Joint Debate at Milford—Debates Arranged for in the Fourth and Sixth Congressional Districts.

County Conventions in Gage, Nuckolls, Phelps, Johnson, and Other Counties—Meetings and Rallies in All Parts of the State.

Good Men Renominated.

The independents of Nuckolls county had a great convention at Superior, September 5th. On motion of Senator Dysart, Hon G. A. Felton was renominated for representative. No better nomination could have been made. M. G. McNaughton nominated for county attorney, R. D. Sutherland, who has so ably filled the office for two years past. His nomination was made unanimous. After nominations a number of rousing speeches were made.

IN VALLEY COUNTY.

The independents of Valley county met in Ord, September 5th and nominated H. F. Rhodes for representative, Johnson, the present representative, was defeated. Chas. A. Munn, the present county attorney, was renominated. The ticket is considered a good one, and is likely to be a winner by a large majority.

IN PHELPS COUNTY.

The independents held their county convention at Holdrege September 10. All parts of the county were well represented. Representative Soderman was renominated by acclamation; also A. J. Shafer for county attorney. Both have served the people faithfully during the past two years, and there is no doubt of their re-election by overwhelming majorities.

IN YORK COUNTY.

The independent county convention met at York September 10, and nominated W. G. Eastman, and John Price for representatives. J. P. D. Smalls, a member of the present state committee was endorsed for state senator. York is all right for a good majority.

J. STERLING MORTON

can easily stand defeat this fall. He is used to it. He has run for governor of Nebraska four times, and for congress three times, being badly worsted every time.

KEM AND WHITEHEAD.

The following is a list of the joint meetings arranged between Kem and Whitehead in the 6th district:

- Kearney, Sept. 16, at 8 p. m.
- Chadron, Sept. 21, at 2 p. m.
- Valentine, Sept. 22, at 2 p. m.
- Ainsworth, Sept. 23, at 2 p. m.
- O'Neill, Sept. 24, at 2 p. m.
- Lexington, Sept. 26, at 2 p. m.
- North Platte, Sept. 27, at 1 p. m.
- Ogallala, Sept. 29, at 2 p. m.
- Sidney, Sept. 29.
- St Paul, Oct. 3, at 2 p. m.
- Ord, Oct. 3, at 8 p. m.
- Loup City, Oct. 4, at 8 p. m.
- Alliance, Oct. 9, at 2 p. m.
- Broken Bow, Oct. 8, at 2 p. m.

The first meeting to be opened by Hon. Jas. Whitehead, and each party to open and close debate alternately thereafter, the party opening to have one hour to open in, the other party to have one hour and fifteen minutes to reply, and the party opening to have fifteen minutes to close.

IN DOUGLAS COUNTY.

The independents will hold their county convention on September 14th, in Omaha. The primaries are set for September 12.

DEMOCRATS IN THE BIG SIXTH.

The democratic convention of the Sixth district met at Broken Bow September 7, and nominated J. J. McIntosh of Cheyenne county for congress. Morton and Wolbach were both present and spoke to a small crowd in the evening.

MR J. B. ROMINE has been invited

In Nuckolls County.

The independent county convention held in Superior last Monday evening was one of the most enthusiastic gatherings ever held in this county. Hon. G. W. Felton was renominated for representative, R. D. Sutherland renominated for county attorney and Mayor Cotton of Superior for commissioner. There was an immense crowd, and they paraded the streets singing calamity songs which the old party people enjoyed hugely.

An enthusiastic meeting was also held at Oak on last Saturday evening. The house was crowded. Messrs. Polhemus, Sutherland and Felton were the speakers. The crowd was further entertained by two good bands. Oak was alive with "calamity shriekers" and the meeting did not adjourn until a late hour.

Perhaps the most amusing event which has occurred during this campaign happened in Nelson on Saturday evening. A republican rally was advertised with a speaker from Superior, including the republican nominees for county attorney and representative. The attorney was in town during the day but sneaked off along toward evening. The other Superior (?) speaker failed to put in an appearance. The drum corps pounded and hammered away for about an hour and a half to draw a crowd and there were twenty-three people came—actual count—some of whom were independents who went to see the fun.

The meeting was called to order and he nominee for representative was called upon to speak but he declined. Several prominent lawyers were called upon but they had nothing to say, and the meeting adjourned.

"How are the mighty fallen."

MRS. L. M. KEMMERER.

Nelson, Neb., Sept. 11, '92

In Polk County.

OSCEOLA, Neb., Sept. 10, 1892.

ALLIANCE-INDEPENDENT, Lincoln, Nebraska:

At the county convention held today at Osceola, Polk county, the Hon. George Horst was unanimously nominated for representative and H. M. Marquis for county attorney. Mr. Horst elicited great applause in declaring himself in favor of Hon. John H. Powers, Polk county's choice for United States senator.

