

THE KU CHENG AFFAIR.

An American Mission Wrecked and the Missionaries Fugitives.

LONDON, Aug. 7.—The correspondent of the Times at Shanghai says the missionaries killed at Ku Cheng were murdered by an organized band of vegetarians. The correspondent says: "The ladies begged for their lives, promising to yield their property and valuables, but the leader of the band shouted out his orders to kill them outright.

The Chinese magistrates at Ku Cheng waited for the completion of the massacre before appearing upon the scene. There are a thousand soldiers at Ku Cheng. It is, therefore, absurd to say the authorities could not have stopped the massacre, which was evidently carefully and secretly organized.

The American mission at Shashi, near Hankow, has been destroyed and the missionaries are fugitives. The American consul has advised the missionaries in adjacent provinces to retire.

The Americans desire a special commission under United States Consul Jernigan to inquire into the outrages in Szechuen. British Minister O'Connor has assented to this.

A strong feeling has been created in British political circles that decisive measures are imperative to prevent a recurrence of these barbarities. The missionary societies have never succeeded in obtaining adequate, or indeed, any substantial reparations for the attacks made on them.

In an interview some of the survivors of the Ku Cheng massacre declared that the outrage was carried out in the most diabolical manner, and that it was evidently a premeditated and carefully arranged attack, entirely unprovoked, made upon the occupants of the missionary station while they were asleep. The bodies of the victims were buried at Fu Chow.

There are rumors of further riots at places nearer to Fu Chow than Ku Cheng. This district includes the stations of the church of England at Zennan and the American Methodist stations at Fuhkien, Fuhning, Layong, Ning Talk, Ho Chiang and Huihwa. The Fu Klien province is said to be in a state of rebellion and the American mission at Fung Fuk in that province has been burned. The Europeans and Americans have telegraphed for gunboats to protect the foreign settlement.

An American Mission Burned.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 7.—The state department has just received the following cablegram from United States Consul General Jernigan:

"SHANGHAI, Aug. 6.—Hixon, United States consul at Foo Chow, wires: 'American mission property at Yun Fuh burned. Details of Ku Cheng massacre horrible. Houses stealthily surrounded and sleeping ladies and children spared to death. Situation unsettled.'

FUTURE TRAVEL.

Ballroad Coaches Will Be Whisked Along at the Rate of 150 Miles an Hour.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Aug. 7.—W. D. Uygredaff, private secretary to George Westinghouse, jr., in explaining the scope of affiliation of interests of the Westinghouse Electric company and the Baldwin Locomotive company, said: "The combination is to develop the possibilities of the Tesla motor as applied to railway service. We intend to make it possible to ride from New York to Pittsburgh in three hours. With the Tesla motor we are assured power to draw a car at the rate of 150 miles, or more. The only thing now is to get cars and car wheels that will stand the strain of traveling at the rate of speed. The Baldwin people assure us that this can be done. We now have the system working at our plant at East Pittsburgh.

"The only trouble is to get a car that will remain on the track. We believe with this union of interests we will be able to perfect the electric railway system, and I can assure you that by the year 1900, or possibly sooner, the line will be in operation between Pittsburgh and New York. The present railway tracks cannot be used. We want air lines. The cars will be very light and on the principle of air lines."

A Train Wrecked at a Depot.

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., Aug. 7.—A Chicago, Great Western freight train was wrecked last night while passing over the tracks of the Kansas City, St. Joseph and Council Bluffs road opposite the Francis street station. A car loaded with ties was derailed and the ties were thrown in a shower along the platform, on which a number of people were standing. Several persons were knocked down, but nobody was seriously injured.

Anna Bellah's Latest.

EXCELSIOR SPRINGS, Mo., Aug. 7.—The Rev. C. B. Besse, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church at Vandalia, Ill., writes to Colonel Lem Lincoln here that about ten days ago Mrs. Anna D. Bellah called on him as one interested in Sunday school and church work and he paid $10 for the acquaintance.

Stopped the Collection of Taxes.

PERRY, Ok., Aug. 7.—The probate judge of this county granted an injunction last evening prohibiting the treasurer of this county from collecting city, county, territorial and school tax from realty in the city of Perry for the year 1894. The amount involved is over $20,000. The case will go to the supreme court of the territory.

