THE WEALTH MAKERS.

THE ALLIANCE-INDEPENDENT.

Consolidation of the Farmers Alliance and Neb. Independent. PUBLISHED EVERY THURSDAY BY The Wealth Makers Publishing Company, GEORGE HOWARD GIBSON...

1120 M St., Lincoln, Nebraska

N. I. P. A.

"If any man must fall for me to rise, Then seek I not to climb. Another's pain I choose not for my good. A golden chain, A robe of honor, is too good a prise To tempt my heaty hand to do a wrong Unto a fellow man. This life hath woe Sufficient, wrought by man's satanic foe; And who that hath a heart would dare prolong Or add a sorrow to a stricken soul That seeks a healing baim to make it whole? My bosom owns the brotherhood of man."

Publishers' Announcement. The subscription price of THE WEALTH MARmas is $1.00 per year, in advance.

Agents in soliciting subscriptions should be very careful that all names are correctly spelled and proper postoffice given. Blanks for return subscriptions, return envelopes, etc., can be had on application to this office.

Always sign your name. No matter how often you write us do not neglect this important matter. Every week we receive letters with incom-you write us do not hegiset this important mat-ter. Every week we receive letters with incom-plete addresses or without signatures and it is sometimes difficult to locate them. Change or address. Subscribers wishing to change their postoffice address must always give their former as well as their present address when change will be promptly made.

Advertising Rates.

$1.12 per inch. Scents per Agate line, 14 lines o the inch. Liberal discount on large space or ong time contracts. Address all advertising communications to WEALTH MAKERS PUBLISHING CO...

J. S. HYATT, Bus, Mgr

Send Us Two New Names-

With $2, and your own subscription will be extended One Year Free of Cost.

Miss 1896 was born with a smile that was broad and bland.

JEFF DAVIS was not a greater traitor to the country than Cleveland and Carlisle are to the interests of the common people.

NEXT issue of this paper will be a "hummer." Eight large pages full to overflowing with red hot Populist shot. Just raska proud to know that they have one wait till next week.

THE city last week was given over to the "school masters and school marms" and yet no article of value seems to be missing, or unaccounted for.

THE State Central Committee are already beginning work for the presiden tial campaign. It will be a hot one tooand the Prpulist party will be in it from start to finish.

Wouldn't we like to have a chance to "wallop" Miklejohn next fall? Tom Majors ought to support his nomination for when the election is over Tom's defeat would begin to look respectable in comparison.

THE editor of the Daily Call is just spoiling for a fight with England. It would seem that his experience with a certain Englishman last summer when (the editor) got "swatted" all over the face, ought to have been sufficient exercise for him in that line.

WHERE was Strode and Mercer and Miklejohn and Hainer and Andrews when more bonds were being voted upon the people in the House of representatives! Assisting Wall Street of course to bleed their constituents. Poor Nebraska only has one man in the House out of six to vote in the interest of her people.

An exchange says, "When a person hungers for notoriety to such an extent that he would obtain it at a sacrifice of public happiness, it is time to invite the presence of a fool killer and tell him to do his worst." The writer of the above must have had in mind the editor of the Call who is spelling for a fight with England.

Hon. J. L. H. KNIGHT, ex-regent of the State University, a very able and scholarly gentleman now raising grain and the treasury certificates of the act of fine hogs for a living in Custer county has recently become a convert to the Populist party. He will aid very materially in keeping populism at high tide in what is all ready the banner Populist county in the state.

THE money appropriated for the running expenses of the penitentiary is still in the treasury or in some one or more still lives, and the prisoners are still clothed and led. We would suggest a state issue of bonds at a low rate of interest, to replete the "available" funds. as it would undoubtedly meet the approval of at least five of our delegates in Congress. The reserve is now below the million point. The bill would certainly b approved by governor to be elected thenineteenth century. Just what scenes are yet to be enacted before the final cur tain falls is only problematic. We have to admit that the present outlook is not the brightest. At no time since the century dawned upon our land, save per haps, the dark days of the rebellion, has the condition of the mass of our people been worse or the prospect of improve ment less promising. If matters go or from bad to worse for the few remaining years of the century as they have the same number of years just passed the nineteenth century will indeed go out in gloom. But we do not, cannot, believe it will. The common people are thinking as they have never done before. Forces are at work as they never have worked before. Combinations are being formed that were never formed before, and the condition of labor and laboring people is being realized as they never were realized before. It is true the forces against the common people are also combining but this is one of the most hopeful signs of the times. It is the most convincing arguments that the people have had, or could have, that the battle is not to be fought out on old party lines. Old party lines are almost entirely wiped out. Party fealty has become a shame and a cheat, and party leaders, and the once proud masters of their organizations have themselves become the followers and slaves of one master, the "Money Power." They can meet upon one common ground and join hands in their nefarious work of bonding the people in time of profound peace and robbing them in the way of interest to further fill the already plethoric purse of the masters. They have not only announced their in. tentions but have proceeded far to carrying them out in this direction, and if they meet with no barrier in the Senate their hellish scheme will be accomplished.

