Nebraska Farmers' Alliance.

J. H. POWERS, President, Cornell.
 W. A. POYNTER, Vice-Pres., Albion.
 J. M. THOMPSON, State Sec'y, Lincoln.
 W. H. DECH, Lecturer, Wahoo.
 S. C. FAIRCHILD, 1st Ass't Lecturer, Oakdale.
 W. F. WRIGHT, 2d Ass't Lecturer, Bethany.
 B. F. ALLEN, Chairman, Ex. Com., Wabash.

In the beauty of the lilies
 Christ was born across the sea,
 With a glory in his bosom
 That transfigures you and me.
 As he strove to make men holy
 Let us strive to make them free,
 Since God is marching on.
 —Julia Ward Howe.

This department will be under the direction of J. M. Thompson, state secretary. Short items from Alliances on matters of general interest, questions when disputes have arisen, and any news bearing upon the great work of our organization will be welcomed by the editor. Write plainly, on one side of the paper only, and address "Alliance Department" ALLIANCE-INDEPENDENT, Lincoln, Neb.

We would be glad to get items from every county in the state in condition of the Alliance work.

Where shall we hold our annual meeting? This question was left to the discretion of our state officers, limiting them however to three cities, viz: Grand Island, Hastings and Kearney. I would like to receive from every Alliance in the state their preference as to the place to be selected. Send in the vote of your Alliance taken at the next meeting.

Only about two months remain for work previous to our annual meeting. Let them be months full of aggressiveness and preparation for the winter campaign of education such a Nebraska never before experienced.

Members of the Alliance in every county have important duties to perform in preparing for the coming election. The provisions of the Australian ballot law should be thoroughly understood and every effort made to have all voters exercise the right of suffrage in an intelligent manner. Remember that nothing can take the place of the regular Alliance meeting for the successful education of the individual, and the sessions during this month should be full of interest.

President Powers at Work.

Our worthy Pres. Hon. J. H. Powers has after a short rest again resumed active duties in the field. He has held a number of very successful meetings in the southern and southeastern counties, and is everywhere well received and listened to with marked attention.

Two notable meetings were held in Lancaster county last week. One at Raymond, Wednesday evening when over 1000 people gathered to hear him and Hon. L. McReynolds, candidate for state auditor.

The largest building could not hold half the people and they had to hold the meeting in the open air.

Pres. Powers address was spoken of by those who heard it in terms of the highest praise. Sickness prevented Mr. McReynolds from being present at this meeting but he joined Mr. Powers at Aurora on Friday.

Mr. Powers addressed another large audience at Hickman on Thursday taking Mr. Green's place who was unable to reach this appointment.

The meeting was opened by Hon. J. V. Wolfe, who made one of his characteristic speeches talking for about half an hour when he gave way for Mr. Powers who made the principal address.

Hon. I. N. Leonard, R. T. Chambers and Mart Howe, candidates on the county ticket were also present and spoke briefly.

These meetings both proved that the people of Lancaster county are wide-awake and actively interested in the investigation of the fundamental principles of the independent party.

Dockery at Falls City.

Congressman Dockery of Missouri spoke at Falls City, Oct. 6, at the fair ground in the interest of Congressman Bryan's re-election.

Senator Peffer's Son Killed.

A son of Senator Peffer, who was an engineer on the Missouri Pacific, was killed in a wreck at Council Grove, Kansas, Oct. 6.

At North Platte.

A. R. Humphrey, the republican candidate for commissioner of public lands and buildings spoke to about 50 republicans at North Platte, Oct. 6.

At Elmwood.

Gen. Van Wyck addressed an enthusiastic crowd of several thousand at the Elmwood fair on Oct. 6. He was met at the depot by two bands and a big crowd of his admirers, and was the center of attraction for the crowd.

A Good Plan.

SARONVILLE, Neb Sept. 23, 1892.

EDITOR ALLIANCE-INDEPENDENT:

Your paper furnishes such valuable statistics, facts and figures, the following plan is suggested to every independent votes of the state. Let each arm himself with a small note book or memoranda, after removing part of the leaves, on the remaining leaves he can paste valuable clippings, statistics, etc. which all our papers furnish. Thus armed he need not fear to meet the foe anywhere or on any question at issue. With this little gun in our side pocket, should we meet the enemy they are ours.

