

ALLIANCE DIRECTORY

Nebraska Farmers' Alliance. J. H. POWERS, President, Cornhill. W. A. FOSTER, Vice-Pres., Abell.

In the beauty of the hills Christ was born across the sea, With a glory in his bosom.

This department will be under the direction of J. M. Thompson, state secretary. Short items from Alliances on matters of general interest, questions when disputes have arisen, and any news bearing upon the great work of our organization will be welcomed by the editor.

We would be glad to get items from every county in the state on condition of the Alliance work.

The Burning of the Corn.

BY MARY HAIRD VINCH. Light of our lives that come to adorn Our day's, the children planting corn.

Have you seen the brown, homes built of sod Whose path was the spire of Golden Rod?

What was the 'plains of the prairie hay, When rent from the plain that summer day?

The shining straw with its flute-like stems Rang low its pleading requiems:

The humble cobb with a lowly rhyme Told of the maze of an early time:

With laugh and shout, all rules to scorn Planting the trees and fields of corn.

Oh! pioneers have ye felt the thorn That follows the wake of the wasted corn?

Like the Paper. WINSIDE, Neb., Jan. 30, 1893.

DEAR SIR:—Your paper gets better and better. Your last issue was a stunner.

Additional announcements will be made next week, including meetings in Jefferson, Gage, Pawnee, Richardson, Nemaha, Johnson, Otoe and Lancaster counties.

For Sale. LORD LAMBERT English Hackney stallion, winner of first prize at Lincoln state fair 1890, and Imported Shire Stallion STONEHENGE, now owned by the Greenwood Horse Co., Greenwood, Nebraska.

State Lecture's Meetings. Bro. Fairchild, State Lecturer, will hold meetings in the following counties at places named. It is expected that all who can will attend, and cooperate with the proper parties to make every meeting a successful one.

Looking Glass " 8th, 7 p. m. Columbus, " 9th, Seaward, " 10th, Beaver Crossing " 11th, Fairmont, " 13th, Geneva, " 14th, Hebron, " 15th.

THE GRIST ALREADY GROUND: A List of Bills that Have Gone Through Either House of the Present Legislature.

The following is an accurate description of every bill passed by either house of the legislature up to Feb. 7. It shows that the house is at work, and is passing nothing but good bills.

HOUSE PASSED BY THE HOUSE. House Roll No. 2, by Church Howe; An act to prohibit the undervaluation of property by assessors and the state board of equalization.

HOUSE PASSED BY THE SENATE. Senate File No. 3, by Mr. Eggleston, (Rep.) To provide for the appointment of assistants to the county attorneys.

ANOTHER BANK WRECKED. By Thieving Officers. Government Supervision fails to Protect Depositors.

LITTLE ROCK, ARK., Feb. 4.—Bank examiner J. W. Gilbraith, who was ordered by the controller to take charge of the First National bank, arrived yesterday.

Additional announcements will be made next week, including meetings in Jefferson, Gage, Pawnee, Richardson, Nemaha, Johnson, Otoe and Lancaster counties.

For Sale. LORD LAMBERT English Hackney stallion, winner of first prize at Lincoln state fair 1890, and Imported Shire Stallion STONEHENGE, now owned by the Greenwood Horse Co., Greenwood, Nebraska.

State Lecture's Meetings. Bro. Fairchild, State Lecturer, will hold meetings in the following counties at places named. It is expected that all who can will attend, and cooperate with the proper parties to make every meeting a successful one.

Looking Glass " 8th, 7 p. m. Columbus, " 9th, Seaward, " 10th, Beaver Crossing " 11th, Fairmont, " 13th, Geneva, " 14th, Hebron, " 15th.

Additional announcements will be made next week, including meetings in Jefferson, Gage, Pawnee, Richardson, Nemaha, Johnson, Otoe and Lancaster counties.

For Sale. LORD LAMBERT English Hackney stallion, winner of first prize at Lincoln state fair 1890, and Imported Shire Stallion STONEHENGE, now owned by the Greenwood Horse Co., Greenwood, Nebraska.

