Drink Caused It. CHADRON, Neb., July 16.—Coroner Wray received a telegram yesterday evening summoning him to Crawford to hold an inquest over the remains of J. S. Murphy, city attorney of Chadron, who died at Crawford yesterday afternoon from the effects of an overdose of morphine, believed to have been taken by him with suicidal intent.

Used the Shotgun. LOUISVILLE, Neb., July 16.—Adolph Steinkamp and Henry Gaebel, two German farmers living southwest of town, quarreled yesterday forenoon. The row resulted in Steinkamp being shot in the back and left arm with a shotgun. It seems that Steinkamp went to Gaebel's house to see him about some work. Gaebel struck him in the breast with a hoe and then the two clinched, Steinkamp throwing the other down. He let Gaebel up and started to leave. Gaebel ran into the house and grabbing a shotgun fired a shot which entered Steinkamp's left side and another which struck his left arm, a dozen or more shots cutting the skin from his back. Gaebel shot a third time but Steinkamp dropped to the ground and the charge passed over him.

INSURANCE DEPARTMENT

Conducted by J. Y. M. SWISART, Correspondence solicited. Fire, cyclone or hail.

CYCLONE. There are storms reported every week, and yet there are thousands of farmers who are entirely without protection against wind when they could get it for nearly nothing, or actual cost without any high salaries or rich fees to agents. We have made but one assessment in three years, and that only called for 10 cents per $100. We would like to get 1000 agents to represent their respective neighborhoods. We do not allow our agents large fees to solicit, but some agents are making it pay them well for the time they spend. If officers for local companies would write cyclone applications for us in connection with their fire applications they would find that it would pay them well for the effort, and it would give their patrons just what they want and need.