DO NOT BE DISCOURAGED

But they do not intend to stop there They propose to further reduce our circulating medium by withdrawing all our greenback circulation and thus further contracting our currency.

We say these bold strokes are the most hopeful signs of the times. If under such treatment the supposed corps does not come to life, and resent the insult, it ought to be buried out of sight and beyond the hope of a resurrection. Let the dance therefore go on for the time will sooner come when, "the silver cord will be loosened, and the golden bowl broken at the fountain."

SENATOR ALLEN

Senator Allen is making a record for the people in the United States Senate that ought to make the people of Nebrepresentative in the United States Senate who is their friend. When Congress convened he, with the balance of the Populists in the Senate, called a meeting parties to confer as to the best policy to pursue to secure legislation on the money question in the interest of the people. The Populist members met but the Republican and Democratic free silver Senators ignored the call and the meeting was a failure. The Populist members of the senate held the balance of power and when it come to the reorganization of the Senate they could give the organization to either the Republicans or Democrats as they chose. They determined to take no part and allow them to fight it out among themselves. This gave the crganization to the Republicans and of course the Democrats were hot and commenced to abuse the Populists. Senator Allen made a speech in reply and reminded the free silver Republicans and Democratic members of their action when the conference was called and told them that as they ignored the Populists in the matter of legislation the Populists would ignore them in the matter of organization as it mattered not to the American people which party held the organization so long as neither party proposed to grant the people relief on the money question and that as long of the Republicans held absolute control of one house of Congress he was willing that they should control both and become responsible as a party, without excuse, for the legislation. At the same time he gave them notice that the Populists would vote for good measures and use their vote to prevent bad measures from becoming laws. When the bill to authorize the Secretary of the Treasury to issue another hundred millions in bonds to buy gold to keep up the gold basis farce came up Senator Allen moved an amendment which directs the Secretary of the Treasury to issue $50,000,000 more of July 14, 1894; to coin all the silver bullion in the treasury at the rate of not less than $3,000,000 per month, such coinage to be a reserve fund for the redemption of the additional issue authorized. and also, the treasury notes heretofore issued. When they are redeemed they are to be reissued and kept in circulation. The issuance of any interest bearing bonds for any purpose whatever, withbanks, and Leidigh has not suspended out further authority of Congress, is operations. The government at the pen | prohibited. Of course his amendment will be rejected although a majority of

> Hon. GEO. E. BIGELOW once a candidate for governor of Nebraska, but now a hard working Populist, has been living much of government-as we know gov-

the Senate claim to be free silver men but it shows the consistency and statesmanship of Senator Allen in a way that is pleasing to his friends in Nebraska .-

Free Press.

In Texas the past year. He made Lincoln a visit a few days ago, and said We are living in the evening twilight of among other things that the brightest minds in Texas belonged to the Populist party. Of course: Texas will give a large majority vote for the Populist nominee for president this year.

DO WE WANT A SILVER PARTY?

