THE WEALTH MAKERS.

New Series of

THE ALLIANCE-INDEPENDENT. Consolidation of the Farmers Alliance and Neb. Independent

PUBLISHED EVERY THURSDAY BY The Wealth Makers Publishing Company, 1130 M St., Lincoln, Nebraska.

N. I. P. A.

"If any man must fall for me to rise, Then seek I not to climb. Another's pain I choose not for my good. A golden chain, A robe of honor, is too good a prize To tempt my hasty hand to do a wrong Unto a fellow man. This life bath woe Sufficient, wrought by man's satanic foe;

And who that hath a heart would dare prolong Or add a sorrow to a gricken soul That seeks a healing baim to make it whole? My bosom owns the brotherhood of man."

Publishers' Announcement.

Publishers' Announcement.

The subscription price of The Wealth Magnes is $1.00 per year, in advance.

Agents in soliciting subscriptions should be very careful that all names are correctly spelled and proper postoffice given. Blanks for return subscriptions, return envelopes, etc., can be had on application to this office.

Alwars sign your name. No matter how often you write us do not neglect this important matter. Every week we receive letters with incomplete addresses or without signatures and it is sometimes difficult to locate them.

Change of Address. Subscribers wishing to thanks their postoffice address when change will be promptly made.

Advertising Rates,

$1.12 per inch. S cents per Agate line, 14 lines of the inch. Liberal discount on large space or ng time contracts.
Address all advertising communications to

WEALTH MAKERS PUBLISHING CO ... J. S. HYATT, Bus. Mgr

People's Independent Ticket

J. C. MCNERNEY.
J. C. MCNERNEY, H. F. ROSE.
R. E. RICHARLSON
H. S. Bowans

SAMUEL MAXWELL
MRS. ELIA W. PEATTIE
PROP. JAMES H. BAYSTON

Send Us Two New Names

With $2, and your own subscription will be extended One Year Free of Cost.

NORVAL has been nominated to succeed himself, because the R. R's, did not fight

ARE the people of Nebraska capable of self government? The result of the election this fall will tell. Vote for Maxwell.

Goy, WAITE says, if we have a southern man as the Populist nominee in '96, we will smash the "Solid South" and

Why don't the State Journal mention some of the Republican papers that are now supporting the Hon. Samuel Max-

"THERE are men who expect a paper to go full length in support of their interests and feel they have overpaid it by three months subscription.

IF THE WEALTH MAKERS IS not as bright editorially this week as it usually is, have patience; the editor is absent for a few days in Illinois, but will be home

Suppose Norval had held with Maxwell in the Assylum frauds, would be have been nominated his own successor? Well, I guess not!

THE latest report is that a rich gold mine has been discovered near Pleasant Dale, about ten miles west of Lincoln. Is this another lie of the goldbugs to knock free silverout?

THE report of the suffrage committee of the South Carolina constitutional of qualified voters and makes those qualifications either ability to read and write, or explain when read to him, any section of the proposed constitution, or a showing that he owns and pays taxes on $300 worth of property in the state. It is expected that these provisions will practically disqualify the majority of the negroes. Which shows if true, that the bulk of the negroes are still practically slaves. What has freedom under our present property laws done for them?

THE B. & M. State Journal talks of "The Wages of Labor," and tries to make the man who works believe that it is interested in him, but it can't conceal its hypocrisy. The influence of the Journal for evil is much lessened by the fact that the veil with which it seeks to cover its real character is easily penetrated. The editor of that sheet ought to be ashamed | Harrison and his advisers were shrewd to look himself in the face, but he is lost enough, however, to hold back the issue the Populist party at heart, but he to all sense of shame and decency. The city of Lincoln is sadly in need of a morning paper witose news columns are reliable and whose editorial page does not reek with the filth and slime of everything that is dishonest and contemptable.

THE REPUBLICAN CONVENTION

It is Norval, by acclamation of his party. He has satisfied the corporations and will be continued in office if the railroads and banks can keep him there.