In Stanton County.

STANTON, Oct. 6, '92.

Poynter and Meiklejohn held a joint debate here at the fair grounds today. Poynter made a pointed, telling speech. Meiklejohn did not meet the argument fairly, in fact did not touch any of his opponent's points. He dodged around, compared the independent platform to Bellamy's scheme, insisted that it demands "wildcat banks" and indulged in a great deal of highflown praise of the "grand old party." Such argument as he offered will never cause an independent to backslide.

The independents are growing more earnest and determined every day. Everyone considers himself a committee of one to secure votes.

GEO. PORTER.

McKeighan at Elsie.

ELSIE, Neb. Oct. 6, 1892.

Hon. W. A. McKeighan spoke here last Monday and delivered a magnificent speech, which was enthusiastically received. The opera house was crowded with voters, many of whom had come long distances to hear the speaker. McKeighan dwelt at length on the transportation question, and showed up the record of the republican party in the last legislature. He declared that his own election was an assured fact, and urged his hearers to vote for General Van Wyck for governor, and to look carefully to the election of the legislative candidates as that was where the republicans were endeavoring to get in their work.

At Walton.

W. F. Wright and McBride, county lecturer of the alliance held a rousing meeting at Walton Friday night. Every seat in the house was filled. The audience consisted of about one-third ladies. Good order and the best of feeling prevailed. Brother Knight held the chair down for nearly three hours while the speakers amputated the sophistry of Crouse, Morton and others on the gold basis and intrinsic value nonsense of the g. o. p.'s. A few more such meetings in the east part of the county will wipe out the vote of that section for the calamity makers of Lancaster county.

At Fairmont.

A very interesting and enthusiastic independent meeting was held at Fairmont September 22, at 8 p. m., Mr. J. M. Crab presiding. The Clay County Glee Club was introduced which opened the meeting with the song "Good Bye Old Parties, Good Bye," which was well rendered and elicited storms of applause.

The Hon. Logan McReynolds followed in a very telling speech in his usual argumentative vein. He is a clear and concise speaker and very ably discussed the issues of the campaign. He is making votes wherever he goes.

The closing speech was made by the Hon. J. H. Powers and was a masterly effort both in logical argument and eloquence. The old man always reaches the hearts of his audience and carries conviction with him. At 11 o'clock the large audience dispersed, all enthusiastic and determined to work for the cause till the closing of the polls on the night of November 8th. Be assured there is no returning to the o'd parties here.

Tennyson is Dead.

Tennyson the great poet Laureate of England passed away Oct. 6, at the age of 83. Death approached slowly, and the poet was conscious to the last. The following are a few of the comments of the English press:

The St. James Gazette says:
 "The poet of our age has gone with his singing robes about him, leaving a name which will not die. It may be that others soared higher and touched deeper notes, but none spoke more words which knock at the hearts of the men of his time. He embodied all that is best in the Victorian age. Since Goethe none has had a larger vision, but the English owe him more than the Germans owe Goethe. The whole world is poorer by his death."

The evening News and Post says:
 "He was the Mendelssohn of poets. He played upon the unvoiced emotions of hearts. Posterity will not reckon him as high as Milton and Shakespeare. Even Browning had loftier notes. None however, upheld better England's name and fame; never was there a clearer guide to things beautiful. There was no mysticism in his mind, it was as placid as a lake."

The Globe says: "We have lost the first Englishman of letters and the first poet. Perhaps he did not rise to Shelley's heights, but he knew the beautiful language of the heart. The verdict will always be that he was the greatest singer of the Victorian age."

After Carnegie.

LONDON, Oct. 6.—Newspapers representing labor interests throughout Great Britain attack Mr. Carnegie severely on account of his speech at the laying of the cornerstone of his gift library in Ayr yesterday. The Daily Chronicle, unionist, with socialistic tendencies, says: "Mr. Carnegie might find better employment in bestowing his surplus wealth upon his American employes. It requires plenty of confidence for a man who consented to the bloodshed at Homestead to pose as a benefactor of Scotland."

Special rates given members of the People's party at the Jennings hotel, Omaha, Neb., Ninth and Harney Sts.
