HIS VIEWS ON RELIGIOUS MATTERS.

Convinced That the Faith of the Church of To-day Is Defective in Its Lack of Appreciation of the Reigning Christ and the Second Advent of the Lord-The Book Dedicated to Dr. Smith.

NEW YORK, Nov. 19 .- The Commercial Advertiser publishes a synopals of the latest work of Professor Charles A. Briggs of the Union Theological seminary, who was declared a heretic by the Presbyterian general assembly. The book, "The Messiah of the Gospels," is intended to follow "Messianic Prophecy," which caused so much comment when published in 1886. It was the intention of Dr. Briggs to publish the "Messiah of the Gospels" in 1887, but the charges of heresy were brought about that time and he was compelled to defer the publication until now.

The dedication runs as follows: "To Henry Preserved Smith, true scholar, faithful friend and brave companion in holy warfare, this book is dedicated in sympathy and love."
In his latest book Dr. Briggs has entered minutely into a discussion of the second advent. He is convinced that the faith of the church of the day is defective in its lack of apprehension of the reigning Christ and in its neglect of the second advent of the Lord. The chapters upon immaculate conception will perhaps call failed to report the vote for congressman and hence the vote for that dis-"The blessed virgin was residing in Nazareth of Galilee, betrothed to Joseph of the royal line of David, the heir of the Messianic promises of the old testament. The time for marriage had not yet come. God had a higher appointment for her to fulfill as the virgin mother of the Messiah. The virgin conception of Jesus, as announced by the archangel is not to be interpreted as if it were a miracle in violation of the laws of nature, but rather as brought about by God Himself present in theopany. The words of the angel imply a theopanic presence. Though it might be urged that the coming of the Spirit upon her was an invisible coming after the analogy of many passages of the old testament, yet the parallel statement that the divine power overshadowed her cannot be so interpreted.

"This annunciation represents the conception of Jesus as due to a theophany. It does not rotate the doctrine of of His pre-existence, al-though that doctrine is a legitimate inference. It represents an early stage of New Testament christology. It does not go a step beyond the Paulism of the epistle to the Corinthians. It implies nothing more than the tles to the Gallatians and to the Romans. It is really more primitive and more simple christology of conosption."

Dr. Briggs makes a special study of the second advent of Christ, discussing it as a matter of greater importance than most theologians have deemed necessary. He says:

"The hour of the resurrection is coming. It can not be said of it that now is' or that 'it is at hand.' However, there is the prediction of three resurrections, the first spiritual, the last universal; the intermediate one, distinct from the first and the last and impending, being connected with the resurrection of the Messiah Himself. Christ first predicts the impartation of everlasting life to all who hear the word of the Messiah and believe in God. All such have passed out of death unto life. They will no more die. They will not come to judgment. It is a spiritual resurrection imparted by the word of the Messiah to all believers during the physical life in this world. It is also predicted that an hour is coming and now is when the dead will hear the quickening voice of the son of God and live. The hour coming points to the future, and, therefore, indicates a different resurrection from the spiritual resurrection of the previous section, which was already enjoyed by all who heard the Messiah's words and believed. Christ also predicts a universal resurrection of the dead at the ultimatum adgment in which some will rise to life and others to condemnation."

A KANSAS HEROINE.

Maud Schemerhorn, Aged 16, Saves Her Associate From Burning to Death. WICHITA, Kan., Nov. 19.-Fire broke out in the Patterson house at Harper yesterday morning at 4 o'clock. furious gale was blowing at the time and there were thirty-seven guests in the house. Two dining room girls were nearly suffocated with smoke when they discovered the free. Mand Schemerhorn and Mattie Harper were the girls. The latter fell exhausted in her room, but Miss Schemerhorn, who is only years old, broke a window, threw Miss Harper out and followed her, lacerting her flesh. Miss Schermerhorn then gave the alarm, and over a dozen guests were taken from the building ore dead than alive. Twenty other houses caught fire, but the citizens and fire department succeeded in putting all out except the hotel and out-buildings. The loss is $15,000.