The Utah Democrat has the following to say in regard to keeping "in the middle of the road." The Populist party is the party of the people, and the inly hope for final industrial freedom. Looking these things square in the face, e must decide what to do, first-we can dght along in the old parties with no possible hope of keeping a gold bug, high-tariff-Republican out of the presidential chair in 1896. We cannot consistently do this; we will not lay still and te robbed without at least entering our crotest. Hence, if we cannot do this we have but two possible courses left; to join move for a distinctly free silver party, or join a party that is already second in size in 22 states in the union, and first in three. From a business or a political standpoint we would decidedly be in favor of the latter, providing the same result may be obtained by so doing. The proposed silver party promises nothing but free silver. They have no orgaaization. They have no press save a few sheets that have sprung up in Utah. These obstacles are all overcome in 'the Populist party. They have an organieation, national, and most perfect, with more than 2,000,000 voters at the '94 election. They have an army of over 8,000 newspapers that are valiantly fighting (every one of them) for free silver and other much needed reforms. Besides this, the party is fast growing. While in every state that held an election this fall the total vote was from 10 percent to 20 per cent less than the congressional election of '94, still the People's party made clear gains in every state.

Farther than this, the People's party deals with the railroad question and the and monopoly question, surely both of these questions are vital questions for We are being most unmercifully fleeced in this valley in the matter of freight rates, and land monopolies are fast gobbling up the public domain, and our small farms are fast passing into the hands of the usurer. After looking at these questions from every side we have concluded to unfurl the People's party banner, nail it to our mast head, Finance, Transportation, Land, Free Silver, and Death to Interest Bearing Bonds and abide by the result .- Utah Democrat Ogden Utah.

A BIG HUMBUG

The financial world has been made to feel that unless the "gold reserve" is maintained disaster would follow, whereas if there was not a gold dollar in the treasury it would not lessen the actual bond security one iota. It's one of those unaccountable bugaboos that must be of pecuniary value to a large number of wealthy men, or so much pains would not be taken to scare people. I acknowledge now that to reduce the reserve would be disastrous, but for no sensible

Just think! The hundred millions is kept up, for what? To redeem bonds and circulating medium of about twenty-five times as much. What would you think of a bank that had $1 of security for every $25 in circulation? Yet this is the gold fiction. When the world knows that the entire wealth of this country is the real security, inside of a few years it will look back in wonder at the gullibility of the whole nation on this subject. Of course, if prosperity comes in full blast, there is no financial question, for people cry for change when conditions are bad. -Cor. N. Y. Herald.

DES MOINES, IA., Jan. 1, 1896. Editor WEALTH MAKERS:

DEAR SIR:-Two dollars a year, for five years; from three million reformers (the country's liquor bill for twelve days) would build and equip a railroad from Denver to the Atlantic coast) 2000 miles.) It is pretty safe to say that every reformer will spend that amount in the next five years and get practically nothing for it. Yes, every tramp.

Such a road operated at cost would save the people the amount spent on it every year. It would cut off millions of dollars going out of the country yearly, as interest and dividends on roads which are three-fourths watered stock, and by so doing force a large number of such roads onto the market, for sale to your Uncle Samuel for legal tender. It would demonstrate the power of the people, when righteously inclined, and lead them quickly to destroy all monopolized industries in the same manner. It is idle, and cowardly to say that it connot be done. The time and money already spent on organizing the P. P. would have accomplished it. The people will take it up readily if presented to them. The stock can be made non-dividend-bearing (one man one vote) and be exchanged for legal tender as soon as the government will take the road, and guarantee the people their rights therein. To destroy "profit" is the only way to destroy monopoly. It is the natural way, and therefore the right (divine) way. No reformer-never a single oneever originated in legislation (strife) Every one of them spring from a spiritual source (educational). Experience alone teaches, and this is the easiest way to teach the people that when they do right themselves, others are compelled, by natural law, to do right also. The people never had any control of a government anywhere, at any time, and never will until they first make right conditions themselves. The flat of law is the prerogative of the Almighty alone. We are here to carry out His laws. We can deny Him, but His laws assert themselves in spite of our ignorance. When we APPLY natural laws we will render ernment-useless. God is "practical." Never fear about that. There is no use duplicating His laws. To thwart them is supreme folly. Then why legislate? When we understand that natural laws are sufficient for every purpose, if applied, reform will come with a rush. "For in one hour is so great riches come to naught," Rev. 18. We have no one to blame for present conditions but ourseives. Self love has led every one of us into "profit" seeking. All wanted to get where we could live in the sweat of the brother's face. We must destroy "profit," not make it. Must seek nature (God) for all profit, not our fellows. Must exchange with them at par (cost)- Legislation is war. Peace is the conqueror. We cannot put new wine into old bottles. We have entered the new order. Have been caught napping. The money question is not a money question, it is a debt question, that is to say it is a question of interest, which is "profit."

