

In Nance County.
FULLERTON, Neb., June 18, 1892.
 The independent county convention has just adjourned. The court room was full of delegates, spectators and enthusiasm. This county will wheel into line with an increased independent force.

Delegates to the state convention were instructed for W. P. Hatten for governor without a dissenting voice.

Yours truly,
W. P. HATTEN.

Meeting at Valley.
 Hon. W. H. Deeb, Hon. Allen Root, and Hon. T. C. Kelsey addressed a rousing independent rally at Valley Douglas county, Saturday evening. Mr. Root spoke first and was followed by Mr. Kelsey. Both speakers talked briefly on the necessity for a meeting and the corruption of the old parties. Mr. Deeb made the principal speech, discussing the issues in a masterly manner, and holding his audience spell bound for nearly two hours. Round after round of applause greeted him. The Valley independent club is in line for the coming fight.

Cedar County Independents.
 The independents of Cedar county met in convention at Harting on Saturday and selected delegates to the various conventions. J. E. Betts, Harry Thomas, William Rowell, James Danlary, James Jones, Charles Clark and P. Frimble were chosen delegates to the state convention to be held at Lincoln. Charles Plumleigh, W. F. Bryant, Lew Dennis, J. C. Oliver, William Sullivan, H. T. Ankeny and J. Zehring were chosen delegates to the Kearney convention. Charles Plumleigh, K. Lukens, R. M. Holcomb and M. Cullen were chosen delegates to the congressional convention at Norfolk.

How the Republicans Ratified in Boone County.

ALBION, JUNE 20.—Announcement was made in the paper and hand bills printed and a letter on Friday and Saturday to the effect that a meeting would be held Saturday night to ratify the Minneapolis nominations, also that Hon. G. D. Meiklejohn would address the audience. Hon. Loran Clark, delegate to the national convention was present, and Hon. John Peters came all the way from Omaha to ratify with the faithful. At the opening of the meeting 18 were present, including a few independents, and at no time was there more than thirty five in the house by actual count. Hon. Meiklejohn failed to show up, and enthusiasm was at a decidedly low ebb. This shows the state of affairs in the once proud banner republican county of Nebraska.

About the Omaha Convention.
IRVINGTON, Neb., June 19, '92.
S. EDWIN THORNTON,
 Lincoln, Neb.

Dear Sir and Brother:—I wish you would have the impression that Mr. Elmer Thomas' article in the late issue of the Alliance Independent might make corrected, viz: in regard to tickets. There are to be but 1,500 given to local subscribers to the fund. The remainder will be in the hands of the national committee. This will be no packed convention.

Will you please state further that the reception committee will endeavor, by canvassing themselves, to be able to furnish all information to those seeking accommodations, whereby they may obtain such accommodations as will suit them best, from hotel to private houses with or without lodgings, and if some desire to rent a tent with room for four to six persons, we will, I am convinced, be able at a very small figure to do so. We will endeavor to induce the owners of the tents occupied by the military companies at the encampment now being held here, to have theirs remain as at present, and open to all who desire such accommodations.

On Sunday, July 3, we expect religious exercises will be held at Hancock park and other points.

Respectfully,
FRANK B. HIBBARD.

AN EXCITINGLY INTERESTING STORY.

A MEMBER OF THE THIRD HOUSE, by Hamlin Garland, is a powerfully dramatic portrayal of lobbying and law-making as it is carried on in all our capitals, both state and national. Mr. Garland lifts the curtain in Washington and shows how our national legislators are "influenced," corrupted, bribed,—and even blackmailed, if they have once yielded to do wrong—how they thus are made the tools of big corporations and monied interests, to vote immensely valuable franchises and legal advantages to banded villains enabling them with monopoly power to rob the people, to charge unjust prices, and build up thereby enormous and increasingly dangerous fortunes.

The "Third House" as it has come to be called, is more dangerous than an invading hostile army. It works secretly, and under cover of law stabs constantly at the people's liberties, and equal rights and opportunities. The railroad corporations of the country are represented in the "Third House" at Washington; at Albany, also, and all the other state legislatures, they have powerful lobbies. The national whiskey trust is cared for by a lobby. But the money power, pure and simple, for thirty years past has, through the "Third House," made the laws which have reduced borrowers to beggary and enthroned a money lending class and given it constantly increasing power.

The "third house" has English representative in its banking lobby. Ernest Seyd having been sent over in 1872 with $500,000 to represent foreign bondholders, and succeeded with this, and perhaps additional funds, in sliding through congress that most crafty, diabolical act which demonized silver, and added about 50 per cent to the purchasing power of the dollar. This saddled upon the debtor class by the votes of the national legislators an additional burden, equalling not less than seven thousand millions of dollars, which went into the shoglock's clutches. The falling away of Bland's trusted supporters during the present session of congress, indicates also the power to "influence" which the gold ring possesses.

Mr. Garland in his book tells only of the work of the lobby in its effort to put through the bill giving to a private company a very valuable public franchise. The story is excitingly interesting, and we commend it to the reading public most heartily. It is a book which will arouse the people. For sale by us. See price list.

AMONG OUR EXCHANGES.

If the democracy of Colorado will keep its hands off, the people's party will wipe the republican hoodwink off the face of the earth. All the democrats, so far heard from, say they will not vote a demagogue ticket if one is nominated—that they do not propose to help the republicans carry the state. Step to one side, dems, and see how slick we can do 'em up.—Coming Crisis, Pueblo, Col.

Ex-Governor Geo. T. Anthony, the present republican nominee for congress at large in Kansas, went out of his way last fall to stigmatize Mrs. Mary E. Lease as a prostitute. For this infamous scoundrelism the good people in Kansas who would protect virtue and woman's fair name should unite to defeat this libeller and moral assassin.—New Forum, St. Louis.

