

DESHA BRECKINRIDGE STABS JAMES D. LIVINGSTON.

HE MARROWLY MISSES HIS HEART.

Judge Kinkead, Who Made Speeches Against Colonel Breckinridge, Also Violently Threatened by the Colonel's Son-The Owens Men Thoroughly Aroused_Serious Trouble Certain.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Sept. 24 .- Desha Breckinridge had a sensational altercation with James Duane Livingston, formerly of New York city, in the Phoenix hotel at 5:30 last evening. Livingston was standing in the news and cigar stand reading an afternoon paper when Desha Breckinridge came in and bought a package of cigarettes. Livingston spoke to Desha and ex-tended his hand, saying, "It is all over now, we ought to be friends. Shake hands."

Breckinridge, with an angry look on his face, replied, "No, you onehorse scoundrel, I will not take your hand. You profess to be a man's friend and then stab him in the back."

Livingston replied to this by saying that he had done nothing of the kind, when Breckinridge called him a -liar. Then Livingston struck at Desha and knocked his glasses off, following this up with a blow on the neck. Desha reached for his h.p. pocket and instantly flashed in the air a long, bright blade of a big dirk. Both men were pale as death. Liv-ingston, in a moment of desperation, grabbed at the glittering blade which Breckinridge had aimed at his heart. The knife went between the second and third fingers of Livingston's right hand, cutting the third finger to the bone. The cold steel sent a shudder through Livingston's frame, and he grasped his right hand with his left in order to stop the terrible flow of blood that was dyeing the til-ing of the lobby. Desha Breckin-ridge seemed to desire no more bood gave Livingston two strong a. The hotel clerks and several bystanders rushed in and seized reckinridge, and at the same instant Matt Lane, a strong Breckinridge man, ran up and said he would take a hand in helping Desha.

Two witnesses say that Lane also fourished a big knife, but Lane denies this. Livingston was hurried into the wash room where his wounds were bathed, and he was then taken to the office of a physician, where his hand was dressed. A friend then took Livingston home in a buggy, and Desha Breckinridge went to his rooms across the street.

Matt Lane and Desha also violently threatened and abusively taunted refused to take up their challenges. He is a man of the highest personal courage, and more trouble seems im-minent.

BOTTOM DROPS OUT.

Land in Three Kansas Countles Sinking Toward the Center of the Earth. WICHITA, Kan., Sept. 24 .- Land is caving toward the center of the earth in the vicinity of the junction of Harvey, Butler and Marion counties in this state. Great excitement prevails among the people and many of them are getting away. The disasters are of the most unaccountable origin, and the state geologist has been summoned to investigate the disturbance of the earth's formations. There was no shock felt when the ground caved in bearing any resemblance to an earthquake. Near White Water, on the farm of Thomas Essington, an area of 40x90 feet sunk to the depth of twenty-eight feet, and when a man was let down into the hole his weight alone sunk it three feet more This occurred yes-terday and about the same moment an was on the farm of Sid Jones, the sliding-in carrying a threshing machine and separator with it. Water poured into the latter hole from underground in sheets of water until it was filled nearly to the top, but the hole at White Water is still dry, although it is supposed that the caved-in earth is resting upon a vast body of water. Both places are some seven or eight miles apart.

At Annelly, some ten miles from White Water, there were several small cave-ins ranging in depth from six to forty feet. The theories are various, but none of them so far are scientific. Not long since a man was digging a well in the vicinity of Plum Grove, and when he had reached a depth of twenty-six feet the drill shot into an apparent vacum and could not be recovered. The supposition is that there is a dried up underground river beneath the land which has caved in. All the cave-ins, great and small, extend in a crooked streamlike course a distance of about twenty-four miles.

SCREEN LAW OVERTHROWN.

Judge West of the Sixth Kansas District Decides Against the Miners.

FORT SCOTT, Kan., Sept. 24. -Judge J. S. West of the Sixth judicial district, in chambers to-day, decided in the case of the state of Kansas vs. A. B. Kirkwood of Crawford county that the new law governing the mining and weighing of coal in Kansas was unconstitutional and dismissed the defendant. This is the first decision of this law. It was obtained by the Wear Coal company, which openly violated the law in order to test its constitutionality. The Missouri & Kansas, the Durkee and other coal companies will im-mediately ignore the law and resume the old custom of weighing coal at the mines.

ALL QUIET IN HAWAII.

Interest Centered in the Elections of October 29-No Royalist Nominations.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 24. - The steamer Australia, which arrived today from Honolulu, brought the following advices up to last Saturday:

The coming election to be held October 29, is creating considerable talk. From present indications there will be little opposition to the government candidates. No Royalist nominations have been made yet, though Paul Neumann, confidential adviser of the ex-queen, has been freely sopken of as a candidate for senator.

One of the clauses of the new constitution is that all government offi-cials who have not taken the oath of allegiance to the republic by Septem-ber 1 will be discharged. This rule will be carried out even to the exclusion of women school teachers, a few of whom will not give up their allegiance to Liliuokalani. A majority of the native soldiers have taken the required oath, however, and stand pledged to support the present government.

One American, three German and one English men-of-war have been in tion. Honolulu's harbor for the past week. The German's left a few days ago and the Charleston departed yesterday for the scene of the Corean war. The Hyacinth, an English war ship, leaves to-day for a short cruise. This has given birth to the usual royalist rumors of the queen's restoration, but no belief is expressed by the govern-ment in any attempt towards rebellion.
