This department will be under the direction of J. M. Thompson, state secretary. Short items from Alliances on matters of general interest, questions when disputes have arisen, and any news bearing upon the great work of our organization will be welcomed by the editor. Write plainly, on one side of the paper only, and address "Alliance Department" ALLIANCE-INDEPENDENT, Lincoln, Neb.

We would be giad to get items from every ount. In the state en condition of the Alli-ork.

IMPORTANT.

We expect to have the "Alliance Manual" ordered by the State Alliance ready for distribution next week. This will be a valuable aid to Alliance ance and renewing the interest of all better one members. A copy will be furnished to each Alliance and additional copies can be obtained of the state secretary at 10 cents each or 75 cents per dozen. Secretaries not having reported for current quarter should do so at once that state secretary may know where to send the new supplies.

Anecdote of Butler,

the syudi tate for the same purpose.

Benjamin F. Butler has always been man of mark. He was seventy-five years of age, and continued to practice his profession of law up to the last. One of his first cases is very well known, Chosen by the Kansas Republican Cauisfactory bond and shall receive such and won for him a name for shrewdness which he has always since sustained. A poor factory girl in Lowell, Massachusetts, had been dealed her wages She had appealed in vain for justice and her rights to the owner of the mill. Butler kindly took the case with little hope of reward. The young lawyer got julgment, and attached the water-wacel of the factory. The whole machinery must stop, and all of the employes. Tae capitalist lost no time in settling the wage bill of the ill-treated employe.

JUSTICE LAMAR DEAD

THE JURIST STRICKEN WITH SUDDEN FATAL ILLNESS.

Although He Had Been Alling for Some Time, He Appeared to Be Gradually Gaining in Health-A Complicated Case of Bright's Disease the Cause of Death-Passed Away at Macon, Ga.

MACON, Ga., Jan. 25 .- Justice Lucius Quintius Cincinnatius Lamar died at 8 o'elock last evening. It is a shock to the country. The death was sudden in the extreme, for although he had been ailing for some time, Justice Lamar appeared to be gradually gaining in health. He came from Washington to Macon about a month ago and has been visiting at the residence of Mr. W. H. Virgin in Vineville, a suburb of the

Yesterday afternoon Justice Lamar took his overcoat, intending to go to the city, but was met at the door by a friend, Dr. Llewelyn, with whom he returned to the sitting room. At that time and during all the afternoon he was in good spirits, and at dinner this evening he seemed to have a good appetite.

Dr. Llewelyn left the house about 8 o'clock and a few minutes later the justice was seized with violent pains and died at the hour above mentioned. Bright's disease, with angina pectoris, was the direct cause of Judge Lamar's death, and is given by the physicians as being the chief complication in the Lucius Quintius Cincinnatius Lamar was a typical Southerner, with the ardent fiery temperament of his people. He was of Huguenot ancestry, but was born in Putnam county, Georgia, September 17.

cus for Senator. TOPEKA, Kan., Jan. 25.-The Republicans last night nominated Joseph W. Ady, United States district attorney, for United States senator on the third ballot. Only seventy-six of the seventy-nine Republican members of the legislature were present, Representatives Wilson, Sherman and Coulter being absent.

A resolution was introduced providing that the nomination of Mr. Ady should be binding for twenty-four hours only. After some discussion the resolution was withdrawn with the understanding that Mr. Ady might be withdrawn at any time that it was

The Populists also held their senatorial caucus last night, and after three hours of balloting, adjourned without agreeing on a nomination. Judge Martin led in the Populist caucus with 37 votes, Doster was second with 23 votes and Breidenthal third with 17 votes. The Democrats who hold the balance of power also neld a caucus and decided to vote for Ed O'Bryan, the fusion Democratic senator from Sedgwick county.

BAPTIZED UNDER THE ICE. Sixteen People Baptized at Bonne Terre. Mo., Yesterday Afternoon.

BONNE TERRE, Mo., Jan. 25 .- At 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon a big crowd of people assembled on the surface of Big river, two miles from here, to witness the novel spectacle of the baptism of sixteen persons under the ice. The ice, which has been forming almost every night since Christmas, was about eight inches thick and covered the stream from bank to bank and as far as could be seen both up and down the stream. An opening of sufficient size was cut in the ice and the pastor, standing midway to his waist in freezing water, "buried" the candidates "in baptism" one by one, using the ritualistic form with each individual until sixteen had been immersed. The ceremony occupied from a quarter to a half hour, during all of which the minister was in the icy stream. As the candidates rose from the water they were each in turn taken in charge by friends and hurried to a neighboring dwelling, where a change of clothing made their return to town practicable without serious risk of health.

TRIBUTES TO THE DEAD.

Supreme Court, Senate and House Adjourn Out of Respect for Justice Lamar. United States supreme court met as usual at noon to-day the chair between Justices Gray and Brown was heavily draped in mourning. The death of Justice Lamar was not startling to his THE associates for they had realized when he left this city for the South that in all probability he would not resume his seat on the bench.

Chief Justice Fuller announced Mr. Justice Lamar's death in a few words, saying: "It again becomes my melancholy duty to announce the death of a member of this court. Mr. Justice Lamar died at Macon, Ga., last evening. No business will be transacted. The court will adjourn until Monday

The court crier at once declared the court adjourned. The justices, with a few exceptions, will attend the funeral of Mr. Lamar Justice Field, who is in feeble health, and perhaps some of the other justices will remain here, but a majority of the court will make the trip.

The senate adjourned as a mark of respect to the late Associate Justice Lamar.

The house refused to agree to a mo-tion to take up the sunary civil bill— the fight against it being made by the friends of the bankruptcy bill-and then, as a mark of respect to the mem-ory of the late Justice Lamar, the house adjourned.