General Flagler Expresses Sorrow.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 7.—Additional interest in the case of Miss Flagler, who shot and killed a small colored boy last week who was pilfering pears, was caused yesterday by the arrival in Washington of her father and mother and the immediate visit of the general to the family of the dead boy. He called at the treasury department at once and asked for the messenger, Richard Green, and then, failing to find him, went to the family house to express his great sorrow and that of his daughter over the occurrence.

INSURANCE DEPARTMENT

Conducted by J. Y. M. SWIGART, Correspondence Solicited. Fire, cyclone or hail.

ORD, Neb., July, 1895.

J. Y. M. SWIGART, Esq.

Dear Sir and Brother.—The plan of mutual protection against fire, cyclone, or hail, is, in my estimation, one of the grandest undertakings of today, because it is founded on eternal justice and in accord with the teachings of Christ; for when He said, "Bear ye one another's burdens," it is evident that He expected mankind to put His precepts to practical use. And when He said, "Cast your bread upon the waters and after many days it shall return to you again." He conveyed the idea that although we made a sacrifice, however small, we would in time be fully compensated.

Now, sir, I know of no letter that would bear another's burdens than for every farmer in Nebraska to identify himself in the cause of mutual insurance, fully convinced of the truthfulness of that other grand saying, "It is more blessed to give than to receive," and making his convictions practical, i. e., come down with the cash when an assessment is made.

I can conceive of no case where bread so cast upon the water would be sure to return, because all of us will, sooner or later, sustain a loss from some of the sources named, and when that time does come our homes destroyed by fire or wind, or our crops destroyed by hail, the bread we had cast upon the water would speedily return, would come as an angel of mercy, bringing joy to the sorrowful, homes to the homeless, comfort to the family, and a love for God and man.

I remember when I received notice that one of our brother's homes had been destroyed by a cyclone. I felt it a privilege to contribute my mite toward bearing his burden, and in five minutes from the time I received notice my share of his loss was mailed to Lincoln. And when I read his grateful words, acknowledging receipt for loss in full, I thanked my God that we had an organization whereby I could carry $300 worth of insurance for two years for only 30 cents, and know that all of our members had been saved from suffering and loss.

Now, sir, while I appreciate your noble efforts to establish that great principle of reform, I am satisfied that without a hearty co-operation and ready response from the members, yours will be no easy task. Hoping the grand plan of each for all and all for each will surmount all of the difficulties that lie in the path of progress and perfection, with the best of wishes for success to yourself and the cause you represent, I remain, as ever, yours in the people's cause.

J. H. Cronk.

The above was written with reference to our first and only assessment in our cyclone department, over three years with but one assessment, and that only 10 cents per $100.

We now have over $800,000 now insured, and hope every member will try to get one more to insure this year. By so doing our company would grow fast. If farmers will take the trouble to hunt the right insurance agent instead of letting the wrong agent hunt them, they will make money and save themselves great annoyance in case of loss.

When a farmer wants to buy a wagon or a plow he usually knows the kind that suits him best. Does he wait till a wagon or plow agent comes along and sells him just what he does not want, because he is a great bulldozer and the farmer had to buy to get rid of him? Why no, of course not, but he goes to where the articles are for sale that suit him and buys just what he wants and just as much as he wants.

Bro. Cronk wanted some insurance, bought just the kind he wanted, and you have noticed by his letter that he was satisfied.

A Denver Savings Bank Closed.

DENVER, Col., Aug. 7.—The Rocky Mountain Savings bank closed its doors to-day and assigned to Earl M. Cranston. Last week a demand was made upon the bank for $28,000 of county funds and it was unable to make payment. It was closed during the panic of 1893, but was subsequently reopened, certificates being issued to depositors. The president is Frank Woodbury, son of R. W. Woodbury, president of the Union National bank, which suspended last week.

BRAZIL, Ind., Aug. 7.—A raise of twenty-five per cent on the ton was given the employes of the Central Iron and Steel company yesterday morning. Another raise of twenty-five per cent is expected in about two months. The old furnace which has been lying idle for several years past will be started up in a short time. The raise affects about 500 men.
