. He said three-fourths of the population had been disfranchised, while the president enjoys powers which were denied the king under the constitutional monarchy.

HARRISON ON LIVE TOPICS.

The Ex-President Discusses the Tariff and Indiana and New York Politics.

NEW YORK, Aug. 20.—The Commercial-Advertiser to-day prints the following interview with ex-President Harrison at the house of Captain Bargnot, at Spring Lake, N. J.

"My position is a peculiar one. It is hard for people to understand how I am situated. My lips are necessarily sealed so far as criticism of this administration goes. It would be in very bad taste or form to draw comparisons between my own and Mr. Cleveland's administration. It would be highly discourteous for me to state wherein I believe this administration errs. Therefore I have uniformly refused to express my opinion, to draw any comparisons, or to criticize and I shall continue that policy."

"Should you not have something to say about the new tariff bill?" "That is a different matter. That measure is not fathered by the administration as I understand it and is a legitimate matter for discussion. But I am not yet ready. I do not wish to speak hastily of a matter that so intimately concerns the welfare of the party and country and goes to the very root of the prosperity of the nation. Later I shall prepare a careful analysis of the situation and shall speak to the people during the Indiana campaign. I shall speak two or three times, and will let the people know my views on the tariff question. Some things that I say may be worth printing."

"When will the campaign open in Indiana?" "Locally it opens very soon now. But the great battle will not begin until the fall is well advanced."

"Do you confidently expect Republican success there?" "It would be premature to predict."

"What do you think of the situation in New York state?" "I think the situation in New York state demands that every man outside the state keep his hands off, that is what I think. Let outsiders keep their hands off and attend to their own business. I don't see how anything that I or any other outsider can do in the way of encouragement can help restore harmony. All that I know about the situation I read in the papers and I know that the harmony of which you speak has not yet been secured, and that the two wings of the party still maintain separate organizations and are as far apart as ever. Suggestions, advice or talk of any kind from outsiders would be impertinent and ill-advised. Of course the result in New York this fall will have a mighty influence upon national affairs."