State Lecture's Meetings. Bro. Fairchild, State Lecturer, will hold meetings in the following counties at places named. It is expected that all who can will attend, and cooperate with the proper parties to make every meeting a successful one.

Looking Glass " 8th, 7 p. m. Columbus, " 9th, Seaward, " 10th, Beaver Crossing " 11th, Fairmont, " 13th, Geneva, " 14th, Hebron, " 15th.

Additional announcements will be made next week, including meetings in Jefferson, Gage, Pawnee, Richardson, Nemaha, Johnson, Otoe and Lancaster counties.

For Sale. LORD LAMBERT English Hackney stallion, winner of first prize at Lincoln state fair 1890, and Imported Shire Stallion STONEHENGE, now owned by the Greenwood Horse Co., Greenwood, Nebraska.

State Lecture's Meetings. Bro. Fairchild, State Lecturer, will hold meetings in the following counties at places named. It is expected that all who can will attend, and cooperate with the proper parties to make every meeting a successful one.

Looking Glass " 8th, 7 p. m. Columbus, " 9th, Seaward, " 10th, Beaver Crossing " 11th, Fairmont, " 13th, Geneva, " 14th, Hebron, " 15th.

Additional announcements will be made next week, including meetings in Jefferson, Gage, Pawnee, Richardson, Nemaha, Johnson, Otoe and Lancaster counties.

MOSHER SET FREE

The Man Who Stole Over a Quarter of a Million, Gets Out on a Bond of $10,000.

HE WANTS TO ESCAPE THE PEN. Rich Friends Propose to Put up Large Sums of Money if He is Let Off with a Fine Only.

MOSHER SET FREE. At 10 o'clock a. m. Feb. 2, C. W. Mosher, the man indicted for wrecking the Capital National bank by a long succession of criminal acts, a confessed defaulter to the extent of a quarter of a million, was turned loose on a bail of $10,000.

CHARGES AGAINST MOSHER. The United States grand jury returned indictments against C. W. Mosher covering seventy-five pages of type-written matter. The first charge is manipulating the accounts of the bank.

December 23, 1889, the books show that J. E. Hill deposited $100. Hill's certificate was for $50,000.

Other entries made in the same way were: J. E. Hill $100 for $40,000, Dec. 19, 1890; C. Hammond, $100 for $5,000, June 1, 1891; A. T. Hibbs, $300 for $5,000; June 10, 1891, C. S. Wessie $100 for $5,100; June 27, 1891, J. E. Hill, $795 for $37,795; August 5, 1891, $50 for $5,000; August 17, 1891, $100 for $50,000; Nov. 18, 1891, $100 for $38,114.75; December 22, 1891, Hattie E. Carson, $100 for $1,000; October 3, 1891, D. B. Welton, $100 for $1,000; November 28, 1891, Mayer Bros., $1,000 for $11,000; January 2, 1892, and the LaSalle National bank, $3,000 for $5,000; November 3, 1893, and the same on November 7, 1892, $3,000 for $5,090.

Another class of criminals acts committed by Mosher was as follows: He would mark "paid" notes due the bank that were never paid. In a good many cases these notes were payable by particular "chums" of Mosher's. Whether he collected such notes and pocketed the money, or allowed his friends to escape payment is not known. As instances the following are cited:

Thirteen of the Western Manufacturing company, aggregating $2,500; one each of J. V. Chandler & Son for 2,000; F. C. Scales, 500; F. W. & O. H. Hohmann, 1,000; Adams & Davidson, 1,408.65; Camp Bros., 300; W. H. Dorgan, 4,500; Stull Bros., 5,000; Exchange bank of Cortland, 4,000; Benton & Harvey, 3,000; South State and Lumber company, 5,000; William Prohn, 1,500; C. H. Meeker and R. O. Phillips, 2,000; F. S. Johnson & Co., 5,000; A. J. Vennum, 1,000; Gran Esquign, 700; Chicago Lumber company, 2,000; W. R. Dennis, Tyson & Reach and Reach, one for each for 1,000.

