

ANOTHER WAIL OF ALARM.

Georgia Sliding Steadily and Surely into the People's Party.

The Atlanta Constitution in a double leader, once more warns the administration that something must be done; that the democratic party in Georgia is going to pieces and the ship sinking in political chaos.

Unless something is done soon to permit a definite understanding of the issues on which the democratic administration proposes to have the party stand before the people the party in this section will suffer more by inaction in the next few months than can be repaired by all the activity and enthusiasm that can be gotten up during the next year's campaign.

As a democratic newspaper which stands flat-footed on the Chicago platform on which the party won, and which as a supporter and defender of democratic principles is not less earnest than any newspaper in America, we insist, in the name and for the sake of the party, that something be done to give the people to understand that the democratic platform is to be redeemed, whether Wall street and the protected trusts of New England favor such action or not.

For God's sake do something! The serious consequences of inaction are manifesting themselves in Georgia. Day before yesterday the fifth county to act in the last few weeks chose a third party collector. We refer to Rockdale county which on Tuesday, filled the vacancy caused by the death of the late democratic incumbent.

Let the administration speak on the tariff. Let it start the work of reform without further delay! Let it reduce the tariff strictly to a revenue basis as promised by the party! Let it repeal the tax on state banks, giving the people that for which they have asked—state banks, pure and simple, whereby they can get the benefit of a currency that cannot be congested in the money centers, out of the reach of the people at the very time when it is most needed!

Industries and American labor against English industries and English laborers, or of our going apart. We have come to speak for any day but myself and my constituents, but I believe that I can speak for the masses of the great Mississippi valley when I say that we will not submit to the domination of any political party (however much we love democracy) if it lays its sacrificial hand upon silver and wounds it in this country. I will not support any such party here or elsewhere, but will announce it as un-democratic and un-American, and the democratic engaged in it will ask the people of the country to condone agents and tools—no, I will withdraw these epithets—as the representatives of the masses of the people. You cannot hold a democratic party together on that line.

Resolutions of Vindication. The following resolution was unanimously adopted by the County Central Committee, at Rushville, Nebraska, on September 23th, 1893.

Whereas, On the 8th day of September, 1893, one L. P. Cummins, resident of this county, wrote a certain communication which was published in the Blair Republican, and afterwards in other papers in the state, in which he cast reflections upon the standing, in this county, of Hon. E. L. Heath, as an independent as a candidate of the People's Party for Regent of the State University; also upon H. J. D. Woods, who assisted in securing Mr. Heath's nomination. Now therefore, be it

Resolved, By the County Central Committee of the People's Party now in session, that the imputations and insinuations contained in said communication are wholly untrue and are without any foundation whatever. That a long personal acquaintance with both of the above named gentlemen, convinces us that they both enjoy the undivided confidence of the People's Party in this county, and we condemn the writer of said communication for publishing such an exhibition of his personal spite, caused solely from his political disappointment.

REPUBLICANS AND DEMOCRATS.

(Composed and sung by W. A. Howard, the People's Party National singer.)

There is a stir throughout the land. A lot of farmers, Oh! what a band Their numbers are no longer few. Some call them fools and crazy too. But will you tell us what you'll do, Republicans and Democrats?

You had the power long years ago To stop this tide of wrong and woe. But to our cause you've been untrue. When now to late, alas you'll rue. And cry out now what shall you do, Republicans and Democrats?

Three years ago, without excuse, You heaped on us untold abuse. When we elected Honest John. By force and fraud you held him down. But don't you see we're still in town. Republicans and Democrats?

There is a party, bless the Lord. The people's, brave in deed and word. Come swell our ranks and join our band. And then with ballots in our hand We'll save our homes and native land. Republicans and Democrats.

THE GREENBACK DOLLAR

(Words and music by W. A. Howard.) The tollers have received their minds. To have a revolution and make "perpetual money" soon a standing institution. We'll make the greenback crisp and new. A lasting legal tender. Our simple votes can do it boys. For what is there to hinder.

When our bonds shall all be paid In lawful Greenback money. Our country now impoverished. Will flow with milk and honey. Then proud will feel each workman. If he has done his duty. And helped to crush the "Bulls" and "Beas" Who care for naught but booty.

But brothers we can never succeed, Unless we are firm united. With hearts and hands securely joined. To keep the faith we're pledged. Our mighty work is just begun. We must not flinch or falter. Each patriot soul must lay his all Upon his country's altar.

Populist Vote-Making in Texas.

We reprint the following advertisement just to show how the populists are making votes in Texas:

"Arrangements are now complete for holding a people's party camp meeting at Abilene, Taylor county, Texas, Sept. 26, 27, 28 and 29. A large number of beehives have been secured and all campers will be furnished free with meat during the four days the meeting will continue. Also with wood and water. The following well known speakers have definitely agreed to be present: H. S. P. Ashby, chairman P. P. state executive committee, and Thomas Galvins, secretary of the committee; Harry Tracy of Dallas, Hon. Jerome Kearby, J. H. (Cyclone) Davis of Sulphur Springs, Evan Jones and J. J. Eager of Dublin, Dr. J. R. Barnett of Big Springs, Prof. R. B. Allen and H. F. Jones of Brownwood, J. W. Blair of Jones county, and several others.

We believe no such opportunity was ever before given the people of west Texas to hear a full and fair discussion of all the pressing political issues now occupying public attention. Not only populists, but democrats and republicans, are cordially invited to attend the meeting, and the assurance is now given that no improper abuse will be indulged in of those who are not in political sympathy with the speakers.

For the general committee, J. S. BRADLEY, H. L. BENTLEY, J. B. WEBB. Abilene, Texas, Sept. 18, 1893.

E. L. Heath. Elver L. Heath, nominee for regent of the State Unive the independent ticket, was born near Cleveland Ohio, March 16th 1853. In the following June he moved with his parents into the wilderness about fifty miles west of Dubuque Iowa and lived there on a farm, until he was fifteen years old.

He attended the common schools of the neighborhood and at the age of fifteen he left home and entered the "Hamilton County Freeman" office as an apprentice to learn the printer's trade. He worked at his trade in different places until March 1876 when he began the publication of his first newspaper—"The Estex Index"—at Essex, Page County Iowa.

He sold out the "Index" the following December and moved to Shelby Iowa and established the "Shelby News." In 1880 he sold his interest in the "News" and moved to David City Nebraska and again embarked in the newspaper business by purchasing the David City Republican which he continued to publish until the fall of 1884 when he sold out there and moved to Sheridan county, Nebraska.

He then filed on a half section of government land, near Rushville the county seat of Sheridan county which he still owns and where he now resides. Mr. Heath bought the Rushville Standard in 1886 and continued to publish it as a republican newspaper until the spring of 1890 when the politics of the paper was changed, and since that time he has preached the doctrine of the independent party.

Mr. Heath was elected to the legislature from the 53rd representative district by the republican party in 1890 and served in the session of 1891, and while there voted with the independents on almost every measure that came before the House.

Mr. Heath's sympathies have always been with the "Common People" and when the republican party had so often repudiated its platform and betrayed
