

Democracy vs. Populism

Until recently we never grasped in its entirety, the distinctive difference between the Democratic and Populist parties. Since that time we have exerted our best efforts in trying to convince the Populists of this city that there can be nothing in common between the two organizations, so long as each stands true to the fundamental principles on which it is based.

Therefore the teachings of the Democratic party being individualistic and the Populist party socialistic they are the antipodes of each other, hence there can be no harmonizing the two.

Whenever you hear any intelligent man say, I'm still a Democrat, and in the next breath advocate the cardinal principles of the Populist party, you can safely brand him a demagogue.

Three-fourths of the Populist party of the north is composed of ex-Republicans. The Democratic party during the whole history of its organization, has stood as the defender of individualism, even going so far as to claim supreme sovereignty rested in the individual.

Water and oil will not mix. The Democratic party will never favor government ownership of railroads, telegraph and telephone lines and municipal ownership of street car lines and lighting plants.

wealth will it cease to exist. then for the first time in the history of the world have true individual freedom through cooperation, and the individualist (or anarchist) will then have no reason for an existence.

P. S.—The above was written shortly after the Grand Island convention, and is published at this time in order to combat the idea that seems so prevalent, viz: the immediate dissolution of the Democratic party.

Confiscation That Confiscates

VERDON, Neb., Nov. 19, 1894.

EDITOR WEALTH MAKERS:

As all Populists prophesied before election, defeat the Populists, and Brewer and Dundy would sustain the injunction restraining the railroad company of Nebraska from putting into effect the maximum freight bill.

Mr. State Journal, I have before me a book with the compliments of Philip Andrus (deputy commissioner of labor for the state of Nebraska) for the years 1891 and 1892.

Therefore the teachings of the Democratic party being individualistic and the Populist party socialistic they are the antipodes of each other, hence there can be no harmonizing the two.

"Almost why chile, dat's no good. S'pose I almost take a drink, I see dry still; s'pose I almost go to my dinner; dat help my stomach any? No, honey, we's got to eat, or else we go hungry. I don't almost love my Lord Jesus; I love him quite."

Whenever you hear any intelligent man say, I'm still a Democrat, and in the next breath advocate the cardinal principles of the Populist party, you can safely brand him a demagogue.

What is a Populist?

Editor WEALTH MAKERS:

A Populist is one who believes in life, in the useful passing of days, in productive labor, in the emancipating power of education. He is one who confides himself to the great Will which is the foundation of all things.

Yours fraternally, Wm. H. CRANE.

Boone denies the charges in toto and he says that he will have Skelton arrested on a charge of blackmail.

Why Was It

that Ayer's Sarsaparilla, out of the great number of similar preparations manufactured throughout the world, was the only medicine of the kind admitted at the World's Fair, Chicago? And why was it that, in spite of the united efforts of the manufacturers of other preparations, the decision of the World's Fair Directors was not reversed?

BECAUSE

According to RULE 15—"Articles that are in any way dangerous or offensive, and patent medicines, nostrums, and empirical preparations, whose ingredients are concealed, will not be admitted to the Exposition," and, therefore—

Because Ayer's Sarsaparilla is not a patent medicine, not a nostrum, and not a secret preparation.

Because its proprietors had nothing to conceal when questioned as to the formula from which it is compounded.

Because it is all that it is claimed to be—a Compound Concentrated Extract of Sarsaparilla, and in every sense, worthy the indorsement of this most important committee, called together for passing upon the manufactured products of the entire world.

Ayer's The Sarsaparilla Admitted for Exhibition AT THE WORLD'S FAIR

Irrigated Farm Lands

FERTILE SAN LUIS VALLEY, COLORADO.

THE SAN LUIS VALLEY, COLORADO, is a stretch of level plain about as large as the State of Connecticut, lying between surrounding ranges of lofty mountains and watered by the Rio Grande River and a score or more of small tributary streams.

The Climate is Unrivaled. Almost perpetual sunshine, and the elevation of about 7,000 feet dispels all malaria, nor are such pests as chinch bugs, weevil, etc., found there.

Already several thousand miles of large and small irrigating canals have been built and several hundred thousand acres of lands made available for farming operations.

Spring wheat, oats, barley, peas, hops, beans, potatoes, vegetables and all kinds of small fruits and many of the hardier varieties of apples, pears and all kinds of cherries.

In the yield of all these products it has never been surpassed by any other section on the continent.

Forty Acres Enough Land.

FORTY ACRES IS ENOUGH LAND for the farmer of ordinary means and help. Beside the certainty of return, the yield, under the conditions of proper irrigation, will average far more than the 160-acre farms in the Mississippi and Missouri Valleys, and the outlay for machinery, farming stock, purchase money, taxes, etc., are proportionately less.

A Specially Low Homeseekers Rate will be made you, your family and friends. Should you settle on these lands the amount you paid for railroad fare will be credited to you on your payments; and REMEMBER the land is perfectly and THOROUGHLY IRRIGATED, and the land and PERPETUAL WATER RIGHTS are sold you for less than other sections ask for simply the water rights without the land.