There is another class of charges to the effect that he manipulated the books so as to show that the bank had a larger balance than it really had.

A balance in one bank of 3,083.75 is made 33,683.75; one of 7,344.52 is made 37,344.52.

One charge is that the books were falsified to show the rediscouints of the bank to be 7,032.16, when they were in fact 32,686.87.

Other counts charge that on January 6, 1893, Mosher issued a fraudulent certificate of deposit to J. E. Hill for 150,000.

TRYING TO BRIBE THE PEOPLE. Mosher's rich relatives are now engaged in an attempt to purchase for him immunity from punishment except by fine. The following from the evening News will show their mode of procedure:

The statement made in last evening's News to the effect that Mosher's relatives are coming to his rescue with abundant finances is being verified today, but the true significance of the movement could not be realized from the meagre particulars obtainable yesterday. There was a petition in circulation today addressed to District Attorney Ben Baker, asking that Mosher's punishment be in the form of a fine instead of imprisonment, with the conditions attached that he first put up $150,000 to meet his indebtedness to the bank and $40,000 with which to at once take up the claims of small depositors and the more needy people among the bank's patrons.

This petition is being circulated among the bank's depositors and up to this morning had been signed by quite a number of the heavier depositors. Among them was County Treasurer Burnham, who signed $38,000 worth, and City Treasurer Stephenson $21,000 worth. C. Hammond was also down for "not less than $14,000."

The $40,000 provision in the accompanying condition, in behalf of small depositors, is designed to catch the signatures of small depositors. The design of the entire proceeding is to secure the aid and counsel that Mosher could give in straightening out the tangled affairs of the bank. It is reported that no man is so expert in the science of bookkeeping as to unravel the knots that Mosher has tied in the bank's record. It is related that a few days since in his room he expressed considerable anxiety to have the bank's records straightened out.

"That will be all right," suggested a friend. "The bank examiner is at work on them and will soon straighten them out."

"O h—l," was the reply, "I fixed them so no man could straighten them out in five years."

It is now known that Mosher's sister-in-law, the wife of the wealthy liquor man of Peoria, Ill., was in Lincoln last Sunday with the funds with which to meet Mosher's obligations, and was ready to meet them upon condition that he be not prosecuted criminally, and the movement now in progress is undoubtedly in pursuance of the conditions she imposed. The ready funds necessary came from the Mansfields of Peoria, Ill., Mrs. Mosher's relatives.

MOSHER SET FREE

The Man Who Stole Over a Quarter of a Million, Gets Out on a Bond of $10,000.

HE WANTS TO ESCAPE THE PEN. Rich Friends Propose to Put up Large Sums of Money if He is Let Off with a Fine Only.

MOSHER SET FREE. At 10 o'clock a. m. Feb. 2, C. W. Mosher, the man indicted for wrecking the Capital National bank by a long succession of criminal acts, a confessed defaulter to the extent of a quarter of a million, was turned loose on a bail of $10,000.

CHARGES AGAINST MOSHER. The United States grand jury returned indictments against C. W. Mosher covering seventy-five pages of type-written matter. The first charge is manipulating the accounts of the bank.

December 23, 1889, the books show that J. E. Hill deposited $100. Hill's certificate was for $50,000.

Other entries made in the same way were: J. E. Hill $100 for $40,000, Dec. 19, 1890; C. Hammond, $100 for $5,000, June 1, 1891; A. T. Hibbs, $300 for $5,000; June 10, 1891, C. S. Wessie $100 for $5,100; June 27, 1891, J. E. Hill, $795 for $37,795; August 5, 1891, $50 for $5,000; August 17, 1891, $100 for $50,000; Nov. 18, 1891, $100 for $38,114.75; December 22, 1891, Hattie E. Carson, $100 for $1,000; October 3, 1891, D. B. Welton, $100 for $1,000; November 28, 1891, Mayer Bros., $1,000 for $11,000; January 2, 1892, and the LaSalle National bank, $3,000 for $5,000; November 3, 1893, and the same on November 7, 1892, $3,000 for $5,090.

