

ALL RUSSIA IN MOURNING.

THE CITIES AND PEOPLE BE-DECKED IN BLACK.

TRIBUTES TO THEIR DEAD RULER.

Special Services and Celebration in Honor of the Accession of Nicholas II. Ended—Most Impressive Funeral Service in the St. Petersburg Cathedral—Nicholas II. Warned.

LONDON, Nov. 5.—A special service to celebrate the accession of Nicholas II to the throne of Russia was held today in the palace church at Livadia. It was attended by the new czar, the czarina, the queen of Greece, the duchess of Saxe-Coburg-Gotha, Princess Alix of Hesse-Darmstadt, the grand dukes and grand duchesses now at Livadia and the chief officials of the district.

The celebration of the accession of the new czar to the throne ended at midnight and to-day all Russia is being bedecked with mourning emblems. On private houses these will be removed after the funeral, November 17, but on public buildings they will remain for six months.

The correspondent of the Daily News at St. Petersburg telegraphs that though the Russians have not the same way of showing mourning as the Western nations, it is evident that the death of the czar has made a greater and deeper impression than might have been expected. The streets are crowded with a multitude of people, most of whom are clad in black, who in whispering tones discuss events. The churches are crowded with people who wish to pray for the soul of the dead czar. From other towns reports are received bearing testimony to the spirit of deep mourning that prevails. The Russian court will mourn for six months.

A dispatch to the Chronicle from St. Petersburg says that in order to save DeGiers, the Russian foreign minister, who is pressed by business and who is in ill health, Mr. Breckinridge, the American minister, in presenting President Cleveland's message of condolence, also represented all the other ministers in St. Petersburg, except the British minister, who personally called.

The service in the St. Petersburg cathedral yesterday was most impressive. Toward the close the metropolitan took off his miter and read passages from the bible, including the duty of obedience to the king. At that moment the whole congregation knelt, vowing allegiance to Nicholas. After this a large number crowded around the tables and took the oath of fealty, which pledged them to spend their last drop of blood for the czar and the country. The ceremony lasted an hour and was equally noteworthy for the magnificence of the vestments of the clergy and the brilliancy of the costumes of the officials and ladies. There was not a sign of mourning from the beginning to the end, but after the ceremony the mourning was resumed and St. Petersburg is like a city of the dead.

A requiem mass for the repose of the soul of the late czar of Russia was said yesterday in the Russian church here. The walls of the church were draped in black and silver and the interior was illuminated by hundreds of wax tapers. The Russian ambassador, M. De Staal, all the staff of the Russian embassy, representatives of nearly all the foreign diplomatic corps and a large number of ladies were present. All the ladies were on one side of the church and the gentlemen occupied the other side. The whole congregation knelt and all held lighted tapers in their hands. This, combined with general weeping, clouds of incense and the doleful chanting of the priests, produced a most solemn effect.

Crackmen Attempt to Blow Open a Bank Safe at Independence. KANSAS CITY, Mo., Nov. 5.—Robbers tried to rob the Chrisman-Sawyer bank at Independence last night. When the bank was opened at 8 o'clock this morning the vault door was found open with the lock blown off and the papers and books in the vault were in confusion. The burglar proof steel safe was bruised and battered and a part of the door gone, but the burglars had failed to open it. As far as can be ascertained, not a dollar was secured. The burglars were after big money and knew where it was kept, there being $30,000 in the vault. A small safe in the vault, not even considered burglar proof, contained about $1,000 used on the counters and this was not touched.

DEMOCRATS AGAINST HILL.

Many Leading Men of Western New York Issue a Strong Manifesto. NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—The Home Rule Democrats of Buffalo and Western New York have issued a manifesto calling on all Democrats in favor of honest politics and good government to vote against Senator Hill. The manifesto reviews Senator Hill's career in the state and in the senate. It is signed by a large number of prominent Democrats, who have heretofore led in the fights in the Democratic party against Lieutenant Governor Sheehan.

CHESTON, Iowa, Nov. 5.—The will of Mrs. Anna McCree has been made public. To three churches of this city she bequeaths valuable property located in this city, and to the Indian university at Muskogee, I. T., she gives about $6,000, to be known as the "Anna McCree text book and educational fund," to be devoted to educating the Indians. She cuts a brother off with $25.

EXPOSED ITS MEMBERS.

A Disgraceful Band of Whitecaps in Eastern Tennessee Broken Up. KNOXVILLE, Tenn., Nov. 5.—Great excitement prevails in Sevier county over the arrest of leading citizens on the charge of being members of the "Graveyard Host," or Whitecaps. Ten days ago the Whitecaps were waylaid while on a midnight whipping expedition and several of them killed. Since then, it is said that Isaac Brown and his two sons have told the sheriff everything, including the names of over 100 citizens who belong to the organization. Fourteen have so far been arrested.

