But no one has any strings on Fred Schmidt, and if elected as he ought to be, and we think will be every interest of the county will be protected. Mr. Schmidt is not running as a party man, but at the urgent request of many Republicans, as well as Populists and Democrats. He is one of the oldest and best known business men of Lincoln, and if elected county treasurer no one will have any fears of any old bad habits coming back on him. Vote for Schmidt.

For sheriff the choice is between Alvy Smith, the Republican nominee, or Fred Miller the Independent candidate and also nominated afterwards by the Democrats.

If you want a good clean sheriff man who could not be hired to pack jury in anybody's interest—a man stands above reproach, a man is times duly sober—a man who make the best sheriff Lancaster ever had, vote for Fred Miller.

One of the most important offices of the tax payers of the county is the Commissioner. The race is between Chas. Miller the Republican and I. W. Chappell the Independent also endorsed by the Democrats. Republicans are trying the strategy to make votes for Miller, a physical wreck, said to be suffering from rheumatism, and we will give benefit of all doubts, and yet he is not the proper man to fill so important a position. He is a young man with no property of his own and after or pay taxes upon. Mr. Chappell is a man of family; a class farmer owning his farm and herd of Holstein cattle, so he and in every respect a first class man and citizen. Vote for C. County Commissioner.

For county judge is the incumbent, Ike Lansing, and opponent, O. W. Cromwell. Mr. Lansing is well known and we say that he represents the element of his party, while Mr. Cromwell is his equal if not his superior as a lawyer, and is free from all doubts and will make a first class judge. Vote for O. W. Cromwell.

For register of deeds vote for Babcock. He is the best running on any ticket. A conscientious moral man, an efficient and accommodating.

For county superintendent R. Wightman is the equal in the county in respect of education has been his life better man for the position offered you for your suffrage.

For county clerk we offer the oldest and best known in the county in the person of Miller. His qualifications question. His character is beyond reproach. He is the candidate D. Wood, the Republican; he can write his name so that it can be read by any school boy, and to hire all the work of the county.

Dr. J. G. Cotter, our coroner is a good physician man in every respect, and elected.

In every city and village the unemployed, to the number of millions, are in need. They must go hungry and cold and desperately miserable, with no money to buy what you have to sell, and so the demand for your wheat and fat steers and hogs is greatly reduced, and prices are correspondingly lowered. What you have to sell doesn't go so far as it ought to in paying your debts, because of all this, and you are burdened with care and anxiety for the future. You in turn can't buy half what your family really needs for the winter; so those who otherwise would be kept at work to supply your needs must be turned out of employment, and the evil of injustice must spread through wider and wider circles. But who started it all? The bankers, who wanted the coinage of silver stopped so that their yellow god, the gold dollar, would have greater usury-drawing power. And the Republican and Democratic parties in Nebraska fell down in convention and

Mr. Wolfe intends ... make a public sale late in Dec. or in January, and reserves all his spring sows for his sale, but, as many will want their bears before that time he has concluded to offer them at private sale. He has now on hand about forty of the finest, he says, he ever raised, and they are certainly a choice lot of pigs. They are from ten different males, and from dams equally good. The veins of the whole herd are full of purple blood, from sires whose record in the show, and sale ring, have made them famous. Mr. Wolfe himself never takes a hog out of his county to show, believing that a pig fitted for the show ring is unfitted for the breeding hog. His hogs are in good healthy condition but not fat, with good bone and also and yet plenty of quality. It is unnecessary to say his customers will receive good treatment and an honest deal. Visit his yard or write for what you want. See his advertisement in another column.

Union College.

The largest denominational school in the west, supported by nine of the great trans-Mississippi states, having over 600 students and three large college buildings, with a common school of eight grades, so that scholars of all classes from the primary to the graduate are cared for. A $20,000.00 church building is among the improvements being put in this season. The tide of settlement has but just commenced from all over the vast territory supporting the school, and those who buy now during the development are sure of an advance in value. These lots are smooth and slightly, along the electric street railway, between the college buildings and the State House. This is your chance, look it up.