Another class of criminals acts committed by Mosher was as follows: He would mark "paid" notes due the bank that were never paid. In a good many cases these notes were payable by particular "chums" of Mosher's. Whether he collected such notes and pocketed the money, or allowed his friends to escape payment is not known. As instances the following are cited:

Thirteen of the Western Manufacturing company, aggregating $2,500; one each of J. V. Chandler & Son for 2,000; F. C. Scales, 500; F. W. & O. H. Hohmann, 1,000; Adams & Davidson, 1,408.65; Camp Bros., 300; W. H. Dorgan, 4,500; Stull Bros., 5,000; Exchange bank of Cortland, 4,000; Benton & Harvey, 3,000; South State and Lumber company, 5,000; William Prohn, 1,500; C. H. Meeker and R. O. Phillips, 2,000; F. S. Johnson & Co., 5,000; A. J. Vennum, 1,000; Gran Esquign, 700; Chicago Lumber company, 2,000; W. R. Dennis, Tyson & Reach and Reach, one for each for 1,000.

There is another class of charges to the effect that he manipulated the books so as to show that the bank had a larger balance than it really had.

A balance in one bank of 3,083.75 is made 33,683.75; one of 7,344.52 is made 37,344.52.

One charge is that the books were falsified to show the rediscouints of the bank to be 7,032.16, when they were in fact 32,686.87.

Other counts charge that on January 6, 1893, Mosher issued a fraudulent certificate of deposit to J. E. Hill for 150,000.

TRYING TO BRIBE THE PEOPLE. Mosher's rich relatives are now engaged in an attempt to purchase for him immunity from punishment except by fine. The following from the evening News will show their mode of procedure:

The statement made in last evening's News to the effect that Mosher's relatives are coming to his rescue with abundant finances is being verified today, but the true significance of the movement could not be realized from the meagre particulars obtainable yesterday. There was a petition in circulation today addressed to District Attorney Ben Baker, asking that Mosher's punishment be in the form of a fine instead of imprisonment, with the conditions attached that he first put up $150,000 to meet his indebtedness to the bank and $40,000 with which to at once take up the claims of small depositors and the more needy people among the bank's patrons.

This petition is being circulated among the bank's depositors and up to this morning had been signed by quite a number of the heavier depositors. Among them was County Treasurer Burnham, who signed $38,000 worth, and City Treasurer Stephenson $21,000 worth. C. Hammond was also down for "not less than $14,000."

The $40,000 provision in the accompanying condition, in behalf of small depositors, is designed to catch the signatures of small depositors. The design of the entire proceeding is to secure the aid and counsel that Mosher could give in straightening out the tangled affairs of the bank. It is reported that no man is so expert in the science of bookkeeping as to unravel the knots that Mosher has tied in the bank's record. It is related that a few days since in his room he expressed considerable anxiety to have the bank's records straightened out.

"That will be all right," suggested a friend. "The bank examiner is at work on them and will soon straighten them out."

"O h—l," was the reply, "I fixed them so no man could straighten them out in five years."

It is now known that Mosher's sister-in-law, the wife of the wealthy liquor man of Peoria, Ill., was in Lincoln last Sunday with the funds with which to meet Mosher's obligations, and was ready to meet them upon condition that he be not prosecuted criminally, and the movement now in progress is undoubtedly in pursuance of the conditions she imposed. The ready funds necessary came from the Mansfields of Peoria, Ill., Mrs. Mosher's relatives.

MOSHER SET FREE

The Man Who Stole Over a Quarter of a Million, Gets Out on a Bond of $10,000.

HE WANTS TO ESCAPE THE PEN. Rich Friends Propose to Put up Large Sums of Money if He is Let Off with a Fine Only.

MOSHER SET FREE. At 10 o'clock a. m. Feb. 2, C. W. Mosher, the man indicted for wrecking the Capital National bank by a long succession of criminal acts, a confessed defaulter to the extent of a quarter of a million, was turned loose on a bail of $10,000.

CHARGES AGAINST MOSHER. The United States grand jury returned indictments against C. W. Mosher covering seventy-five pages of type-written matter. The first charge is manipulating the accounts of the bank.