Assertions? Yes. Contradict them successfully if you can.

Sincerely,

JAS. T. R. GREEN.

P. S. I can get $1000 (100 shares) subscribers in this city alone, for a people's road from OLD PARTY VOTERS, men who wouldn't vote a Pop ticket to save their souls, and I am the worst kind of a collector.

SHERIFF elect Trompen of this county is having serious trouble in distributing a small amount of patronage between a large number of aspirants who are claiming anti-election promises. John is showing a large amount of skill in not violating the letter if he does the spirit of his contracts. Where he has more promises than places, and has made promises that hedon't want to and never intended to fulfill, he makes a tender with a string to it, or a condition that he knows will not be accepted and then appoints the other fellow. John is long headed as well as long bodied.

THE year was ushered in so suddenly that many forgot to swear off. The police record for the first few days would at least indicate as much.

AMONG OUR EXCHANGES

You didn't think the profit on coal oil was great enough to carry into politics, did you? But the continual small stealing on each gallon has enabled the Stand ard Oil company to become the most colossal combine in the world's history, owning courts, legislatures and congress. It is now reaching out to own the iron industry, the copper industry, the timber industry and the land we must live on or perish. The oil company has always been in politics and using your vote to gain its end. No, you will not mix coal oil and political Of course notl-Coming

The United States cannot go to war unless Rothschilds will loan us the gold, for surely our great and noble and honorable rulers would not ask soldiers to fight and take pay in debased silver and paper fiat trash! See Uncle Sam getting down on his knees to John Bull for the gold John Bull is drawing from this country. A pretty spectacle.—Coming Nation.

From Southern Mercury

Cleveland's war will be a series of Bull Cleveland should go to the front with his body guard. We must have European money to carry on a European war. Mr. Cleveland can't whip a crank, much less the British empire. Why not redeem the $500,000,000 of treasury notes in Mills' change? The Democratic cuckoos have a faithful friend in John Sherman.

The one great lesson for the American people to learn is how to vote.

Small Change Roger Q. will probably be a colonel in Gen. Gordon's brigade. Man-Afraid-of-His-Big-Shadow is a great warrior. He has won many victories on duck ponds.

If Uncle Sam and John Bull were to open recruiting offices on Wall street, it would be nip and tuck.

Plutocracy owns the courts, hence the millionaires can destroy the laws as fast as they can be enacted.

John Bull is conquering this country without firing a gun. He has possession of the treasury now.

Grover should take Deb's advice, and save his money and buy a gun if he is going to whip Johnny Bull.

The English gold gamblers will doubtless have an opportunity to purchase several more issues of bonds before war breaks out.

Will a man fight who is afraid of his shadow? He will first have to under stand that means of escape are effectually cut off. A man may be able to conduct a sheriff's he possesses capacity to command an Cleveland's substitute has not been heard from on the war question. In all probability he knows a sight more about hanging successfully, but that is no sign war than Grover. The power of thought is most wonderful. If an old party voter will spend a few days in earnest thought it would revolutionize his politics. The bond grabbers were so vociferous in their demand for bonds that congress men were forced to forego a Christmas recess in order to feed these comorants with evidences of notional indebtedness. Senator Mills has not been heard from on the Venezuelan war question. Senator Gordon has declared for war; now let Senator Mills take a stand.

Grover will soon be like Alexander the Great. He will weep on his shirt front because there are no more humbugs for him to work off on the people.

The indications are that Grover and the money power are about to browbeat

A RATTLING GOOD CHRISTMAS STORY

(BY THE AUTHOR.)

Chap. I .- The world's wheat crop has decreased for twelve years.

Chap. II.—American wheat crop has decreased for fifteen years.

Chap. III .- The corn crop decreased for 16 years in spite of the last crop. Chap. IV .- Surplus storage of grain has stEadily decreased.

Chap. V.-Export of grain has increased for fourteen years. Chap. VI.—The number of farm animals has remained about the same ten years.

Chap. VII.-Total average of crops decreased in ten years.

Chap. VIII .- But the Home Market increased by twenty million mouths.

Chap. IX-Mr. Price, instead of climbing higher pitched headlong over the frightful precipice, crushing Miss Supply Demand into mush.