The genius politician is composed of two elements, viz., gall and hypocrisy. and, as every old party convention is run by politicians and their helpers those who have been emancipated from party prejudice and lies are filled with disgust by the speeches and professions of such gatherings. The convention last week was in keeping with the character of the old gang who have for so many years fooled and ruled and robbed the people of this state. In their diatribes directed at the Democrats all evils were charged up to their five per cent reduction of the tariff, and compared with themselves in the matter of self-righteousness the Pharisee who of old paraded his virtues before the Lord, was humble and moderate in his statements regarding his good deeds.

Thurston has recovered from the cholic and straightening up declared he should not die until a Republican governor could appoint his successor. He said this year they were preparing for the greater struggle of '96, and with solemn face and the party against the unpardonable crime of scratching a Republican ticket. No one who did it would be recognized as a Republican (and obtain honors and spoils) when the party should "come into its own."

"Come into its own!" The g.o. p. machine manipulators seem to think the property and people of the United States belong by perpetual patent title to their bandit group.

Thurston also said: "The Republicans and Democrats had not changed fronts. The same old strife was between them.

Some had said that the tariff question had been settled, but this was not so. It was not settled and never would be until it was settled right. It must be settled so that an American could carry a dinner pail made of American tin, filled with pumpkin pie bought with American wages. There was no difference among Republicans on the money question that could endanger Republican success. That party alone possessed the genius of American statesmanship to settle the money question. For himself he was for bi-metallism on the basis of equality be-tween two dollars. He would never vote to pay American workingmen in depreciated currency. Never would be vote to allow the Mexican dollar to be worth more than an American one. The Republican party, from sea to sea, from lake to gulf, was the party of the people. The Democrats had laid their paralyzing hands on the industries of the country and killed them."

Stuff, rot, lies, containing only one-half truth, even.

Here is the first plank adopted by the

We, the Republicans of Nebraska, in convention assembled, declare our adherence to the statement of principles and politics adopted by the national Republican convention of 1892. Governed in accordance with these principles and policies, the industries of the nation have prospered, the revenues were always sufficient for the ordinary expenses of the government, the veterans of the war for the union, disabled in the service, and the widows and orphans of the dead were liberally provided for, and a greater part of the national debt incurred in the defense of the flag had been paid out of the surplus. The national debt had been established, the currency of the country (amply secured by a treasury reserve never impaired) was beyond question, and a degree of prosperity attained un-exampled in the history of the nations.

The similar panie and long dreadful period of hard time in the '70s, which led to the passage of so many "tramp laws" came upon the country when the Republi can party had been in full control of the government for twelve years.

"The national debt had been established!" Yes, we should say so, a debt that with Republican appreciating dollars increased its demands upon labor as fast as a part of it was paid off. But the fallacies of so-called populism having temporarily demoralized the rank of republicanism in its strongholds, the last national election restored the Democratic party to power in the executive and legislative departments of the government, and the results of the "change" immediately appeared. The industries of the nation were paralyzed, financial panic followed, unprecedented for its duration and widespread disaster to our commercial and manufacturing interests, its impairment of values of all property and product, and its reduction to a pauper level of the wages of labor. The fears of the people were finally justified by the passage of the Wilson tariff convention provides for the registration | bill, a measure so obnoxious and indefensible that a democratic president, pledged to free trade measures, denounced it as an act of perfidy and dishonor, but suffered it to become a law without his signature. This law, based upon no recognized principle, fathered by no party platform, that neither protects American industries nor raises a sufficient revenue to supply the ordinary necessities of the government, that has on its own platform, and compel Bryan forced the borrowing of immense sums of money on the bonds of the government in a time of profound peace, and the farming out of the functions of the treasury department to a syndicate, controlled by foreign capitalists, has one more proven the utter incapacity of the Democratic party for administering the to injure the Populist party more than affairs of the goverment. rison administration passed an issue of bonds was planned for, and the plates made on which they were to be printed. the Populist party of this state. of bonds to replenish the reserve till they hasn't a grain of political sense, or he could get out of office. Otherwise, the would not try to get them enacted into crime of the Democrats would have been by the Democrats charged to the pudiates them. Republicans. The platform continues;

The election of a congress last November with an unparalleled Republican majority immediately strengthened the national credit, restored, in a great measure, the confidence and courage of the Republican policy of protection to home industries and a sound currency. We, therefore, call upon all patriotic people, irrespective of former political affiliations, to join in assisting to bring back prosperity to the state and nation by reenacting protection to American industries on the basis of that splendid law known as the "McKinley act," thereby them. securing an adequate revenue while guarding the American market for American products and furnishing steady and permanent employment of American labor at American wages, and returning to the beneficial system of commercial reciprocity with our sister American republics.