It fairly makes the Illinois republicans froth at the mouth to see Col. Jesse Harper, Lincoln's law partner and the man who nominated him for the presidency, stumping the country for the people's party.—Lexington Clipper.

The government could operate the railroads at a saving of four hundred and fifty million of dollars annually. This would be a very handsome sum to save the people.—Southern Alliance Farmer.

Henry Clay said, "I would rather be right than be president." James G. Blaine can say, "I prefer to be a dead politician than to serve as secretary of state under Harrison."—Blair Republican.

Editor Rosewater of the Bee is Nebraska's member of the republican national committee. Further, he is Harrison's head man in this state, and it is remarked with good cause, that he will be called to the cabinet as Postmaster-General in case of Harrison's re-election. The "straight" republicans of this state who remember Rosewater's political record have a large amount of crow on hand to masticate.—Schuyler Quill.

The silver plank of the republican platform may be aptly described as something "fearfully and wonderfully made." Barmen's famous what-it-is comparison with this silver plank, wasn't "in it." It is about the sublimest piece of hop, skip and straddle platform rhetoric that was ever conjured up by a gang of Janus-faced rascals pretending to serve G. D., knowing all the time that they were serving mammon.—Chicago Sentinel.

GO TO OMAHA.
 Many independents who would like to attend the 4th of July convention are hesitating for fear they cannot find accommodations, cannot get into the convention, etc. We are inclined to think that Omaha will manage to accommodate all who attend the convention, so that no one should stay away on that account.

Of course many will be unable to get into the convention, but all can take part in the outdoor meetings and swell the grand parade which it is proposed to have on the 4th. Our advice would be, if you want to go, don't let your doubts or fears stand in the way. It is going to be the grandest convention in the history of the nation, and to have attended it will be something to look back on with pride and pleasure.

The Omaha Bee is unnecessarily exercising itself over an attempt to bring about a great celebration at Omaha on the Fourth of July. Rosewater had better stay in the shade and keep cool. The independents have made all necessary arrangements, and the celebration of the people's party presidential nomination will be the greatest event that Omaha has ever witnessed. Yes, Omaha will celebrate. We will all be there July 4th, Mr. Rosewater.

D. M. OSBORNE'S

Steel Harvesters and Mowers.

When D. M. Osborne built the first all steel Harvester and Binder in 1895 he marked a new departure that left all our competitors far in the rear. They have all complimented us by imitation.

The New Osborne placed upon the market this year is also a long stride in advance that places us at the head and proclaims us the leaders in all that pertains to cutting and binding grain.

THE NEW OSBORNE IS THE Lightest Strongest and Simplest Machine Made.

WHY?

BECAUSE its frame is all made of angle steel and put together with steel bolts. No round or square iron pipe about it.

BECAUSE it has the steepest deck, thus insuring a quick delivery to the packers, and avoiding all trouble from packing and choking.

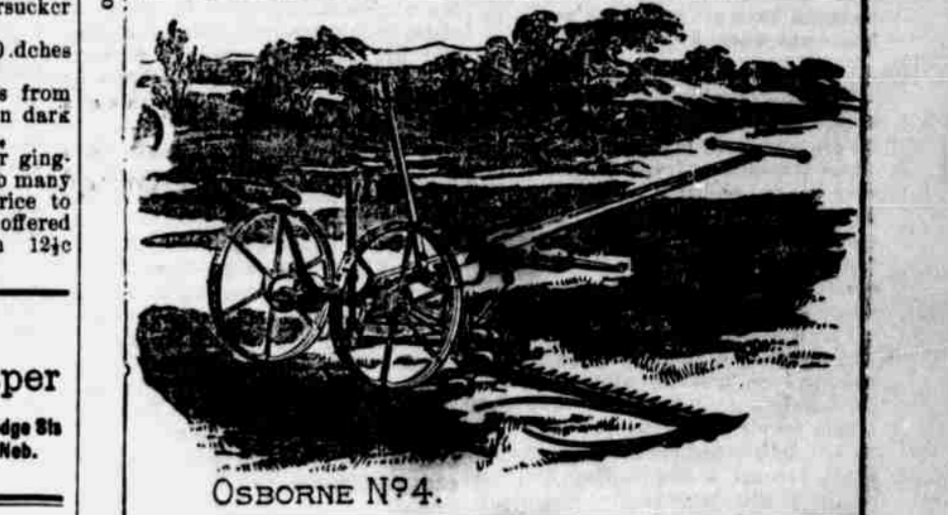

BECAUSE it has the widest drive wheel, being over 10 inches on the face, thus avoiding all danger of sliding in dry or sinking in wet weather.

BECAUSE you don't have to elevate the grain so high.

BECAUSE all its parts are steel and malleable iron, thus insuring four times the strength at half the weight of cast iron.

BECAUSE its chain drive, front cut and straight pitman apply their power direct. No lost motion.

BECAUSE it is the easiest adjusted, easiest handled, and best built machine on earth. Don't buy a machine until you have seen the New Osborne. Two men can handle it. Its use on a farm is proof of an intelligent farmer.

No. 4 MOWER.

The Number Four Mowers, 4, 5 and 6 feet cut stands at the head of the list. Ask any one of its hundred thousand users and the same reply will be made. "It is good enough for me."

AN ALL STEEL RAKE can only be bought of an Osborne agent. Farmers, the best is none too good for you.

WE ARE NOW fighting the Harrow trust on your behalf.

BINDING TWINE. We offer you all the best grades of Binding Twine at fair prices, and are not in any way interested in the great Twine Monopoly that is trying to squeeze the last cent from the already overburdened farmer.
