

In winding up his most wonderful knowl- edge he says: "Well we hear some say we must not injure the merchant, when they learn not to injure our business with his vote."

What do you think of those republican victors in the east, Oh will I saw somewhere in this paper that I have just been reading where it suggested that the Alliance party throw open its doors and take in the Democrats and Prohibitionist all right the same party that unfurled the old flag in 61 & 5 will do so again and just as sure as she acquired then she will triumph now.

A WAR HORSE REPUBLICAN. P. S. You can hear from Reynolds on the republican side any time and all time.

Oh yes we must notice this rent or interest question as practiced in the old Bible days. It minds one of the Baptist or Campalites you must be Baptised by Emersion because Jesus Christ was to fulfill the old Masakiel law.

OUR OBJECT IS MISUNDERSTOOD. NORMAN, Neb., March 16, 1894.-G. H. Gibson, Editor. Dear Sir: First, I like to ask why you cannot keep the old name on your paper?

Be you ashamed of the two parties you represent, or do you think by giving the paper a name which neither belongs to the paper nor to the people that read it and by so doing better it? I think not.

I am proud of the name ALLIANCE INDEPENDENT, but ashamed of THE WEALTH MAKERS; for it is a mockery and an insult to the farmers if not to the paper.

First, if we make the wealth and let the other fellows have it we are set of fools; second, we are all crying hard times and selling wheat at 30 cents per bushel. Not much wealth making.

Now give your paper a name that that have some meaning and sense in it; but I for one will not keep a paper with such a name.

People's Platform, Populist Educator, People's Watchman, Nebraska Populist, Western Financial Reform, or any other name you can think of there tells the truth.

Yours respectfully, P. P. BOASEN. Our good People's Independent, Alliance, German, American farmer friend has misjudged us, has reached a conclusion a little too hastily.

But we like a man who, if he supposes we are ashamed of the name Alliance, or Independent, is ashamed of us and our paper.

We should despise anyone who got ashamed of the organized farmers or the Independents. The editor of this paper was raised on a farm, and was a farmer himself in Butler county of this state; and he might have been farming there still if his health had not failed, through overwork during the grasshopper period of the '70's.

As ashamed of the farmers? Ashamed of their organization for mutual enlightenment and aid? Ashamed of the men who at the polls propose to rescue themselves and their fellow-citizens from the clutches of monopolists and usurers?

No, friend, never. "An honest man's the noblest work of God." And who can be honest who is enriched by the sweat of others.

We are ashamed only of shirkers and leeches. The writer is a Populist, Nationalist, Equal Suffragist, Anti-Monopolist, Civil Service Reformer, Christ Worshiper, Truth Lover and All Around Crank bent on moving things, besides being a Maine Yankee.

But why need he carry all these names all the time in order to tell the truth? That name is best which is most comprehensive.

We chose the name we did because it included every farmer, every Alliance man, and every worker in the town as well as the country.

The wealth makers are those who produce every thing of value, of use. Even if they are robbed of all above a bare subsistence, they are the wealth makers.

many communications on this important matter of candidates, and ask all who can to confine themselves to, say, a hundred words.

"He is sounding forth a trumpet That shall never call retreat. He is sitting on the hearts of men Before His Judgment seat. O, be swift my soul to answer Him: Be jubilant my feet! Our God is marching on."

THE COXEY ARMY, peaceful though it is, is exciting the powers that be almost as much as did the John Brown raid.

The New Name Very Appropriate. AURORA, NEB., March 24, 1894.

Editor WEALTH MAKERS: The new name THE WEALTH MAKERS is very appropriate. Some one has said "The good of all is the concern of each."

This ought to give you an audience with all men who desire to uplift all. I wish you well.

Very truly yours, JUDGE W. L. STARK. "Very Handsome and Unique." Editor WEALTH MAKERS: We are in receipt of a copy of your issue of the 15th inst.

We must congratulate you on the new title for your paper. The heading is very handsome and unique, and much better symbolizes the principles which you advocate.

A Chicago Editor's Opinion. Editor WEALTH MAKERS: I found a copy of your new series on the train and noticed the clean and artistic appearance of the new title.

The name of THE ALLIANCE-INDEPENDENT has been changed to that of THE WEALTH MAKERS.

The struggle now going on is indeed a struggle between the wealth makers and the wealth takers.

Those who by their labor create wealth, and those who by their cunning take wealth after it is created.

The name of THE ALLIANCE-INDEPENDENT announced that its name would be changed to something more appropriate in the near future.

Last week it was issued bearing the new heading, "THE WEALTH MAKERS (of the World.)"