The Democrats, on the contrary, are declaring that the reviving industries are the result of the wilson bill and legislation in favor of "sound money." But, while the political dogs are quarreling over who shall have the credit of saving the country, the people fail to realize any salvation. Prices are ruinously low, creasing number in the face.

The old gag, facing all ways, crafty as hell and calculated to make it, is gotten state, shaking finger he warned the members of off in the next plank, on money, as fol-

> Favoring the use of both gold and silver standard money, we oppose all monetary legislation that would result in either gold or silver monometallism, and demand the maintenance of a national currency, every dollar of which, whether in gold, silver or paper, shall be of equal value and of equal debt paying or purchasing power.

Following this are holier-than-thou denunciations of the Democratic party for its foreign policy and its alleged abandonment of the Monroe doctrine. Also some cheap promises in the way of irrigation.

Can the people again be caught by wind and chaff and falsehoods?

THE ACT UNCONSTITUTIONAL

By a decision of the state supreme court handed down Thursday, Oct. 4, the governor is sustained in his contention that the partisan act of the last legislature, wrenching from him appointing power in the case of the superintendency of the state institution for the blind, was unconstitutional, and therefore void. Prof. D. N. Johnson, the governor's appointed for that place, will therefore assume control of the institution immediately. Prof. Johnson is a gentleman and a scholar and will be a credit to the administration. We understand, also, that he has selected Prof. H. E. Dawes, cousin of ex-Governor Dawes as one of his teachers, a very wise selection.

The Republican legislature in its appetite for spoils and hatred of the Peo going beyond what was the definitely expealed its own laws and also the people's long-established will, giving certain powers to the chief executive in order to keep in its hands the power of patronage governor's chair? which the people by popular vote took away. The section of the constitution which the legislature sought to override reads as follows:

"The governor shall nominate and by and with the advise and consent of the state (expressed by a majority of all senators elected voting by yeas and nays), appoint all officers whose offices are established by the constitution, or which may be created by law, and whose appointment or election is not otherwise by law herein provided for, and no such officers shall be appointed or elected by the legislature.

The reasons of the court for pullifying the partisan act and sustaining the governor in exercising the power conferred on him by the people and the constitution are given in the following syllubus: "1. A contemporaneous construction of a constitutional provision, which has for many years been adhered to by the legislative and executive departments of the government, will not be disregarded by the courts and in doubtful cases will generally be held conclusive.

"2 Section 2, chapter-laws of 1875, providing for the election by the legislature of trustees for the institution for the blind, is repugnant to section 10, article 5, of the constitution and was thereby repealed.'

Judge Post wrote the opinion, Norval concurring, but Harrison dissented. A $13,000 appropriation for the erection of a new building at the Institute is being now used.

"WE TOLD YOU SO"

We don't like to say, "We told you so" but it is a source of satisfaction to THE WEALTH MAKERS to know that the position it took last fall, in insisting that the Populist party stand on its dignity and and all who were trying to make us ridiculous by straddling the fence, to come to us, is now approved by all our leaders.

There isn't a paper in the state, not even the lying State Journal, that is striving is the World-Herald of which Mr. Bryan Yes, the rank and file of the g. o. p. is editor. Mr. Bryan may be honest, may broke away in great numbers from their be a "nice man" a "good fellow" and "a humbug leaders. But before the Har- that," we don't say he isn't; but we are sure of one thing: If Nebraska had two or three Billy Bryans, they would wreck

Mr. Bryan may have the principles of law by staying in an old party that re-

If the "young man eloquent" is sincere why does he not speak a good word for

Maxwell, for judge, instead of working for the Democratic nominee who stands about as much chance of being elected as Mr. Bryan stands of being the next Dempeople, and revived our languishing in-dustries, and has signally vindicated the ocratic candidate for president, and no

> The Populist party is bigger than any man; it has a platform of principles that ought to draw to itself the support of all good men, and they must come to the party, instead of the party going to