December 23, 1889, the books show that J. E. Hill deposited $100. Hill's certificate was for $50,000.

Other entries made in the same way were: J. E. Hill $100 for $40,000, Dec. 19, 1890; C. Hammond, $100 for $5,000, June 1, 1891; A. T. Hibbs, $300 for $5,000; June 10, 1891, C. S. Wessie $100 for $5,100; June 27, 1891, J. E. Hill, $795 for $37,795; August 5, 1891, $50 for $5,000; August 17, 1891, $100 for $50,000; Nov. 18, 1891, $100 for $38,114.75; December 22, 1891, Hattie E. Carson, $100 for $1,000; October 3, 1891, D. B. Welton, $100 for $1,000; November 28, 1891, Mayer Bros., $1,000 for $11,000; January 2, 1892, and the LaSalle National bank, $3,000 for $5,000; November 3, 1893, and the same on November 7, 1892, $3,000 for $5,090.

Another class of criminals acts committed by Mosher was as follows: He would mark "paid" notes due the bank that were never paid. In a good many cases these notes were payable by particular "chums" of Mosher's. Whether he collected such notes and pocketed the money, or allowed his friends to escape payment is not known. As instances the following are cited:

Thirteen of the Western Manufacturing company, aggregating $2,500; one each of J. V. Chandler & Son for 2,000; F. C. Scales, 500; F. W. & O. H. Hohmann, 1,000; Adams & Davidson, 1,408.65; Camp Bros., 300; W. H. Dorgan, 4,500; Stull Bros., 5,000; Exchange bank of Cortland, 4,000; Benton & Harvey, 3,000; South State and Lumber company, 5,000; William Prohn, 1,500; C. H. Meeker and R. O. Phillips, 2,000; F. S. Johnson & Co., 5,000; A. J. Vennum, 1,000; Gran Esquign, 700; Chicago Lumber company, 2,000; W. R. Dennis, Tyson & Reach and Reach, one for each for 1,000.

There is another class of charges to the effect that he manipulated the books so as to show that the bank had a larger balance than it really had.

A balance in one bank of 3,083.75 is made 33,683.75; one of 7,344.52 is made 37,344.52.

One charge is that the books were falsified to show the rediscouints of the bank to be 7,032.16, when they were in fact 32,686.87.

Other counts charge that on January 6, 1893, Mosher issued a fraudulent certificate of deposit to J. E. Hill for 150,000.

TRYING TO BRIBE THE PEOPLE. Mosher's rich relatives are now engaged in an attempt to purchase for him immunity from punishment except by fine. The following from the evening News will show their mode of procedure:

The statement made in last evening's News to the effect that Mosher's relatives are coming to his rescue with abundant finances is being verified today, but the true significance of the movement could not be realized from the meagre particulars obtainable yesterday. There was a petition in circulation today addressed to District Attorney Ben Baker, asking that Mosher's punishment be in the form of a fine instead of imprisonment, with the conditions attached that he first put up $150,000 to meet his indebtedness to the bank and $40,000 with which to at once take up the claims of small depositors and the more needy people among the bank's patrons.

This petition is being circulated among the bank's depositors and up to this morning had been signed by quite a number of the heavier depositors. Among them was County Treasurer Burnham, who signed $38,000 worth, and City Treasurer Stephenson $21,000 worth. C. Hammond was also down for "not less than $14,000."

The $40,000 provision in the accompanying condition, in behalf of small depositors, is designed to catch the signatures of small depositors. The design of the entire proceeding is to secure the aid and counsel that Mosher could give in straightening out the tangled affairs of the bank. It is reported that no man is so expert in the science of bookkeeping as to unravel the knots that Mosher has tied in the bank's record. It is related that a few days since in his room he expressed considerable anxiety to have the bank's records straightened out.

"That will be all right," suggested a friend. "The bank examiner is at work on them and will soon straighten them out."

"O h—l," was the reply, "I fixed them so no man could straighten them out in five years."

