

Farewell to Shyleck's Twins.

The people's army is crossing the plain,
Good bye, old Benny, good bye;
"Weaver and Field" is the loud refrain,
Good bye, old Benny, good bye.
Iowa's son will lead in the fight,
Good bye, old Benny, good bye,
Till victory crowns the cause of right.
Good bye, old Benny, good bye.

CHORUS:

Bye, Tariff Benny,
Bye, Free Trade Grover,
Bye, twins of Shyleck—
Good bye, old parties, good bye.

Our leader is tried and brave and true,
Good bye, old Grover, good bye;
And the power of truth will carry him
through,
Good bye, old Grover, good bye;
We've taken the Field in Virginia state,
Good bye, old Grover, good bye,
And Adlai, "the headsman," will be too
late,
Good bye, old Grover, good bye.

CHORUS.

You kicked Blaine out that you might stay
in,
Good bye, old Benny, good bye;
But you'll look down your nose when the
hay-seeds win,
Good bye, old Benny, good bye;
For we've got the Weaver that's woven
the web,
Good bye, old Benny, good bye;
That catches the vote of the blue coat and
reb,
Good bye, old Benny, good bye.

CHORUS.

Free silver we want and will have it too,
Good bye, old Grover, good bye;
In spite of your hireling gold-bug crew,
Good bye, old Grover, good bye;
The Carnegie tyrants may do their best,
Good bye, old Benny, good bye;
With Pinkerton hounds, but you'll hear
from the West,
Good bye, old Benny, good bye.

CHORUS.

The masses are rising with vigor and might,
Good bye, old Grover good bye;
And Weaver's stock is "way out of sight,"
Good bye, old Grover, good bye;
Your downfall approaches, and now you
may Reid,
Good bye, old Benny, good bye;
Belshazzar's warning, your fate is decreed;
Good bye, old Benny, good bye.

CHORUS.

—J. A. WELLS.

Senator Van Wyck's Opinion.

In conversation with a Journal reporter on Wednesday last, General Van Wyck expressed the opinion that the Homestead labor troubles would cost that state to Mr. Harrison; that it was sure to set the laboring men in all the mines, mills and workshops against the republican party. This was said the day before the reports of the battle between the workingmen and the Pinkertons came to the west, and if that was true in anticipation of no such trouble as did occur, the situation must be far more serious for the party which represents low wages, high tariffs and a suppression of union labor — Plattsmouth Journal.

Dech at Western.

Hon. W. H. Dech spoke to a fine audience at Western, Saline county, on Saturday night. The opera house was crowded. Prof. Caldwell of Wilber presided. They had music by the Western brass band and also by a martial band. Mr. Dech's speech was received with much enthusiasm as are all his speeches.

On Friday Mr. Dech spoke at Clay Center with Van Wyck. He says the farmers of Clay, Fillmore and Saline counties have the finest crop of wheat he ever saw.

Mr. Dech goes from here home where he will spend some time resting and looking after private affairs.

Notice to Committees.

To People's committees desiring a good speaker, Mr. J. B. Romine of Lincoln is respectfully recommended.

C. H. PIRTLE,
Sec. State Com.
