

THE WEALTH MAKERS is out with an endorsement of Hon. Samuel Maxwell for justice of the supreme court, and to it we say "amen." Let the Populist state convention honor his integrity by a unanimous vote.—Seward Independent

Dr. C. O. Brown, pastor of First Congregational church of San Francisco is making a desperate effort to counteract the influence of Prof. Herron who recently preached on this coast the religion taught by Jesus Christ. It should be remembered however that $37,000,000 sits in one of Dr. Brown's pews, and the good doctor doubtless thinks it prudent to hold down his job in these hard times.—New Charter, San Jose, Cal.

If a man wants to be a Populist this paper and all other true blue Populists, extends him a cordial welcome to step into the line, be baptized and partake of the good things around the festive board of honest, noble, and patriotic motives. But we want him to pull up his party anchor and come clear over to stay—to meet the brother from the other old political party on a common level and prepare to fight the old twins in corruption to the death.—People's Banner.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 13.—Fire started at 8:30 o'clock this morning in the rear of the five story paper box factory of Brown, Bailey & Brown, at 413 Franklin street, and it was soon all in flames. It was completely surrounded by small dwellings. The flames leaped across Willow street to the dwellings on the south side of that thoroughfare and began eating their way through to Callow Hill street, one block south. A strong breeze from the northwest fanned the flames, and it was almost impossible to save any of the dwellings on the south side of Willow street between Franklin and Eighth streets.

The dwellings and stores on Eighth street north of Willow were soon burning fiercely and the flames spread throughout the block bounded by Franklin, Willow, Eighth and Callow Hill streets.

In the rear of Brown's factory and facing on Eighth street was Buck & Co.'s big gas fixture and chandelier factory. This was destroyed.

Several firemen who were overcome by the heat were removed to the hospital and it was reported that three men were burned to death in the box factory. The losses aggregate about $500,000.

Escaped Desperadoes Surprised.

EUFAULA, Ind. Ter., Aug. 13.—The five outlaws and horse thieves, Charles Wilson, Roy Defenbaugh, Joe Beck, Charlie Moore and Coy Sheehan, who escaped from the Stillwater, Ok., jail last Monday, were tracked to within a few miles of here by a posse of Oklahoma deputy sheriffs and rode into town to-day. Deputy Marshal Johnson met them alone and held them at bay until Deputy Sheriff Weeks of Hancock, Ok., and his posse came up. All were soon disarmed and will be taken to Fort Smith to answer to grave charges.

Loaned Money on Pension Certificates.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Aug. 13.—Hillard Hickok, manager of the American Loan and Guarantee company, was placed under arrest to-day by Deputy United States Marshal Sam Shelby, charged with violation of the United States pension laws, by loaning money on pension certificates. The government, for the protection of its pensioners, has provided by law that it shall be a misdemeanor to either borrow or lend money on a pension certificate and both borrower and lender are punishable alike.

Officers Hot After Outlaws.

HARTSHORNE, Ind. Ter., Aug. 13.—The outlaw killed Friday night near Wilburton by deputy marshals was John Fessington of Pottawatomie county, Oklahoma, and his three comrades who escaped were Bob and Bill Christian and Wes Love. Fessington aided the Christians and Love to escape from the Oklahoma City jail. Three of McAlester's best deputies, Brozelle, Beard and Hamilton in hot pursuit have trailed them over fifty miles.

Editor Frank M. Pixley Dead.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 13.—Frank M. Pixley, a veteran editor and politician, died last night after a lingering illness. He came to California forty years ago and was one of the most prominent men in the state. He founded the Argonaut, but sold it several years ago. He was worth about $1,000,000.

Ezeta Issues a Proclamation.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 13.—General Antonio Ezeta has issued another proclamation to the citizens of San Salvador, in which he says he will soon return to the country to lead a revolt against the government. The army is disintegrated, he says, and will welcome him back as its leader.

Brothers Fight to the Death.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Aug. 13.—At Willow Grove, a mining town near here, Patrick and Dennis Morgan, brothers, quarreled while intoxicated and attacked each other with penknives. Patrick was killed and Dennis is dying. Both men were frightfully cut.

The Court Will Settle It.

