Greene's Eloquence Demoralizes the G.O. P. - The Republican "Flying Squadron."

PLAINVIEW, Neb., Oct. 24, 1892.

Editor Alliance-Independent:

On October 21st, at 2 o'clock p. m., Mr. Greene of Kearney and J. V. Wolfe addressed a large and enthusiastic meeting at this place, and although there were no special trains run for the occasion and no free passes on regular trains. The large opera house was filled to overflowing with voters. Mr. Greene spoke for about two hours amid thunders of applause, and was specially requested to "Go on with his sledge hammer blows" but owing to the fact that parties at Randolph, twenty-four miles distant had come for him to go to stop. Those that were a straddle of the fence who heard him didn't wait to jump but just fell over on the people's side. Greene is a good one. He is worse than a Nebraska blizzard among the g o. p.'s He makes it so plain and pointed that there is nothing to be said against him.

By the way, we have a large town flag. On that day one or two old mossbacks (it's so mean I won't charge it to the party) tried to steal that flag so we could not use it. They had "Harrison and Reid" painted on a poster to pin to it for use at a republican rally here on the 22nd. They kept that flag hid until nearly noon when things got so hot it put in an appearance of itself—just walked right up and climbed the flag staff. No one knows where it came from, but it came and 'Harrison and Reid" weren't pinned on it either. That made some votes and then Greene made some more.

Then came the 22nd, the day the republicans had advertised far and wide. Meiklejohn was to be here. Prophets, priests and silver tongues of the order were advertised on large posters all over the country. There was to be an "ox" roasted, special trains were to be run, and were run for the occasion. At noon but few persons were seen on the streets of Plainview, and they were nearly all independents. After noon at 2:30 came the special with men, women and children from Illinois, Iowa and a few persons picked up of the "Flying Squadron" of Nebraska along the line. We have a "flying republican squadron" up here. Every time there is a republican meet-ing the railroads run in a special train, and every time they bring in the same persons. It must be tiresome business but they have to do it to get a crowd.

Well, speaking time came at last, and the house which had been filled with voters to hear Greene and Wolfe was filled again with one-sixth republican | Edgar.

crats and the rest women and children. This is the literal tru'h.

Perkins of Sioux City was the first speaker. He is very dry and shows neither honesty of purpose nor sym pathy with the people. Many left the house. They couldn't stand it. Meikle john didn' come. The roasted ox was a heifer calf. The "flying squadron" won't be in it November 8th. The votes will go to Weaver, Van Wyck, Poynter, and the rest of the people's ticket and don't you forget it.

Labor, land and trensportation Are demanding legislation, By the state and by the nation:

Hear the mighty cry Of the honest poor producers, Who are losers, losers, losers! "Beggars never should be choosers," Is the sad reply!

But those beggars are uniting. Educating, reading, writing; Getting ready for the lighting 8th November morn!

They have read the constitution: They are brightening up on Cushing:-There will be a revolution, Sure as you are born!

"For right is right, since God is God, And right the day must win; To doubt it would be sacrilege,

To falter would be sin."

The time has come when men with hearts and brains Must rise and take the misdirected reins Of government, too long left in the hands Of tricksters and thieves. He who stands

And sees the mighty vehicle of State Hauled through the mire to some ignoble fate At d makes noe such bold protest as he can, Is no American.

Wheat is going down, down, down. Money is going up, up, up. The dollar buys much more than formerly; that is a fact-except in cases of debt, interest, taxes and such other items as the trusts and monopolists have for sale.-The Coming Crisis.

The Nicarauga canal thieves are filling the press with seductive, lying there and speak in the evening he had articles about the beauties of this government giving them $100,000,000 to build the canal for the benefit of commerce, and then let them rob the publie to their hearts content as have the subsidized railroads. Harrison advocates this steal and has a quiet finger in the pie. - The Coming Crisis,