PASSES AWAY.

A HISTORICAL AMERICAN FIGURE.

Once Speaker of the House of Repre sentatives, and Succeeded Daniel Webster in the Senate-A Link That Bound the Present to the Past-His Public Career Long Ended.

Boston, Nov. 19.-Robert C. Winthrop, ex-speaker of the house of representatives, ex-senator and famous orator, died here last night at 11:30 o'clock. He had been in delicate health for a long time and the been living in quiet retirement for several years. He was one of Massachusetts' most noted men, classing high as a statesman and orator. His gift of oratory was something wonderful. He was one of the principal orators at the dedication of the Washington monument, the other being Senator John W. Daniel of Virginia.

The county clerk of Douglas county

The county clerk of Douglas county

Winthrop, was been broken by the death of the venerable Robert C.
Winthrop, who connected the people of to-day not only with the early days of the constitution and of the republic, but with the colonial days as well. He was the lineal descendant of Governor John Winthrop, and of a family conspicuous in the making of Massachusetts and Connecticut. His father, Thomas Lindall Winthrop, was born at New London, Winthrop, was born at New London, Conn., a town which an ancestor aided in establishing.

Robert Charles Winthorp, whose death is announced, was born in Boston May 12, 1809, so that his earliest recollections were of the second war for independence. He graduated at Harvard, as his ancestors in continuous line had done, taking this degree in 1828. He read law with Daniel Webster, whom he had known from childhood, and whom he had heard deliver his great address at Plymouth Rock in 1820 as well as the memorable speech at Bunker Hill in 1824. Mr. Winthrop remained with Mr. Webster during what he was ac-customed to speak of as "three of the busiest and proudest years of Web-ster's life." The student followed the political teachings of the master and when a young man became a conspicuous Massachusetts Whig. He was elected to the legislature in 1831, remained in that body for six years and serving as speaker in 1838, 1839

ster, and served one term as speaker

State, when the latter became secretary of state under President Fillmore. With the increasing violence of the agitation of the slavery question, Mr. Winterop found himself unable to satisfy the extremists on either side. He refused to follow his old political chief and was opposed to Mr. Webster's position in the famous 7th of March speech, and himself voted against the fugitive slave law, yet he did not come up to the requirements of the Free Soilers, and was defeated for governor and for United States senator. These defeats were by very narrow margins, but they led to his retirement from public life.

Mr. Winthrop was a man of fortune, able to follow the life he preferred and he devoted the more than forty years remaining to him to scholarship, literature and philanthropy. He adhered as a member to the Whig party while he lived, but became known to the country in other characters than a politician or a statesman, but principally as a great historical orator.

Knocked Down the Sherin. Moberly, Mo., Nov. 19.-Reason Forbush, the notorious Howard county murderer, made a desperate effort to escape from the Huntsville jail yesterday. He knocked down the sheriff, who went to feed him, took his revolver and attempted to kill the officer with it. Forbush was recaptured after being filled with bullets. He was to have been hanged at Huntsville next week. He will doubtless die from his wounds.

Salisbury, Mo., Nov. 19. — Rev. Presley D. Vandenter killed himself yesterday by cutting his throat with a razor. He had acted rather strangely for several days, but no one thought that he would committ suicide. He left a widow and three sons and two daughters. The two latter are married. His domestic affairs were exceedingly pleasant and his financial affairs are thought to be in good shape. He was a man that every one

Rewards for the Cook Gang. MUSKOGEE, I. T., Nov. 19.—Citizens of this town, disgusted with the lack of interest manifested by government officials in the suppression of outlawry, have offered a reward of $1,500 for the arrest of Bill Cook, Cherokee Bill, James French, Skeeter and James Turner. This amount will will supplement the reward of $500 offered by the government, the $250 offered by Chief Harris and rewards which it is hoped the express companies may be induced to offer.