THE JUST JUDGE

Six years ago the supreme court of Ne braska was composed of Reese, Cobb and Maxwell. The first and last were not men on whom the corporations could depend for favorable decisions, contrary to law or precedent, but the people of the state were well satisfied; even the great mass of Republicans, as all will remember that at the time of the Republican state convention a great majority of the county delegates were favorable, and in fact were instructed for Reese, but when and foreclosures, bankruptcies, lack of the convention was over the corporation employment and starvation stare an in- lawyer, Mr. Norval was the nominee much to the surprise and chargin of the rank and file of the Republicans of the

Two years ago Judge Maxwell's term expired, and as he made many decisions according to law, evidence and honesty, word was passed along the line that he should go and he was turned down, but honored and respected by all good men. But long before Norval's term expired he was the only man mentioned by the corporation Republican papers as an available candidate, and in fact he was the only man that would have suited the the gang who are running the Republican party in Nebraska.

Since the convention however, there are many Republicans who have concluded to vote and work for the grand old man, not because he is the nominee of any party in particular, but because he has been an honest, efficient and faithful judge.

ROSEWATER IS "MUM"

The railroads have again nominated Norval for supreme judge. Now what will Rosewater do? To be consistent he must support Maxwell. Will he do it? It begins to look as though he will not. If such be the case the people of Nebraska will never believe he fought Tom Majors because he knew him to be all that is corrupt in politics, but will believe he did it from personal motives. If Mr. Rosewater wants honest government, he will oppose the election of Norval with as much zeal as he opposed the election of "Smutty Tom." Now is the time for him to show the people of the state of what stuff he is made. If he does all in his editorially: ed and honored as a man who has the pressed people's will, as voiced in the interests of the state at heart. If he constitution, it has gone farther than its supports Norval he will prove himself to own judges can support it. It has re- be unworthy of self respecting men and ought to be kicked out of any party.

Is Norval any better on the judge's bench than Tom Majors would be in the

THE DUTY OF COLORED VOTERS

If the Republican party is the friend of the colored man why do they not elect more colored men to office, instead of ganda of Socialism that at last it comgiving them a few spittoon cleaning jobs and many promises next year, but next year never comes.

The Populist party is the poor man's friend without regard to "race, color or previous condition of servitude," and at our county convention we nominated a colored man for constable, and further he will get the full vote of the party. If the colored people will stay by their true friends they will get some of the loaves and fishes instead of taffy and promises.

Every colored man should vote the Populiist ticket, and especially for Wm. Sline, and thus teach the Republicans a Ir all the Republicans of this county were to meet and talk to the candidates for county judge, viz. Berge and Cochran Berge would be elected by a good majority without a Populist vote, i. e. if party prejudice could be thrown aside. Judge Berge will get the vote of every sincere christian with whom he is acquainted, while not one of such of Cochran's acquaintances will support him, but every bum, thug, and disreputable voter in the city will vote for him. Among other cases the case of Judge Berge of this county is held back by the supreme court, while one of the gang illegally holds the office of county judge.

How much did Norval pay for his nomination did you ask? Not one dollar, but the state officers were not impeached in Asylum frauds and many important cases have been hung up in the courts for years, while others have been decided as per stipulation instanter. No, he did not buy his nomination, there was no need of it. Norval is the man who was nominated to succeed Reese when Reese had a majority of the delegation instructed for him. You know why.

MARION CRAWFORD is writing for The Century Magazine a series of papers on Rome and the Vatican for which Andre Castaigne is drawing the illustrations. These articles will describe unusual features of the Sacred City, and the pictures will include some remarkable restorations of classical scenes. Captoin Alfred T. Maham, the great naval tactician, will also write for the magazine a series of four studies of the naval engagements upon waich the fame of Admiral Lord Nelson is founded. Henry M. Stanley will continue a paper on Africa, to be supplemented by articles made up from the diary and journals of the late E. J. Glave who died a few months ago on the Congo

AMONG OUR EXCHANGES

The steam locomotive is done for. It will be replaced with electric motors as rapidly as they can be made. The locomotive engineer and firemen will also go. Any man can learn to run an electric motor in a few days, just as they do on street cars. The demand for skilled men will be less and less. Labor unions will be impotent. The future will be gloomy for workers unless they own the machines This they cannot do except the government of which each worker is an equal part, owns them. It is public ownership or slavery to corporations. Which will you have?- Appeal to Reason.

