

RESERVES ARE CALLED OUT.

JAPAN PUSHING THE CHINESE WAR VIGOROUSLY.

ALL THE REGULARS IN THE FIELD.

An Army of 175,000 Men Will Be Sent to Korea or China at Once—Reserves to Do Home Duty—Had Panic in Pekin and Elsewhere—The Whole of China Said to Be Almost Defenseless.

LONDON, Oct. 1.—That Japan proposes to push the war with China with the utmost vigor and to take advantage of the enthusiasm of the people, was shown to-day when the mikado issued a proclamation calling out for active service all of the reserves of the national guard. It is believed that this means that all of the regular army of 175,000 men will be sent to Korea or China at once, and that the reserves will be held on duty in the kingdom for the present, to be sent to the aid of the regulars if necessary.

Reports from Shanghai are that there is a mad panic in Pekin and other parts of China and that the very name Japanese inspires terror. It is said that the Chinese defenses on the Korean borders have collapsed and that the whole of China is practically helpless. The Chinese soldiers at Wiju who have been opposing the Japanese troops from Korea are reported to have mutinied and thrown away their rifles because they have no ammunition.

It is rumored at Shanghai that the Japanese have effected a landing on the coast of the Shanghai-Tung promontory to the northward of Che-Foo. Advices from Pekin are that there is ever increasing anxiety there among the foreign population and at Tien Tsin the foreigners are actively organizing for defense of the foreign quarters.

A dispatch from Shanghai says: "It is believed the emperor contemplates a change of advisers and the dismissal of all the mandarins and others who have been concerned in the conduct of the war. Affairs at Pekin are tending toward an imperial court d'etat, involving the overthrow of Li Hung Chang and other statesmen."

A dispatch from Shanghai says that the commander of the Japanese warship Naniwa has reported to the minister of marine, Count Saigo, that while cruising in company with the Atsukima, September 23, a Chinese warship was sighted stranded in the gulf of Tair-en-Wah. The Japanese believe she was the Kwang-Kai. The Chinese crew on board of her, when the Japanese cruisers appeared, set fire to their ship and escaped. The warship was reported to have been so damaged as to have been useless for further fighting and the Japanese completed her destruction.

WAS HIS LIFE AIMED AT? Lexow Committee Witness Appo Claims That His Foes Tried to Kill Him.

NEW YORK, Oct. 1.—George Appo, the Lexow committee witness who gave away the doings of the green goods men and who was found yesterday afternoon with his throat cut, was arraigned in the Tombs police court to-day. The cut is not serious. With Appo was arraigned Michael J. Reardon, who, Appo says, cut him. Appo was held for examination on the charge of having attempted suicide and Reardon for felonious assault. In court Appo said that he went to the North River hotel to serve some subpoenas for the Lexow committee. "While there," he continued, "I met the proprietor, Baar. Baar's place was the rendezvous of the green goods men. He used to get $10 for every guy that was steered in there. Baar asked me to have a drink. He wanted to open a bottle of wine, but I took whisky. Baar then asked me not to mention my place in any testimony I might give before the Lexow committee. I took two drinks and became dizzy. The last thing I remember is seeing Reardon standing over me with a knife. I did not cut myself and made no attempt to stab Reardon. The next thing I remember was when they had me bound down in Chambers' street hospital. I wanted to free myself, but one of the policemen standing over me threatened to gouge my eyes out. I have been a marked man ever since I was a witness before the Lexow committee. I was followed last week, and when I pointed out the man who was after me to the policeman, I got only laughter for my pains. Reardon and Baar repeated their stories of yesterday that Appo went to the hotel crazy drunk and said his life was not worth $2. He said he would show he was square by cutting his throat, and tried to do so with a knife.

The Gould's Fight Taxes.

NEW YORK, Oct. 1.—The children of the late Jay Gould and the executors of his estate have procured an order from Justice Lawrence of the supreme court requiring the tax commissioners of this city to show cause why they should not remove the tax assessed against them. They claim that they are not residents and are not subject to a personal tax. A similar proceeding which they brought some time ago has been hanging fire, and they now ask to have the matter disposed of.