It is now known that Mosher's sister-in-law, the wife of the wealthy liquor man of Peoria, Ill., was in Lincoln last Sunday with the funds with which to meet Mosher's obligations, and was ready to meet them upon condition that he be not prosecuted criminally, and the movement now in progress is undoubtedly in pursuance of the conditions she imposed. The ready funds necessary came from the Mansfields of Peoria, Ill., Mrs. Mosher's relatives.

GROUND :: OIL :: CAKE

IS NOW used by all the principal feeders of stock, and is better appreciated as its merits become known. It is used for stock of all kinds and you cannot afford to feed stock for market without it. There is nothing that assists so much in fattening as THIS MEAL, and you have only to use it to be convinced. ONE POUND IS EQUAL TO 3-lbs. OF CORN. Put up in bags of 100 lbs. each. Price, $1.40 per 100 lbs., or $24.00 per ton. If your dealer does not keep it, send us draft or money order and we will ship promptly.

Woodman Linseed Oil Works, Omaha.

Dr. C. Gee Wo the famous Chicago physician of Omaha has over 1000 patients who have been cured by his medicine. One of the most successful physicians in Omaha today is Dr. C. Gee Wo who for the past two years has been doing more good for suffering humanity than any other specialist in the country.

DR. C. GEE WO. 519 1/2 N. 10th St. Omaha.

Advertisement for Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People, featuring an illustration of the product box and text describing its benefits for nerves and blood.

Pure Seed Corn FOR SALE. Carefully harvested and cured expressly for planting: "Legal Tender," "Early Mastodon" and "Cuban Queen" yellow dents; "Smith's Early Mammoth" white dent; "Stowell's" "Black Genes," "Mammoth," "Gold Coin," "Ever Mexican" and "Ruby" sugar corns; "Queen's Golden," "Mapleleaf Prolific," "White Pearl," "White Rice," "Little Dandy," "Little Daisy" and "Ruby" pop corn in large or small quantities. For prices write

ROBERT W. FURNAS, Brownville, Neb.

SWEET POTATOES sent out to be sprouted on shares. No experience required. Directions for sprouting free. T. J. SKINNER, Columbus, Kan.

BLOOMINGTON (PHENIX) NURSERY. 600 ACRES, 13 GREENHOUSES. TREES AND PLANTS. We offer a fine and large stock of every description of FRUIT AND ORNAMENTAL TREES, Shrubs, Roses, Vines, Small FRUITS, Hedge Plants, FRUIT AND FOREST TREE SEEDLINGS. Prices Catalogue mailed free. Established 1870. THE PHENIX NURSERY COMPANY Successors to SIDNEY TUTTLE & Co., Bloomington, Illinois. 337

EVERGREENS FOREST TREES. For Wind breaks, Ornamentals, etc. Hardest varieties. Nursery Ground Scotch Pines, 2 to 3 feet $10 per 100 Scotch and Austrian Pine seedlings, 12 to 15 inches, $10 per 100. Other sizes and varieties in proportion. Over 10 million for sale. Good Local Agents Wanted. D. HILL, Evergreen Specialist, Dundee, Ill. Catalogue Free. Send for it.

MRS. Z. S. BRANSON, Breeder of choicest strains of Plymouth Rock, Light Brahma Chickens and Mammoth Bronze Turkeys. They are pure and fine. Mrs. Z. S. BRANSON, Waverly, Neb.

MONEY MONOPOLY (1st Edition of 5,000 all sold.) NEW EDITION—ENLARGED. 190 Pages Heavy Paper, Now Ready. Price, paper 25c; cloth $1.00. Address THE ALLIANCE PUB. CO., Lincoln, Neb.

DOGGS Of every description, Newfoundland, Mastiffs, St. Bernards, Greyhounds, Bull, Fox, Skye and Scotch Terriers, Collies, Pugs, Spaniels, Beagles, Foxhounds, Setters and Pointers; also Perrels, Maltese Cats, jet animals, fancy pigeons, poultry. Send stamp for price list. Live Foxes wanted. Herman Roesech, 215 Market St. St. Louis.