When some lawyer has a dispute with his client about his fee, the court calls in the testimony of other lawyers to determine what is the right figure. When there is a dispute between workmen and the corporation, the court never calls in the testimony of other wrokmen to determine whether their demands are just or not. Not by a jugful. The court sends the militia to shoot the workers for having the audacity to whimper. And these same workers vote to elect that kind of judges! The workers get just what they vote for .- Appeal to Reason.

Tom Watson is a little too mealy mouthed in dealing with the damnably corrupt Democratic city of Augusta, which piles up a Democratic majority twice as large as the total vote of that city. The farmers of that Congressional district propose to boycott Augusta if the frauds are repeated at the election on Oct. 2, and Tom advises against the boy cott. We say, apply the boycott. People who condone such infernal frauds deserve nothing better. A free ballot is a constitutional right, and those who deny it are traitors and should be treated as such. The time has gone by for softhanded temporizing with the scoundrels who conspire to defeat the public will. Make it so hot for 'em that they will seek Hades to cool off.-New Charter.

Senator Allen, speaking at Butte, Montana, on Labor Day, said:

"I think that the disposition to put a strictly silver party in the field is confined to the mining states, and I am very doubtful of the wisdom of the movement. Those who are urging it are making a great mistake. There are many silver men who believe the Populist party is simply a temporary growth and that it will soon disappear with slightly changed conditions. Therefore there are many who urge the organization of a straight silver party, but they are making a great mistake, in my judgment. The Populist party is as well founded, and for its mem bers, as well organized, and as determined as any other political party, and it has come to stay. We will not be absorbed by any other political party, and we expect to open our doors sufficiently wide to admit all honest men who want to see a reform in our government. There is no doubt that there will be an overhauling of the Omaha platform to some extent, but its cardinal principles will be maintained.

Anent Socialism, the San Francisco

Socialism can no longer be dismissed ple's party overreached itself a little. In power to elect Maxwell he will be respect- with contempt; it has numbers and intelligence in its service, and it must be heard. It has two million disciples in Germany: it has secured the majority in some German and French cities, and it is not impossible that it may obtain control of some European governments. It is in practical polities, and its arguments are entitled to as much consideration as is given to those of protectionists and free-traders.

This is quite an advance for the biggest daily on this coast with its over 75,000 daily circulation. It indexes a great change in public sentiment. So intelligent and successful has been the propamands respect. Sneers and invective are no longer considered good answers to the arguments of its advocates. Confounding socialism with anarchism gets a man credit in these days for being an ignoramus or a bigot. Many of the brainiest men and women of the times are avowed ly socialists. None who make pretense of being progressive dare refuse a consideration of its claims .- New Charter.

Give a lie the right to live and it will wreck the universe.

Faith without works is an engine without any fire under the boiler.

The man who is mean to a child is a good hand for the devil anywhere.

The shortest cut to the masses is to get all the sinner in the church converted. One trouble with the church is that there are too many babes in it from four to six feet high. No man can sleep well in cloudy weather when he knows that he has a sandy foundation under his house.

The devil is well satisfied with his day's work whenever he has got some man to believe that money can make him happy. The world is dying because there are not more people getting such religion that those who live in the same house with them can see it. The state of a man's spiritual health can be more accurately determined by what he says at home, when things do not go right, than by what he says at prayer meeting .- Rams Horn.

What the People's Party Has Done For Nebraska.

(Extract from Populist Hand Book.) It enacted a maximum freight law, but Republican courts suspended its opera-

It cut down extravagant appropriations, but a Republican legislature brought them back.

It brought to light the corruption existing in state institutions.

It made possible the passage of the Australian ballot law.

It enacted a law requiping state and county treasures to make all banks give honds that handle public money, and to collect interest paid for the use of such money and turn it into the public fund. The last Republican legislature sought to repeal this, but the governor sustained

It enacted a law requiring intersecting railroads to build transfer switches; and, by means of such transfer switches to ship all freight the shortest distance to destination, but a Republican board of transportation has nullified it.

It repealed the special bounty given to sugar refineries, which was re-enacted by the last Republican legislature.