Mr. Horst is an old resident of Polk county; has represented this county in the legislature before, and is a strong advocate of our principles. He will be elected by a large majority.

Respectfully yours,

W. E. HURST.

Stanton Heard From.

STANTON, Neb., Sept. 12, 1892.

We are hard at work in the good cause. There will be a picnic here on September 20th, given by the K. of L. and the alliances of this county. We expect to have a good time and a large crowd if the weather is good. We will have speaking by several noted speakers. We invite everybody to come and enjoy one day and hear what the speakers have to say.

F. S. CARRIER.

Johnson County.

TECUMSEH, Neb., Sept. 10, '92.

The independents held their county convention here today. They resolved to keep in the middle of the road, and have no fusion. Mr. E. P. Ingersoll was nominated for the legislature. He is a very strong man, and an old-time alliance worker.

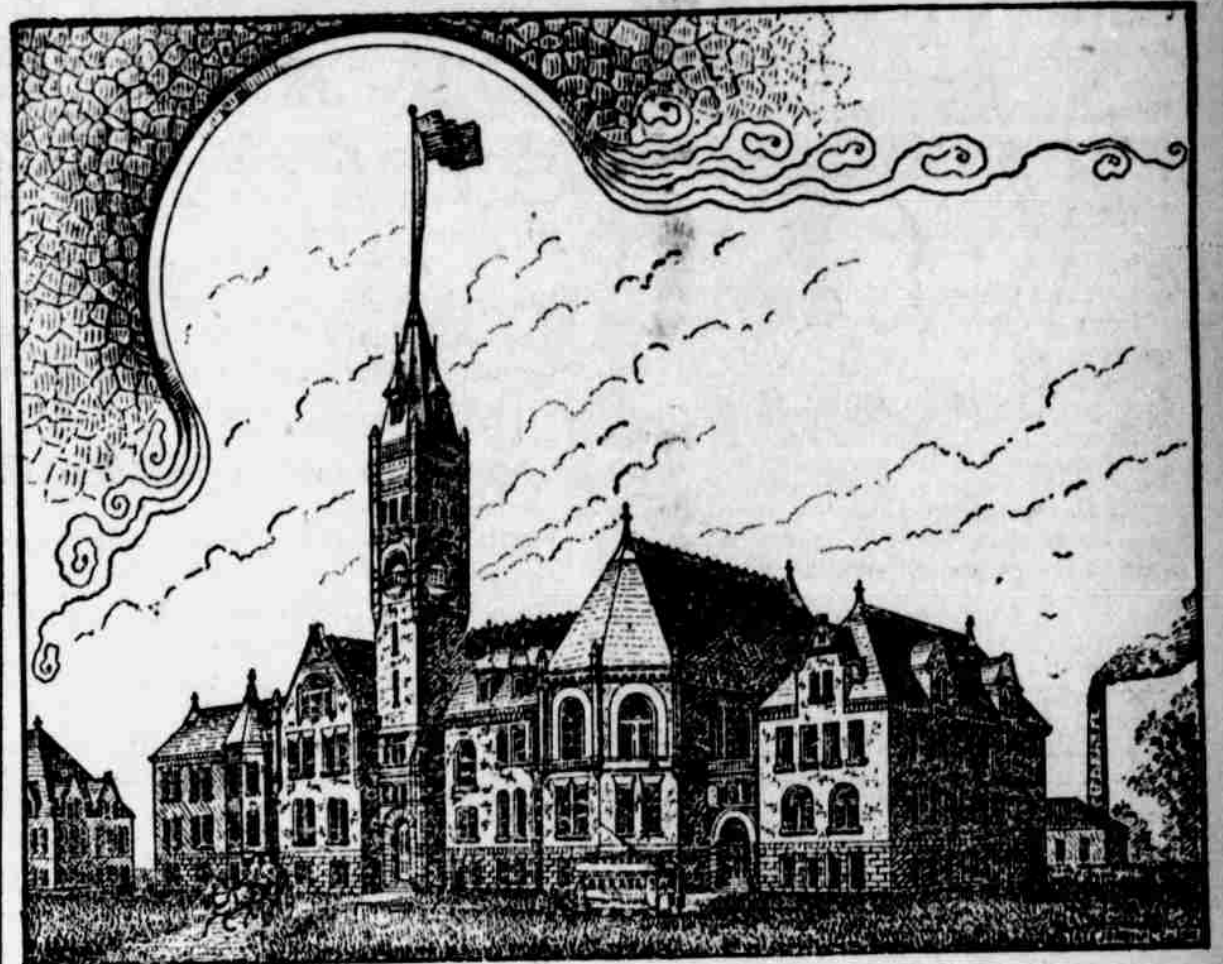

Lawyer Calhoun was nominated for county attorney and made a good speech of acceptance.

Everybody is feeling hopeful of success in November