KANSAS : HOME : NURSERY. Choice Fruit and Ornamental Trees. Tried Standard and New Small Fruits. The Kansas Raspberry a blackberry for the million. Write for reduced prices. A. B. GRIFFIN, Box J, Lawrence, Kas.

Farmers of the West! SAVE THE FREIGHT AND DEALERS PROFITS WALL PAPER. PAPER at Retail and Wholesale Prices. Paper for up, Borders etc. and up. Send for samples of the most beautiful designs ever offered in the west. Set walls, ceiling and border to match. Our shipping facilities are unequalled. We simply save you the freight from Chicago. Ed. Monroe, Hastings, Neb.

SEEDS Garden Flower Field. Seed Potatoes, Fruit Trees, Plants and Vines of Old & New Varieties. OUR NEW CATALOGUE is a common sense book for common sense people. A plain talk about the best seeds, etc., and honest prices. Every planter should see it at once. Sent Free. FRANK FORD & SON, Havana, O.

A CALL TO ACTION. GEN. JAS. B. WEAVER Has written under the above title The Book of the Century. The grandest reform book now in print. Every thinking voter should read it. Price, $1.50. For sale at this office. 471f Send for our complete book list.

Nebraska Savings Bank 13 and O St., Lincoln. Capital $250,000. GIVES ABSOLUTE SECURITY. Write Us and We will Prove it. Five per cent interest on savings accounts. Special rates on time deposits. Write us or call for next vest pocket memorandum book. J. G. SEWTERICK, President. E. S. TROLEY, Cashier.

Wire Picket Fence Machine. Lowden's Perfection. Best Field fence machine in the U. S. Mostly Malleable Iron. Every farmer his own fence builder. Cost from 30 cents a rod. Write for illustrated catalogue to L. C. LOWDEN, Indianapolis, Ind.

SEED CORN For $1.25 per bushel—Yellow Dent (extra early) and Early Mastodon—three of the largest and best early varieties of seed corn in the world. Write for catalogue to J. A. RATEKIN, Shenandoah, Pa. Co., Iowa.

SHENANDOAH NURSERY. Immense Stock of FRUIT AND ORNAMENTAL TREES, APPLE GRAFTS AND SEEDLINGS, ORANGE ORANGE PLANTS. Address, D. S. LAKE, Shenandoah, Ia.

Cancers Cured. I will pay liberally for the names and addresses of persons suffering from cancer. Guarantee a permanent cure or no charge. No matter if case has been given up by others, write me at once. Physicians supplied with remedy at liberal discount. Full remedy and instructions for self-treatment, $20. J. H. HARRIS, Eutaw, Green Co., Ala.

LAND EXCURSION To Northern Kansas. Splendid body of farming land in Northern Kansas, $6.00 to $8.00 per acre, only $1.00 cash balance or before 10 years 7 per cent. per acre. Excursion starts Feb. 14th and March 7th at 4:15 p. m. All purchasers of 160 acres will be given half fare. Write to J. A. Lovgren, 507 Brown Block, Omaha.

LIDLAW BALE-TIE CO. MANUFACTURERS OF ADJUSTABLE WIRE BALE-TIES. Headquarters for this Class of Goods. WRITE FOR PRICES. Station A, Kansas City, Mo.

THE BOSS SPRAYER. For spraying fruit trees and vines. Send for catalogue and price list to CURTIS & HUBBELL, 1565 So. 26th St., Lincoln, Neb.

JANSEN NURSERY. Nursery Grown Ash 65c per 1000. Ash and Box Elder larger $1.10 per 1000. Fruit Trees, Grape Vines, Small Fruits and Evergreens, Orange and Honey Locust Hedges. Every Tree, Vine and Shrub a Bargain. Satisfaction guaranteed. Send for price list. Address Jansen Nursery or C. B. CALBERT, Jefferson County, Jansen, Nebraska.

SEEDS O WARRANTED. O Best in the World. By mail, postage paid, 1 cent a package and up. Grand lot of EXTRAS given with every order. Prettiest and only FREE Catalogue in the world with pictures of all varieties. Send yours and neighbors' address. R. H. SHUM