The sly, deep, dark, devilish, doughface villain known to the World as Mr. Respectable Greedikuss, and to the Devil as Mr. Legalized Labortheif, arose from his web. He silently parted the portierre, G. O. P. upon one side, D. O. P. on the other-They were looped together as one curtain at the top, and as the velvet folds parted they gracefully swept downward into hell. The villain stood a moment gazing out of the window as the mangled form of Miss Supply Demand was carried by on a

He smirked a dreadful smirk, sat down at a table, and began to figure. "My God, but we used to raise eleven bushels of wheat per head in this country-and they got $1.25 a bushel for it!! Issachar Jewhittaker!-now they raise only six and one-half bushels per head!—and export more!—and feed seventy-five million bushels to hogs!—and the price is forty-five cents!!!????!!! Ha-ha-he-he-he! Hiyi-yi! Ho-ho-hold on there-there'll be revolution-we're overdoing it! We're too -" The villain sat back in his chair and mused. "No-N-o-o, a lot of tenant serfs-and-dollar-a-day slaves can't rise-without-the press--and the church. The Devil owns one and-and-well, Judge Greedie Pryde, the Devil's attorney, has had Christ arrested for a penniless crank—and—" He rang the bell violently. His servant, J. Sterling Morton, instantly appeared, hat in hand and bow-legged in the neck. "Sirrah, lean right!" He leaned. "Lean left-then snoup." He seemed glad to snoup. "Now summon Mr. Price." "Mr. Price is dead sir; He was sneakin' round the precipice where we shoved over Miss Supply Demand-we-he fell. "Go-sneak out-send me Deacon Pogus. I must see if the church is going to stand by me-ah, my deah Deacon-You're an old man-you may lean against the chair. How's the church behaving?" "Wal, Mr. Laborthief, so fer, the church are movin' along our line. Wunst in a while it luks as the if that old Crank from Nazareth shoulk break juil thar might be a rumbus. But we've got to teochin' scienktifleous murder in all our church schools. There's a lot er dang crazy poperlis fellers that's down on yer, an' we had ter kick that New York preacher out fer wearon overalls on week days. But the church is all right-if ye keep up the donationers." "Well, Deacon, let us pray-and after prayers you take this sack of $3,000,000 and offer to Ghicago University if they will kick Prof. Bemis out of the faculty. It's oil right-good by. Oh yes, as you sneak out ask the Devil to sneak in."

"Ah, my Lord Duke 1'Devil! Do you know, you miserable dog, that you kept me waiting two minutes? Jump round that table, and let's see your legs move!" The Devil dropped his ears and put his tail between his legs, and obeyed.

"Now, you coward prince of Perdition, for what did I slack your chains, if you will not obey me? What of Christ?

"Master he is double-ironed-with the steal of the G. O. P. and the brass of the D. O. P., and old Scrop Avarice is jailer. I've tried to do my duty, most august master," the Devil whimpered, "I have secured control of the press, for you sir—you are Press Association, sir-even the country press believes your lies. The courts are "Shut up, my Lord Duke-why do you permit labor unions and such treasonable glimmers of independence? Answer!

"Oh master," cried the Devil, dropping upon his knees, "It weans the Simple Simons from politics! Did you hot hear my voic in Vice-Pres't. Maguire's mouth, say, "it is too eorly for a labor party?"

"Out of my palace!" shrieked Laborthief, rising and plying his cane over his back, "Out, you old Ripsnort!—get thee forth! I am through with you. You have let some of my slaves THINK! Go to the God who cast you down, and defy him for me. Tell him to send another son—I've got the first One in chains. And as for Devils—Ha, ha—he, he—hi-hi-ho-ho—go tell him I've a starvation Poverty-Hell of my own-and that I kicked the Prince of Perdition out of it-thus-and Get out, you Horned Scarib!-thus-and thus-" And he kicked the once powerful Satan down the marble steps. He then sent for the Sec'y, of the U.S. Treosury,-East the formidable Republican majority of on the People's party ticket for presi-

The English bond gamblers will display wisdom if they exercise caution about buying American bonds. If the war spirit should once start in this country the goldbug influence would be wiped out. For a time at least other hands would shape the destinies of this country

Cleveland's war message benefitted the speculators and robbed the farmers, as usual. Immediately after the appearance of the war blast wheat and cotton declined. Mr. Cleveland is determined to force the products of labor down to the pauper notch if it takes war to do it.

