Paragraphs

There is no middle ground in this battle. He that is not for us is against us, and he that is on the fence will be fired on from both sides.

If the Chicago convention refuses to put a free silver plank in the democratic platform, there is but one door left open to all honest free silver democrats as well as republicans. That is the door of the independent party.

When there is any talk of the independents and democrats fussing the republican strikers cry out "democratic partisan."

break up the democratic party. In the north they say it is a democratic scheme to break up the republican named in our extraordinary offer. party. Both right: it is a scheme to break them both up.

When the bank advocates and railroad strikers, regardless of party, are advocating some measure, farmers and business men should throw all their weight on the other side of the balance. make money Vote for the other fellow.

Why men love their party better than their homes, their wives and children is more than mortal man can tell. While many will acknowledge the justice of our cause and will agree that we on the day of election and vote with the party that denies these things.

The same men who put up the canditicket also put up the candidate on the republican ticket. This they have been doing since 1876. The bankers magazine coming to Boston and taking American adjoins the herding grounds. you must place the tariff on labor responsible. instead of the products of labor.

The landlords of Boston have made out a "black list" of renters whom they class as "und-sirable tenants." Where will these unfortunate people in the city find shelter from the chilling storms of winter? This is only the forerunner of what will take place in this and other agricultural states in the west. When most of the land falls into the hands of the blue-blooded aristocracy, they have only to make out their list of "undesirable tenants" and then there is nothing left for this class of unfortunates but to tramp, steal or starve. Thus the people will get what they have been voting for for the last twenty years. And still