About two years ago the Sevier county Whitecaps first appeared, unmasked men visiting a house where four women lived alone, dragging the women from their beds and whipping them on their bare backs with hickory switches until they were nearly killed. The Whitecaps gave them notice that unless they left in ten days they would be whipped again and the promise was fulfilled. Since this first whipping about fifty people have been whipped in Sevier county. On one occasion an aged man and wife were whipped because of something it was alleged some member of the family had done, but not for any offense of the old people. Later they whipped a negro 60 years old because he had been making speeches in the neighborhood for Congressman John C. Houk. Of the fifty who have been whipped two-thirds are women, many of them aged and helpless. Seven or eight deaths have been caused by the brutalities of the gang.

According to the statement of the three Browns, the gang called itself the "Graveyard Host." Every member took a non-clad oath, the substance of which was that before they would reveal anything of the workings of the gang they would suffer their throats to be cut or to be burned at the stake. Another provision of the oath was that if any brother was arrested the others would release him at all hazards.

THE COACHMAN MAY STAY.

Secretary Carlisle Declines That Mr. Morton Did Not Violate the Law.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.—Secretary Carlisle to-day wrote to Herman Stump, superintendent of immigration, in relation to the case of John James Howard, who was employed as under-coachman by ex-President Levi P. Morton, having been brought to this country from England under contract. "I have examined the evidence taken by the board of special inquiry in the case of John J. Howard and the reports of the board and the commissioners of immigration at Ellis Island, N. Y., and have reached the conclusion that the said Howard comes within the first provision of section 5 of the act approved February 26, 1885, and therefore ought not to be deported. The decisions of Secretary Windom, March 13, 1890 (S. 9919) and Assistant Secretary Spaulding, April 30, 1893, (S. 11015) that immigrants who come here under employment 'strictly as domestic or personal servants' cannot be lawfully admitted into the country, or permitted to remain here unless they actually come with their employers, are not approved and will not be hereafter regarded as precedents by the immigration officials attached to this department. You are directed to make the proper order for the release of Howard and for his return to the place from which he was taken, if he desires to go there.

A WARNING TO NICHOLAS.

The New Czar May Secure Happiness by Granting Popular Wishes.

LONDON, Nov. 5.—Volkowski, the nihilist leader, now living here in exile, said this morning: "I do not regard the personality of the czar as of great importance. I am convinced that the upheaval of political spirits in Russian society is such that no czar will be able to stop coming events. If the czar wants to show a new policy the first thing he has to do is to grant amnesty to the political prisoners now in Siberia and elsewhere. The present form of opposition in Russia is essentially different from that which prevailed during the second half of the reign of Alexander III. To-day all parties are revolutionists, including the Extremists. They have one common conviction—Russia must have a representative government. I expect that some government officials and officers of high rank who are among the revolutionists will use their personal influence with the young czar and show him that if he wants to enjoy immunity from attacks and go through the streets like Queen Victoria, he has only to become a constitutional monarch. That is all we ask. Why should the new czar die of worry, like his father?"

TRADE SITUATION.

Dun's Weekly Review of the Business World.

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s Weekly Review of Trade says: The last week of October, with an election near, cannot indicate much of the true condition of business. In some trades the season is too far advanced for great activity and in others the supposed effects of the voting hinder operations. But the volume of production is well maintained; no monetary difficulties disturb. Breadstuffs are a little higher and no material decline appears during the week in manufactured products. At present the volume of business transacted is on the whole smaller than last year and much smaller than in 1892, though a presidential election was then close at hand.

Corn has advanced four cents, with Western receipts about a third and exports about an eighth of last year's. Yet pork and hogs are somewhat lower, with lard about the same. Wheat is three-fourths of a cent higher for spot and one cent for December, and it looks as if strength in corn had prevented a further decline.

NEW CIVIL SERVICE RULES.

EXTENSIONS OF GREAT IMPORTANCE MADE.

SEVERAL NEW ORDERS JUST ISSUED.

Changes of Importance in the Customs Service, the Postoffice Department, and Other Branches of the Government Are Ordered—Other Important Changes Are Under Consideration.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.—The president has signed several orders of great importance in connection with the civil service reform movement, making important extensions of the classified service to offices heretofore unclassified and revising existing classifications in branches of the service already classified, so as to bring within the classification many places heretofore excluded. These are as follows:

First—A revision of the customs classifications so as to bring within the service all employees not serving merely as workmen or laborers, without regard to compensation. Heretofore this service has been classified on the basis of compensation. All employees receiving a compensation of less than $900 have been excluded from the classification, and therefore not subject to the civil service rules. This action of the president brings the classification of the customs service into harmony with those of the other branches of the service.

Second—An amendment to customs rule 1, extending the classification to include all customs districts in which there are as many as twenty employees. The present limit is fifty employees and under that limit eleven customs districts have been classified. The extension of the classification to include all districts in which there are as many as twenty employees will bring into the classified service certainly eleven additional districts and probably several more.

Third—An amendment to the classification of the department at Washington so as to include in the classified service, and subject to the civil service rules in all the departments, messengers, assistant messengers and watchmen.

Fourth—An amendment to the civil service rule abolishing the right of transfer, upon non-competitive examination, of persons appointed to excepted places after one year's service in such places to classified non-excepted places. Hereafter persons appointed from the outside to excepted places in any branch of the classified service cannot be transferred at the end of one year into the places covered by examination.