The name is very significant. Now let all who are tired of making wealth for others to take without rendering an equivalent rally to the support of THE WEALTH MAKERS.

Subscriptions received at this office.—Loup City Clarion. A month ago THE ALLIANCE-INDEPENDENT announced that its name would be changed to something more appropriate.

With a new name and head THE ALLIANCE-INDEPENDENT comes out better than ever. It will henceforth be known as THE WEALTH MAKERS.—Clipper-Citizen.

The ALLIANCE-INDEPENDENT so well and favorably known among the farmers of Nebraska, has changed its name and is now called THE WEALTH MAKERS.

Mrs. Goff of Kearney, writes: "THE WEALTH MAKERS is an excellent paper and you have improved its appearance very much." Now if you want to get the worth of your money, you won't fail to call on Fred Schmidt during his special ad's which lasts only a week or two.

Notice his large "ad" on 8th page, and remember that we say he is perfectly reliable.

A Base Slander Refuted. GANDY, Neb., March 15, '94.

Editor WEALTH MAKERS: You have probably noticed an article in the Lincoln Journal of March 11, headed "Found a Deficit," and referring to the Logan county treasurer as being a defaulter in the sum of $490.

This is a base lie from beginning to end; as my report was not finished until the 12th of March and was approved that day by the commissioners, as my report will show.

This is characteristic of the Journal. It is known here as the "Lying Journal," and the article is in keeping with its well earned reputation.

This is further proof of the hard row of stumps the G. O. ps. are in. Nothing seems too low for them, and the tearing down of ones good name is the only thing they have to go on.

Yours Truly W. GINN, County Treasurer. Fred Schmidt, whose ad appears on the eighth page, is perfectly reliable.

Take advantage of his offer. J. M. Armstrong of Greenwood, Neb., whose seed corn ad. appears on another page has been a resident of Lancaster county Neb., for 25 years.

He is a wide awake young farmer, has made a study of raising corn to a high state of perfection. He raised 92 1/2 bushels of fine solid corn to the acre, by three plowings with an ordinary cultivator.

This he thinks was as good a piece of corn as was raised in the state or any other state last year, without the use of a hoe or irrigating. Reference, first National Bank of Greenwood as to his reliability. Write him today.

It will pay you to see Fred Schmidt's ad. BRECKINRIDGE SCORED. Branded as a Menace to Society by Women of Boston.

BOSTON, March 27.—At a meeting of the Woman's Rescue League resolutions were adopted condemning Congressman Breckinridge, and in the somewhat lengthy preamble the members take occasion to emphatically denounce the congressman and brand him as a menace to society and public morals.

The resolutions were to the effect that "The Woman's rescue league of Boston requests the chivalrous people of Kentucky to retire W. C. P. Breckinridge, M. C., to a private life of obscurity and oblivion."

"That we extend to Madeline Pollard our sympathy while her whole life is like an open book and laid bare for public criticism; that this league believes Madeline Pollard more sinned against than sinning." It was voted to send copies of the resolutions to the congressman, Miss Pollard and to all the newspapers of Kentucky.

"The Dogs and the Fleas." This book is the strongest piece of satirical and allegorical writing which has yet appeared against the forces of oppression and evil. The dogs represent the workers and the fleas the blood-sucking monopolists.

A Plea for the Gospel. This book, by the same author as the preceding is a most searching examination of the preaching and work of the church, from page to page, and is a most valuable contribution to the Christian literature of our time.

Lincoln, Neb., Aug. 10, 1893. Alpha-Beta Bath Co., Lincoln, Neb. (Continued)—I have been a victim of rheumatism for several years past. I have suffered intensely at times, and have gone to the Hot Springs of Arkansas and taken the mineral waters there. I have also taken much medicine under the directions of able physicians. About one month ago I suffered from one of the most violent attacks of the disease, and at once began taking hot salt water baths at your establishment. I have, I think, entirely recovered. From experience and my observation of the results of treatment of many patients at the Hot Springs above named and of your bath house, I am convinced that better and quicker results can be obtained by a course of hot salt water baths at your bath house than at any other place in the country. I do not hesitate to only to recommend, but as I have many persons suffering from rheumatism to try a course of baths at your bath house under the directions of one of the physicians in charge. I believe your new and wonderful bath house will cure a great blessing to the many victims of rheumatism in this vicinity, and I hope it will receive the liberal patronage it merits. You have not responded to my last letter, but I believe I have received at your hands, and you will see when I have and in connection with your clean sheets. Very respectfully, J. B. VINTAGE.