Struck Natural Gas.

NEVADA, Mo., Oct. 1.—At a depth of 125 feet natural gas was struck yesterday on A. P. Wilson's farm in this county, eighteen miles northwest of Nevada, eleven feet further the gas vein became so strong that the noise made by its escape from the well was heard three miles away. A 30-foot pipe was fixed in the well and the gas lighted, the flames shot out at least thirty feet further. It is the intention to drill to a depth of 500 feet.

M'KINLEY ANSWERS WILSON.

The Ohio Governor on the London Banquet to the Tariff Reformer. GALLIPOLI, Ohio, Oct. 1.—Governor McKinley spoke here yesterday to a great audience of people. In the course of his long address, Governor McKinley inquired what industries the tariff law of 1894 created and what existing industries it had stimulated, and said: "I find answer to my question in the newspaper dispatches of to-day from London, furnishing particulars of a banquet given by the chamber of commerce of London to Mr. Wilson, member of congress from the state of West Virginia, whose rugged hillside I see just over the river, Sir Albert Kave Rollit, who presided at the banquet, said that Mr. Wilson's name had become honored and familiar in England and that London, in honoring him honored itself; that the new tariff law, while it might not have realized the aspirations of its promoters, had already benefited England.

"Furnaces have been reopened in Wales and Yorkshire and an impetus has been given to the textile industries. This will be cheering news to the people of the United States and will bring comfort to the idle men who, for a year, have been waiting for the American mills to reopen. You have not heard any commercial body in the United States, through its spokesman, declaring that any industries in America have been stimulated by this law, whatever benefits have gone to other countries. While the banquet at London was proceeding, the board of trade at Edinburgh sent its congratulations. There was a singular absence of any American dispatches. (Prolonged applause.) Here is a word of encouragement which Mr. Wilson himself gave to the gentlemen of London. He said: 'Our protectionists have been building defenses to keep you and other nations from competing with us in our home markets. The tariff reformers are breaking down these defenses.' That," continued Governor McKinley, "is what we object to. If we do not defend our home markets against the products of the cheaper labor of other countries, who will? Is it any wonder that the gentlemen of the chamber of commerce of London applauded Mr. Wilson when he uttered such a sentiment?

"Mr. Wilson even despairs of free government, for he said we are being rapidly sobered, though unappalled, by the truth forced upon us that of all human governments a free government is the most complex, and, judged from the world's experience, the most uncertain and short lived. I beg to assure Mr. Wilson of West Virginia that the government of the United States a free people, is safe and secure—quite secure as governments that are conducted by the titled few, and that a people like ours, capable of governing themselves, and having so demonstrated for more than one hundred years, will be alert enough to see to it that no industrial policy shall long continue in this country that will lower the conditions of its people to the level of their European rivals and rob them of their dignity and independence."

MAYOR HOPKINS IMPUGNED.

Directly Charged With Accepting Bribes from Chicago Gamblers.

CHICAGO, Oct. 1.—During the gambling investigation to-day by the grand jury Detective Matt Pinkerton swore that he had positive evidence that Mayor Hopkins had received money from the gamblers. He said the money was given by the gamblers with the understanding that they were not to be interfered with. The matter was not gone into thoroughly, but it will be made the subject of further investigation. The Trade and Labor assembly, it is reported, is to start a crusade against high-toned gambling. The board of trade, it is said, is to be attacked, and Washington park race track is also in line as a place where rich people bet their money. Club waiters, it is claimed, will reveal secrets, and card games on Michigan boulevard as well as on Clark street will be made public. It is reported that repeated attempts have been made on the life of Judge Brentano, who in his judicial capacity has ordered the destruction of paraphernalia taken in raids upon gambling halls. In one instance it is said he was fired upon in his bedchamber. The bullets came from across the way. There is no clue to the would be assassin.

The present grand jury returned its final report to-day, finding twenty indictments against owners of property used for gambling rooms. Several leading people were among those indicted, among them J. Irving Pierce, proprietor of the Sherman house; Owen E. Aldice, the capitalist, and James R. Todd, a wealthy real estate dealer. The grand jury will be reconvened and the investigation carried on, backed by the civic federation. In addition to the property owners about fifty men were indicted, charged with keeping gambling houses. Among those indicted was George V. Hankins, owner of the New Harlem race track, and his business partner, William Wightman.