OMAHA, Neb., Aug. 13.—There now appears to be a fair prospect that the fire and police board muddle will be amicably settled by the supreme court, as was suggested by Governor Holcomb at the very inception of the trouble.

LOCAL POLITICS.

Campaign Notes

The professional Republicans of Lancaster county began their squabble for office long before spring plowing commenced. They assumed that because of the fact that those Populists who were elected to serve the people were devoting their time to the duties of their respective offices, and that the remainder of the party was also composed of people who believed in earning an honest living, the Republican machine workers would have an easy task in pulling the ticket through this fall. And the result is apparent. A hungry horde of chronic office seekers and professional wire pullers have fallen upon each other, and like the wounded wolf, several of the best of them have fallen victims of the rapacity of their fellows. Meanwhile the members of the People's Independent party have attended to their respective duties. When the proper time came they met without furor or undue excitement and selected those whom they thought would best serve the whole people. A comparison of the methods of placing tickets before the electors of the county is the stronger argument in favor of the nominees of the People's Independent party than would be a personal comparison of the candidates, and in the latter test the candidates of the Populists cannot suffer in the mind of level-headed citizens. When the time comes to vote, the pretensions of the Republican party will be found to be as empty as the noise from sounding brass and tinkling cymbals. The People's Independent party has nominated a clean, strong ticket—one that will meet with the favor of every voter in its ranks, and hundreds of votes from honest members of the opposition party will make the majorities beyond those of all other years.

The State Journal of Sunday morning last started an article upon the condition of affairs within the Republican ranks with the following significant paragraph:

Little could be learned last night regarding the standing of the various candidates. One thing is certain. No combination has been formed yet in which any confidence is placed. A sample of the slates fixed up is: Holmes, Caldwell and Cornish for district judge; Emsign for sheriff; Stephenson for district clerk; Cochran for county judge; Pat Dore for county clerk. Little faith is placed in such a combination as few can be found who believe that Judge Hall can be turned down with the consent of his ward.

This is simply an indication of the methods of the Republican party in Lancaster county. The primaries and the convention were a howling farce as far as obtaining a fair expression of the Republican voters is concerned. The delegates voted upon at the primaries were selected in advance by the candidate for some particular office who could lay claim to being the strongest wire puller of his ward. This delegation was supposed to be, and has proven to be, wholly at the command of this particular candidate, the full power being given him to form such combinations and make such trades as would work to his own particular interest. Hence, for instance, the Fourth ward Republicans have had no voice in the nominations for county officers other than district clerkship, and in the event of Sam Low being defeated in the convention, had no voice at all. In other words the voters were compelled to confine themselves to an expression as to whom they would prefer for sheriff. The principle of majority rule is all right, but when a bare majority of a few wards or precincts can dictate who shall be the nominees of the Republican party, there is a mighty slim chance that the will of a majority of the people of the county will be reached by a victory on the part of that party.

The great fight in the Republican party which culminated on Monday last, was over the nomination of district clerk. All other offices seemed to sink into insignificance, only that of sheriff being considered in comparison. The fight among the Republicans is over, and now the successful candidate can begin to figure upon his chances of defeating Elias Baker for the place. There is evidently no widespread desire to retire Mr. Baker. Lancaster county has never had a more efficient or attentive district clerk, nor one who has treated all who have had dealings with him with more equal liberality and fairness. Mr. Baker will be re-elected by a rousing majority.

In the record of Elias Baker as a citizen and a public officer nothing can be found that will detract from his reputation as a representative citizen. Men who earn their living by honest labor, and not by working their fellow man, have always found him a faithful friend, regardless of party views, and an active champion of their rights. Mr. Baker has always been an earnest advocate of the rights of the masses, and will receive a large vote from the ranks of labor. There are hundreds who have never seen fit to ally themselves with the Populist party who will not be induced to turn their backs upon one whom they regard as a substantial supporter of the cause of humanity.

Voters of Lancaster county, do you want to vote a ticket placed before you in a manner in which the Republican party has permitted its candidate to be nominated? Will you permit professional politicians and ward heelers to dictate for whom you shall vote? To say nothing of the personality of the ticket, isn't it a disgrace to our institutions that the franchise of voters can be bartered freely and openly? Give this a thought.
