

They Will Debate.

J. L. McPheely of Minden, chairman of the republican district committee, has written accepting the challenge of the independent committee for joint discussions between McKeighan and Andrews. A joint committee meeting will be held at once to arrange details.

Dawson County Picnic.

The independents of Dawson county propose to hold a general rally and picnic on the fair grounds at Lexington on September 13. Kem will address the people. W. L. Green is also expected to be present.

Grand Rally At Oakdale.

The independents of Antelope and Holt counties will hold one of the greatest rallies of the campaign near Oakdale on September 10. There will be a picnic dinner, speaking, music, etc. Poynter, Wolf, Shrader, and others will speak, and perhaps General Van Wyck will be secured.

Wright in Franklin.

H. W. F. Wright held a series of six meetings in Franklin county last week. The meetings were held at Franklin, Bloomington, Moline, Hildreth, Upland and Macon.

All were good meetings and well attended. The farmers left their work and turned out to the day meetings. He says the independents will carry Franklin county by 500 majority.

In Northwest Nebraska.

The independents of the Fourteenth senatorial district, comprising all of northwest Nebraska, have nominated H. G. Stewart for state senator. Mr. Stewart made the race two years ago, and came very near succeeding. In fact his friends claim he was elected. They instituted a contest, but the last senate was too busy nursing its own embarrassment to give the case a hearing. Mr. Stewart is a man of a great deal of ability, a born radical and a fighter; and will doubtless be elected.

The representative convention for the Fifty third district met at Rushville on the same date, and nominated J. D. Wood of Sheridan county for representative.

Holt Independents.

Holt county's people party convention met in O'Neill on the 23rd and nominated H. R. Henry and G. E. Smith for representatives and H. E. Murphy for county attorney.

Mr. Henry was a member of the last legislature. Mr. Smith is a farmer living near Ewing. Both are strong men and will surely be elected. The convention was large and enthusiastic and very harmonious. Strong resolutions endorsing Hon. O. M. Kem and supporting the board of supervisors in their attempt to break up the corrupt ring management of county affairs were adopted.

Great Jefferson County Rally.

FAIRBURY, Neb., Aug. 19, 1892.

EDITOR ALLIANCE-INDEPENDENT:

Our county central committee is now making arrangements for one of the biggest rallies of the season, to be held near this city on September 21, 22 and 23. Although the place is not definitely fixed upon, there is reason to believe that the citizens of Fairbury will assist us in preparing for it. We have already secured Hon. E. H. Gillette of Iowa, partner of General Weaver, and are corresponding with a number of others. Mr. Gillette is conferring with the Iowa state committee in regard to having General Weaver with us; he also tells us that beyond a doubt we shall have Judge C. C. Cole to address us one of the days. We wish to have all our state candidates here; also the congressional and county candidates from the neighboring counties. There is no doubt but we shall have anywhere from ten to twenty thousand people here during the three days. Every preparation will be made for entertaining visitors from abroad.
