

HARRISON AND SILVER.

An effort is made by some republicans to hold free coinage republicans in line by claiming that Harrison is really friendly to silver. Of course every man who is a close observer and a student of our politics knows that Harrison is backed by the money power because of his bitter hostility to silver, and that he will veto any sort of a free coinage bill. It is interesting in this connection to read the opinions of Senator Teller, a republican.

On the 11th of February last he wrote as follows:

We can pass a free coinage bill through congress, but we know that it cannot become a law while Harrison is president.

Harrison has never done a thing for the west, and if any man knows of a reason why the people of Colorado should aid in securing his re-nomination, I should like to have him tell what it is.

I do not believe he has ever said he was in favor of the coinage of the American silver product, I do not believe he would sign such a bill if it passed.

Upon the 18th of February last Senator Teller wrote to Judge Amos Steck as follows:

If he (Harrison) is nominated and elected there will be no valuable silver legislation during the next four years. He will not sign a free coinage bill, nor will he sign one for the coinage of the American product.

Can any intelligent republican dispute the correctness of Teller's position? Can any free silver republican vote for Harrison knowing where he stands on the question?

OUR PEOPLE'S DAILY.

The arrangements made a few days ago by which the subscription lists of THE DAILY SUN and the Daily Public of Omaha were consolidated to be filled by the latter paper seems to give very general satisfaction. The Public of September 13th contained the following announcement:

Arrangements having been perfected with the proprietors of the LINCOLN SUN whereby the publication of that paper has been discontinued and the subscription list turned over to The Public, we hereby extend greetings to our new patrons and shall endeavor to merit their confidence and continued support. The understanding includes the furnishing of this paper to the paid up subscribers of THE SUN for the length of time for which that paper was paid for, on that account. The interests for which both papers were battling being those of men of moderate means it was scarcely to be expected that a large number of daily papers could be supported. The conduct of THE SUN proprietors was most worthy and we trust will be highly satisfactory to all concerned. The Public is now the only daily and weekly people's party paper in Nebraska and one of the very few in the United States. It has been encouraged to an extent that is wonderful and is going forward as no new paper ever prospered before in a city the size of Omaha.

NEBRASKA is filled with spies. They come from all the middle and eastern states. They are here to spy out the land with a view to investment and residence, and are being treated with due consideration and condescension.—Kearney Hub.

Yes, and it is amusing to hear republicans explaining to these "spies" that Crouse, their candidate for governor, didn't know what he was talking about when he slandered Nebraska as an agricultural state.

COL E. A. FLETCHER of Frontier county has been out in Colorado visiting and doing some effective work for the people's cause. The Daily Miner of Fremont (Col.) speaks very highly of his work.

IT IS understood that Mr. Whitehead has already been put in charge of the distribution of postoffices in the Sixth district. He needs it.

THE international monetary conference has been postponed on account of the cholera. That dread disease is not an unmixed curse after all.

IN the great mill for the championship of the world at New Orleans last week, Corbett knocked out Sullivan in twenty-one rounds and did it easily.

POLITICS at the state fair proved a failure. The independents wisely refused to have any part in it. The republicans couldn't get a speaker. The democrats had Congressman White of Iowa, but a majority of the people didn't even know he was there. He delivered a very good speech, but very few people cared to listen to him.

CERTAINLY every voter in Nebraska knows where Walt Seeley stands. He is the most wily and subservient railroad capper in the state. Two years ago, Tom Majors chose Seeley as his private secretary. Isn't that enough to show where Majors stands? The only way to down the railroad ring is to defeat its candidates. Vote for Shrader.

A little less grumbling over disappointed hopes and a little more cheerful work for the independent ticket would be very appropriate just now. It will do you nor your party any good to expose your sores, you can't all go to the legislature this year and perhaps some of you never will, but you can be men enough to bear your disappointment without kicking.—Sutton Register

A CORRESPONDENT suggests that if Tom Majors had desired to emulate the example of George Washington with his little hatchet, his letter to Shrader would have read as follows:

Mr. Shrader.

DEAR SIR:—I decline your challenge for joint debate for these reasons:

In the first place, I am not very heavy on debate. I am heavier on G. A. R. and such things, slick slimy deals of secret duplicity irrespective of party lines. But my most important reason is that no one knows what I think about tariff, or the silver question, and I wish to keep them in such ignorance, and I think I can succeed better by keeping out of joint debates. I have no hesitancy in stating my position on G. A. R., and if you will confine the debate to that, I will accept the challenge. Otherwise I must decline because you are an anarchist, and in joint debate with me, I am afraid that you would carry the people with you into anarchy.

Chicago Sentinel: "On page 75 of a book entitled 'Responsible Government,' a Republican campaign text book written by Van Buren Denslow, L. L. D., late associate editor of the New York Tribune, is found the suggestion embodying the reorganization of our state government in such a manner as to give to capital or the tax-payers a distinct veto on the action of the non-capitalists." On page 77 of this Republican campaign text-book this plutocratic ass asserts that: 'the people are not fit for self government.' This aristocratic ass and capitalistic toady is enthusiastically supporting Harrison." This cuss was my 'pet abomination' among those who attended the New York Liberal club. Horace Greely, first president, once got himself elected president of that body. But we soon gave him 'that tired feeling,' and he slid out.