They were married at Waverly, Pike county. They had become acquainted through a newspaper personal and up to a few hours before their marriage had never seen each other.

TURKEY'S EXPLANATION. Rather Weak Statement Concerning the Massacre of Christians.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Nov. 19 .- The following official account of the Armenian trouble was issued yesterday: Some Armenian brigands provided with arms of foreign origin joined an insurgent Kurd tribe for the purpose of committing excesses. They burned and devastated several Mussulman villages. As an instance of the ferocity of the Armenians, it is reported that they burned alive a Mussulman notable. Regular troops were sent to the scene to protect peaceable inhabitants against these depredations. The Ottoman troops not only protected and respected the submissive portion of the population, and the women and children, but they re-established tranquility and order. It is not true that the Kurds seized the furniture, effects and cat-tle of the fugitive Armenians. The latter took their effects to the mountains before revolting. The Armenian women at present with the Kurds belong to the families of the brigands, and went of their own acend was not unexpected. He had cord with their husbands to the insurgent Kurds. Discharged Water Department Employes Dispersed Only by Main Force.

CHICAGO, Nov. 19 .- At noon to-day, 250 discharged employes of the water department gathered about the comptroller's office in the city hall and demanded the wages due to them. The comptroller sent a clerk to inform the men that there was no money in the city treasury to pay them.

Instantly the men became riotous. Cries for bread and threats of instant vengeance were howled forth by the angry crowd and the comptroller. gathering his clerks, barred the doors to his office and sent a hurried call for policemen.

A half dozen officers appeared, but were promptly rushed out of the corridor by the incensed men. A battalion of patrolmen was summoned, and, after a liberal use of force the rioters were clubbed into submission and driven from the city hall.

The large crowd which had been attracted by the disturbance was heartily in sympathy with the ex-employes and threats to compel instant payment of the overdue wages were numerous until the police succeeded in dispersing the throng.

Coloradoans Indicted for Lynchings. COLDEN, Col., Nov. 19 .- The grand jury has returned indictments against Richard Shepard, John Koch, John Richwein and George Vogel, well known citizens, for alleged participation in the lynching of Alexander M. McCurdy on the night of June 1. The charge is murder. McCurdy had been sentenced to three years it the penitentiary for brutally maltreating his stepbrother, Arthur Berry, of whom he was jealous.

Great Quantities of Lace Burne '. NOTTINGHAM, Nov. 19 .- The biggest fire in a quarter of a century has destroyed an extensive block of buildings in the lace market district. The flames broke out on the premises occupied by Brown & Co., who had large consignments of lace ready for shipment to America, which was burned. The damage is estimated at $750,000. Hundreds of people have been thrown out of employment by the fire.

National Tin Plate Plant ANDERSON. Ind., Nov. 19 .- The directors and officers of the National tin plate company held a meeting in this city yesterday and decided to push the erection of their new plant in this city. When in full operation the plant will be the largest in the world, furnishing employment to 750 hands. The company is composed of Chicago, St. Louis and Cincinnati cap-

Cotton Gin Burners in Texas. GREENVILLE, Tex. Nov. 19 .- Five more cotton gins .ocated at different

Texas Bank Robbery.

ALVAN, Texas, Nov. 19.—An attempt was made last night to crack the safe of the Exchange bank. The combination of the vault doors was blown off, but the safe was left intact. About $40 in change and valuables in private boxes inside the vault were taken.

The Amendment Was Defeated in Kansas by Over Thirty Thousand. TOPEKA, Kas., Nov. 19 .- Chairman Breidenthal, of the Populist state committee, has received returns from 94 of the 105 counties of Kansas, showing the vote on the equal suffrage proposition. The eleven counties yet to hear from are in the western portion of the state, where the vote was very small, and the result will be little changed by them.

There was a total of 293,324 votes east at the election. Of that number 202,131 voted on the suffrage question; 85,478 voted for, and 116,653 against. This shows a majority against the amendment of 31,175.