It enacted the eight-hour law. It gave the state a warehouse law. It was instrumental in securing the passage of a law to have the books of all county treasurers examined at least once every two years. It secured the passage of an anti-trust

It secured the passage of an anti-Pinker-It was instrumental in having passed many other good measures.

It elected the ablest United States senator that ever represented Nebraska. It elected the ablest and cleanest governor who ever occupied the executive office of the state. Under his administration it saved the state money by the veto of several useless and extravagant appropriations. By his suggestion in favor of the manufacture of oleomargarine for export, an industry was saved to the state. While it is too early to give any detailed statement, it is certain that under Populist management the' various state institutions will be more economically administered than ever before. While the principal mission of the People's party is national, there is a great work yet remaing to be done in Nebraska To stamp out every remnant of boodling and fraud from our state government; to introduce economy into all the institutions of the state; to regulate Nebraska railroads so that they shall charge at least something near reasonable rates; to rescue our supreme court and other courts from the domination of the corporations; and generally to place upon the statute books just and beneficial laws, made in the interest of all the people. The party has done much for the state already, but its opportunities have been limited. It is only five years old and its principal mission yet remains to be performed.

Lowell a Populist

"The tricks of management are more and more superseding the science of government. Our methods force the growth of two kinds of politicians to the crowd ing out of all other varieties-him who is called practical, and him of the corner grocery.

"Could we only have a traveling exhibition of our Bosses, and say to the American people, 'Behold the shapers of your national destiny!' A single despot would be cheaper and probably better looking. It is a natural impulse to turn ones eyes from these flesh flies that fatten on the stores of our body politic, and plant the eggs of their disgustful and infectious progeny. But it is a lesson of the day that yielding to this repulsion by the intelligent and refined is a mainly efficient cause of the evil, and must be overcome at whatevercost of selfish ease and æsthstic comfort, ere the evil can be hopefully dealt with.
"But under every form of representative government, parties become necessary for the marshalling and expression of opinion, and when parties are once Daily Examiner of September 25, says formed, those questions the discussion of which would discipline and fortify men's minds tend more and more to pass out of sight and the topics that interest their prejudices and passions to become more absorbing. What will be of immediate advantage to the party is the first thing considered, what of permanent advantage to their country the last. I refer especially to neither of the great parties which divide the country. Both partiss have been equally guilty, both have evaded, as successfully as they could, the living questions of the day. "Between the two a conscientious voter feels as the traveller of fifty years ago felt between the touters of the two rival hotels in the village where the stage coach stopped for dinner. Each side deafened him with depreciation of the other establishment till his only conclusion was that each was worse than the other; and that it mattered little to which of them he paid dearly for an indigestion." JAMES RUSSELL LOWELL in 1888.

Judgment Awaits Them

There is a generation, O, how lofty are their eyes; and their eyelids are lifted up. There is a generation whose teeth are as swords, and their jaw teeth as knives, to devour the poor from the earth, and the needy from among man .- Bible.

THE STATE PLATFORM.

We, the people's party of the state of Nebraska, in convention assembled, do put forth the following platform of prin-We hereby reaffirm the principles of the Omaha platform. We declare ourselves in favor of strict economy in conducting the affairs of the state government in all its branches. We believe the judicial affairs of the state should be conducted on the principles of justice and honesty, without partisan bias, and in the interests of the people.

THE RESOLUTIONS AS PASSED.

Resolved, That we favor the principle of the initiative and referendum in matters of legislation. Resolved, That we are opposed to any religious test for admission to office or for membership in this party.

We invite all reform and progressive organizations and persons to to unite with us, and deprecate any act which tends to give prestige and continued existence to division of reform forces. Resolevd, That if the policy of the general government in reducing the volume of money is continued we must in justice to the taxpayers demand the reduction of all salaries of state and county officers.

Resolved, That this convention most heartily endorses the position of Governor Holcomb in reference to the penitentiary contracts and his efforts to administer the affairs of the state in an economical manner.

Resolved. That we express our sincere thanks to the mayor and citizens of Lincoln for their courtesy to the delegates and visitors at this convention.

Resolved. That we view with alarm the recent decision of the United States supreme court on the income tax law, and we denounce as a gross subversion of the principles of free government the substitution of government by injunctions for government by law, which has resulted in the illegal imprisonment of free American citizens, innocent of any crime known to law, without tried by jury.