Fifth—An order extending the classification of the postoffice department so as to include in the classified service to the department the clerks employed in the offices of the postoffice inspectors.

Sixth—Amendments to the postal rules withdrawing from the excepted class a very large proportion of the places now excepted from examination. This will transfer from the excepted class in the classified postoffice to the non-excepted class probably not less than 1,500 places, the whole number of excepted places in classified postoffices now being in the neighborhood of 2,300. Hereafter it will not include more than 700 or 800.

Seventh—An amendment to the department rules withdrawing from the excepted class in the department of agriculture the chiefs of the divisions of entomology, economic ornithology and mammalogy and pomology, and the assistant chiefs of these divisions.

Eighth—An amendment to the Indian rule providing for the appointment as assistant teachers in the Indian school service, without civil service examination of graduates of the normal classes at the Salem, Ore., Santa Fe, N. M., Haskell Institute, Lawrence, Kan., Carlisle school, Carlisle, Pa., and Hampton Institute, Hampton, Va., upon their certificates of graduation, but before they can be advanced to full teacherships they shall be required to pass the regular civil service examination.

Ninth—Allowing appointment without examination for not exceeding thirty days to places which may be filled by non-competitive examination in the departments at Washington in cases of emergency, pending an examination by the commission. No appointment made under this authority can continue longer than thirty days.

The president has had these changes under consideration for some time and before his return from his vacation notified the commission that immediately upon his return he would consult with them in reference thereto.

Other important changes involving an extension of the classified service are still under consideration and only await arrangement of minor details through conference between the civil service commission and the heads of various departments.

REGULAR DAILY VICTORY.

Japanese Forces in China Capture a Town Guarding the Road to Moukden. LONDON, Nov. 5.—The Japanese legation has received a dispatch stating that Field Marshal Yamagata has captured Fung Wang Ching, a city in the Chinese province of Liao Tung, near the Korean frontier. The Chinese defending the place fled toward Mantien Ling. The capture is important, for it leaves the mountain road to Moukden open to the Japanese and the Chinese are unlikely to offer further resistance to the advance of the Japanese army.

Murdered His Wife.

KINGSTON, Mo., Nov. 5.—Charles Vaughn and his wife met in this city last night, when a quarrel ensued which resulted in Vaughn drawing a revolver and firing two shots, lodging both balls in the head of his victim. Vaughn was captured near home and lodged in jail. Domestic infelicity was the cause. Both are colored people.

OVERMEYER SCORED MARTIN.

The Senator Charged With Political Treachery and Dishonor.

TOPEKA, Kan., Nov. 5.—At a meeting of the stalwart Democrats of Shawnee county, held here last evening, Hon. David Overmyer delivered a strong speech in behalf of Democratic principles, and urged his friends to stand by the straight ticket and thereby administer a crushing blow to the pernicious idea of fusion in Kansas.

He told how he had supported Governor Glick and other recognized Democrats in former campaigns, and for ten years had labored zealously for the success of Democratic county tickets all over the state of Kansas, and said he believed he was now entitled to every honest Democratic vote in the state. He charged the Democrats who have abandoned their own ticket with unpardonable treachery and dishonor. On the subject of Senator John Martin's desertion of the straight Democratic ticket, Mr. Overmyer said:

"I was loath to believe that the published statements imputed to him were correct. Two weeks having elapsed without denial or explanation upon his part warrants us in assuming that they are correct. The senator is reported as saying that the course to be pursued by Democrats will depend upon circumstances. What circumstances? The senator is reported as saying:

"There is no doubt that the ticket is a good one. It is Democratic all the way through, and it was intended to be such when it was nominated. The convention which put it before the people was composed of Democrats. The men who made it were sincere and honest in their intentions, and the party managers are endeavoring to carry out the will of the convention."

"All this being true, what possible circumstances could justify a Democrat in withholding his support from the ticket? The senator is reported as saying that he had not (at the time of his interview) withheld his support from the ticket; also, that he would like to see Overmyer elected, meaning, of course, the entire state ticket also. What does this mean? The senator has it in his power to make it all plain. If he fails to do so, he will, of course, understand that the Democratic party will adopt that explanation which shall be dictated by the principle of self-preservation, which is the first law of political parties as it is of nature."

Hans Oppose a Vote of Condolence.

BUDA PESTH, Nov. 5.—Several Hungarian papers suggest that opposition should be raised to the proposed vote of condolence for the Russian nation which it is proposed to pass in parliament on the ground that Russia has no parliament to which such a message of sympathy could be addressed. The Liberals, however, intend to support the motion of condolences, which will be proposed by Dr. Wekerle, the premier.

Dr. Simmons Given Free Years.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Nov. 5.—Dr. C. F. Simmons, president of the Simmons Medicine Company, and superintendent of the Centenary Methodist Sunday school, was yesterday convicted of assault to kill on John McEbin, a clerk in his employ last June. The punishment was fixed at three years imprisonment in the penitentiary. The verdict caused considerable surprise. A motion for a new trial will be made.
