To the Reform Workers Throughout the United States:

The national committee of the People's Party makes this appeal to you for an immediate contribution for campaign funds. The events of the past few days and the advices received from every part of the union render it certain that a political crisis is upon us, and we must be supplied with funds immediately to enable the committee to do the work that has been thrust upon it. Civil liberty and public order are at stake. Do not delay a moment. Take up collections at once and forward by money order, postal note or draft, to M. C. Rankin, treasurer of the committee, at Terre Haute, Ind. Let every patriotic man and woman send at least one dollar each before the 24th of July. This money is needed to meet the legitimate and indispensable expenses of the campaign. This is the people's fight and the people must support it. "Quit ye like men; be strong." Each individual will consider himself a committee of one to forward a dollar, and in addition the chairman of each club and each speaker will read the address to his club or audience and take up a collection urging each person to contribute at least one dollar and forward the same without delay.

Tuesday was Pinkerton day with the esteemed but misguided Journal, which spent columns in endeavoring to prove that employing corporations have a right to hire thugs to shoot down people whom the law does not jerk around fast enough to suit. Our esteemed contemporary goes not believe a word of its own sophistical rot; but, believing that its party is involved it flies to the defense of Pinkertonism—which, it is written, must go, in spite of its alliance with the republican party.—Lincoln Herald.

UNITED labor doesn't always get defeated in its contests with capital. The following is a case in point: Whitely, the great manufacturer of reapers and mowers at Springfield, Ohio, wanted to make an exhibit of a mower at the Fourth of July celebration. The laboring men of the city declared that if he were permitted to exhibit, they would boycott the celebration. Mr. Whitely was notified to stay away from the grounds. But he was determined to exhibit. He mounted a mower and drove to the grounds, but he was met at the gate and refused admittance. He stormed and swore and waited for five hours, but it was "no go." The laboring people are getting even with him for the way he has treated his workmen in the past.

CONGRESSMAN Butler of Ohio says he was elected upon a free silver issue and he does not now propose to run on the Chicago platform. If his district will not give him a free silver platform to stand upon in this fall's campaign, some other man may have the nomination and welcome. But if a man is for free silver why not join the party, and the only party, that is for free silver? If such men as Butler and Bryan will not renounce gold-standard Cleveland they deserve to be retired and probably will be. The common people cannot see the consistency of all this shouting for silver when these men go right along with their old party, supporting a candidate for the presidency who would veto a free silver bill if they should pass one. It is an inconsistency bordering so closely upon duplicity as to deserve a rebuke.
