

MODERN SURGERY

A NEW SURGICAL INSTITUTE FOR THIS CITY AT THE HOTEL IDEAL.

An Institution Which Has Long Been Needed in Lincoln—A Capable Staff of Physicians—Modern Surgery in All Its Details.

Dr. Thad H. Woodward, who, since his residence in this city, has acquired an enviable reputation over the state as a skillful surgeon, has recently associated himself with a number of other leading physicians and surgeons, and having leased the Hotel Ideal building on South Fourteenth street, has opened up a modern surgical institute. The medical staff comprises Dr. Thad H. Woodward, abdominal and intestinal surgery; Dr. H. C. Demaree, general surgery; Dr. W. M. Knapp, late superintendent of the Nebraska hospital for the insane, diseases of the brain and nervous diseases; Dr. H. B. Lowrey, diseases of the heart, chest and general medicine. These are all physicians of recognized skill and ability and men whose honor and integrity have never been questioned.

Modern surgery in all its branches will be practiced, using rigid aseptic precautions in every operation. Special attention will be given to abdominal and intestinal surgery.

The building is what is known as the Hotel Ideal, on South Fourteenth street, a half a block south of O, and is reached by the street car lines from all parts of the city. It is a modern building well furnished through out, with steam heat, water, gas, plumbing and other modern sanitary conveniences, and has room for sixty patients. Trained nurses will be in attendance and the patient can have all the care and conveniences that are guaranteed in the large medical and surgical institutes in the east.

The names of the gentlemen at the head of the institute are a sufficient guarantee that everything promised will be done, and that patients can rely on honest, honorable and skillful treatment within its walls.

A correspondence with the profession throughout the west is desired, and physicians who visit Lincoln will be made welcome by calling at the institute.
