Chicago Produce Letter—From Summers Morrison & Company.

CHICAGO, Nov 5, 1892.
 Both the produce and fruit markets remain quiet and steady. The most active trading for the past week has been in apples and potatoes. These are in good demand on both local and shipping account, and the prices obtained are quite satisfactory to both shippers and receivers. Best well packed varieties of winter apples, such as will do for reshipping or storage are selling at $3 to $3.25 per barrel. The stock that has to be sold for present use $2.50 to $2.75 per barrel. The outside orders for potatoes still continue to come in, and the city trade is now laying them away for winter use. Thus with continued light receipts, makes a strong market. Choice Burbanks 78 cents per bushel, in carload lots on track. Other varieties 73 cents. Good mixed 63 to 66 cents.
 The dried fruit market shows considerable strength, and choice evaporated apples are bringing 8 1/2 to 9 cents, sun-dried quarters 6 to 7 cents.
 The butter market remains firm and all good makes of both creamery and dairy are taken at previous quotations.
 Fresh eggs are now a scarce article and selling readily at 22 cents per dozen.
 Receipts of poultry for the past few days have been light and the market improving. Old hens 8 1/2 cents per pound, springs 9 1/2 to 10 cents, turkeys 10 to 11 cents, ducks 10 to 11 cents, geese 7 to 7.50 per dozen.
 Receipts of game continue light. Prairie chickens $4.75 to $5 per dozen. Quail, large bird, $1.75 to $2. Partridges $6, rabbits $1.75 to $2.
 The receipts of broom corn continue light and trading in this article is good. Self working of good color and growth $80 to $90 per ton. Dwarf, short and of good color $85 to $100 per ton. If long and off color $75 to $80.
 There is a good call for No. 1 timothy hay at $11.50 to $12 per ton. Mixed timothy $10 to $11. Choice prairie $9 to $10.
 Wheat closes at 70 1/2 cents, corn 41 1/2 cents and oats 30 1/2 cents.

Mint sauce is nice to serve with roast lamb. Take a bunch of green mint and chop it very fine with a knife. Add a teaspoon of fine brown sugar, and a teaspoon of sharp vinegar. Stir this up, and send it to the table in a sauce boat.