A grander army than will come up to battle for the rights and liberties of the people under the People's party banner next tall was never enlisted. Neither will brave men ever face the cannon's mouth. This army will be 300,000 strong in Texas, every man a hero, brave, chivalrous and brainy.

The Republicans of the lower House of Congress have framed a financial bill in accordance with the demands of Mr. Cleveland. How pleasant it is for the two old parties to agree so harmoniously. There is no need longer for two separate party organizations except to humbug the people.

It will be interesting for the people to note the action of the free silver Democrats and Republicans in Congress in response to Cleveland's demand for bonds. Keep an eye on these patriots, and it will be seen that they first show fight, but very soon yield, and do the bidding of the money power.

There ought to be no stay-at-homes this year. Let every American citizen exercise his constitutional right to cast a ballot. If the people do not get to voting regularly and freely the time will come when this right will be denied them. If there ever was a time for every man to vote and vote hard it will come at the next presidential election.

It will be interesting to note the position take by ex-Speaker Crisp on the financial legislation of the present Congress. Crisp is an expert dodger, but he will be unable to dodge the present financial issue. If he is consistent for his friendship for silver his actions and vote will so declare. A dollar to a cent Crisp dodges the issue.

In case of war, the striking laboringmen of Chicago who were fired on by United States troops will of course gird up their patriotism and enlist to defend their beloved country.

What a subject for future ridicule Grover Cleveland will be? His various humbugs, capped by his war message, will constitute subjects for the comic almanacs of the next generation.

The Republican Congress is no improvement on the last Democratic Congress. The only difference is in the name. The two old parties are both subsidized by the money power and are unable to do anything for the masses of the people. It is absolutely necessary that a new party come into control of the government. If this does not occur, then the money power will fasten a condition of plutocratic servitude on the people that only a bloody revolution can remove. Ex-Governor Waite of Colorado in a private letter to a Texas friend suggests the propriety of placing a southern man depot or city office, corner 10th & O St

the lower House. Another evidence that | dent. There is presidential timber in the neither one of the two old parties can south, and it is sound to the core also. Withstand the money power influence. The reformers of the south are of the middle of the road variety; no fusion and no one plank party nonsense. The party would make very little, if any, mistake at all by placing a southern reformer at the head of the ticket. Southern reformers are not office seekers. The south wants a genuine reformer for president, let him come from any section he may.

AMIT SI 1.

In this age, when gold is king. Sitting on a brazen throne; When it is the 'proper thing' Rating men by what they own: When the brute is more and more, And the spirit less and less; When the world is lorded o'er By corruption and excess: It is time that men of worth Boldly step into the van. With this message to the earth, Down with Mammon, up with Man.

We have seen the idler feast, While the toiler lacked for bread; We have seen the king and priest Rob the living and the dead; We have seen the thief arrayed In the purple robes of state, While the honest man was made To beg succor at his gate. It has ever been the same, Since our human world began, Let us stop the sickening game, Down with Mammon, up with Man.

Earth is far too wise and old For a lordling, or a slave; For to heed a ring of gold On the forehead of a knave; Far too old for war and hate; Old enough for brotherhood; Wise enough to found a state, Where men seek each other's good. We have followed self too long. Let us try a better plan; Keep the right, subdue the wrong Down with Mammon, up with Man.

Many of the brightest, best, Of the earth, were counted poor. Some possessed "not where to rest;" Others toil and hardship bore. Homer, at the dawn of Greece, Sung and begged from day to day; Buddhe, born with palaces, Flung the baubles all away. Wealth is by the devil prized, God has cursed it with a ban. Let us hear the pauper, Christ, Down with Mammon, up with Man.

O. my people, will you beed? Be no more like beasts of prey. Turn from selfishness and greed, Let us find a nobler way. From the worn-out lies of old. Let us make the whole world free. Down with kings and priests and gold; Up with God, Humanity. We are tired of wrong and crime. Let us crush them while we can. Let us hall the better time, Down with Mammon, up with Man.

Holiday Rates via the Burlington

J. A. EDGERTON.

Route. December 22, 23, 24, 25 and 31st, and also on January 1st, tickets to points within 200 miles will be on sale at rate of fare and a third. Minimum rate 50

Tickets and information at B. & M.