Informers McDaniel Held.

MEMPHIS, Mo., Oct. 1.—W. E. McDaniel, the informer of the Gorin, Mo., train robbers, has been held to the grand jury in $1,500 bail upon the charge of conspiring to rob a train. He pleaded not guilty to the information filed against him before Justice C. F. Sanders and has so far failed to secure a bondsman, his own father even refusing to go on the bond.

Armed Peace in Rio Janeiro.

RIO DE JANEIRO, Oct. 1.—This city is peaceful now and a vigorous campaign against the rebel forces under General Salgado in Rio Grande do Sul is being arranged. Cavalry still holds all the public squares, the artillery is in readiness in the barracks, while the infantry and marines patrol the streets. No leave of absence is granted by commanders of warships. Seventeen philanthropic societies of Chicago joined in a welcome to Miss Frances E. Willard on her return from Europe. Many noted persons spoke.

MR. HILL MUCH PERPLEXED

THE SITUATION IN NEW YORK STILL UNSETTLED.

THE ANTI-TAMMANYITES MAY BOLT.

The State Democracy Wing of the Party Intensely Hostile to Hill's Nomination—The Senator Getting the Lay of the Land—Bitterly Denounced by Two Mugwump Papers.

NEW YORK, Oct. 1.—Of almost as much interest in this state is the question still unsettled as to whether Senator Hill will or will not accept the gubernatorial nomination is the question as to what the state Democracy and other bodies of Democrats opposed to Tammany and machine rule will do. Opinion is divided as to the matter, and more than one shrewd politician declares that Hill will delay his reply to the committee of notification until he can receive some definite information as to the lay of the land in the direction of those who have heretofore been openly hostile to him and his machine methods. His statement yesterday that he would open the campaign in Brooklyn, provided a united Democracy should greet him, is peculiarly significant on this point.

Equally significant the other way is the fact that ex-Secretary Charles S. Fairchild, chairman of the state Democracy executive committee, and two anti-Laughlin Democratic leaders of Brooklyn had a conference yesterday. Mr. Fairchild refused to say what the outcome of the conference would be, but declared that the state Democracy could not publicly endorse the Saratoga ticket, and acknowledged that many of the members of that faction were intensely hostile to the head of the Saratoga ticket.

PLAIN WORDS BY TWO PAPERS.

The Times, which has been an administration organ, in an editorial yesterday morning said:

"The nomination of Mr. Hill wrecks all plans of party harmony, since he is the leader and creator of the faction that is responsible for disharmony. After loudly proclaiming that victory was hopeless without union, Mr. Hill's friends have taken a step that makes disunion chronic, and puts new life into expiring dissent. There is death and destruction for the party in this kind of management. It is unintelligent and unnatural. It dries up enthusiasm, weakens party attachments, and destroys the basis of party loyalty. The Times would not do its duty to the Democracy if it failed to denounce the work of this convention, begun in such hopefulness and ending in this act of incredibility. The Democracy has lost a great opportunity."

The Evening Post, administration paper, in a leading editorial said:

"We consider Mr. Hill the most dangerous man in American public life. He is a 'dare devil,' and delights to be considered such. He is attractive to Tammany hall and all the bosses and bad elements of society because he represents what they all aim at and strive for. Looking back at the list of Democratic leaders in New York, where do we find his likeness? Where is his place in the list with Van Buren, Marey, Wright, Seymour, Tilden, Cleveland? The mark of all these men is found in benefits to the state. They all had ambitions. They had their battles, their friends and their enemies, yet the candid judgment of to-day acknowledges that each and all of them had just claims to statesmanship. "What has David B. Hill done or aimed to do that entitles him to a place in the procession? The people of New York owe themselves the duty of putting an end to his unprincipled career and bad example. They will do so in the coming election we have not the least doubt. The majority against him ought to be larger than that against Maynard, because he was the principal, where Maynard was only the puppet and tool."
