Madison Co. Alliance Resolutions. MADISON, Neb., April 5, 1893. Editor ALLIANCE-INDEPENDENT: At a regular meeting of Madison County Alliance held at Battle Creek April 1, 1893, the following resolutions were adopted:

Whereas, It has come to our knowledge that certain dealers in implements, seeds, binding twine, etc., in Madison county Nebraska, namely: Horst Bros., Herman Fricke, W. Gilg, P. A. Clarke, all of Madison Nebraska, and H. L. Bruggeman and G. W. Box, of Norfolk, Nebraska, have joined an organization known as the Nebraska Implement Association.

Resolved, That we heartily endorse the present management of THE ALLIANCE-INDEPENDENT, and pledge to it our earnest support. EDWARD LASH, J. D. STONE, Sec'y.

Resolved, That we condemn the action of Messrs Burrows and Thompson who having once owned and controlled our party organ, and having sold the same, have now started another paper, which if honestly intended to promote the up-building of the party and principles, is of very doubtful propriety, and is further faithful support and bold defense of the independent state ticket, and candidates for congress. Resolved, That we approve its wise counsel given to the members of our legislature in their election of a United States senator.

Resolved, That we do not endorse the action of J. Burrows and J. M. Thompson, in starting another state paper and trying to wreck the ALLIANCE-INDEPENDENT. Be it further Resolved, That we firmly believe it to be the intention of J. Burrows to either rule or ruin, and that he has started the Alliance Leader for no other purpose than to cause dissension in our party.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the ALLIANCE-INDEPENDENT of Lincoln, and to the Cherry County Independent.

Resolved, That we commend the action of our state representatives and senators of the independent party, and all others acting with them in their course in electing a United States senator, and in their efforts to secure just railway legislation for all classes; and we further endorse the action of all members of the legislature who are making an effort to expose the fraud and theft existing in the management of our state institutions.

Resolved, That we deplore the existence of the unfriendly feeling between the publishers of THE ALLIANCE-INDEPENDENT and the Alliance Leader, and between men who have been recognized leaders of the alliance movement in the past apparently growing out of personal causes, and we earnestly recommend that all consideration of a purely personal character be set aside in the spirit of true alliance brotherhood and in accordance with the declaration of purposes of our order.

Resolved, That a copy of the resolutions be sent to the independent papers of Clay County and state for publication.

This is the romantic name of Lincoln's most beautiful college suburb. It is the site of the great Western Normal. No person who thinks of buying a lot in Lincoln or one of its suburbs should purchase until he has looked at Hawthorne property. The location is very healthful as well as beautiful. It is much nearer the center of the city than any of the other suburbs.

Resolved, That we deplore the existence of the unfriendly feeling between the publishers of THE ALLIANCE-INDEPENDENT and the Alliance Leader, and between men who have been recognized leaders of the alliance movement in the past apparently growing out of personal causes, and we earnestly recommend that all consideration of a purely personal character be set aside in the spirit of true alliance brotherhood and in accordance with the declaration of purposes of our order.
