OUR MINISTER COMPLAINS OF DISCOURTESY.

THE MATTER REFERRED TO CONGRESS

The Head of the Provisional Government Accused of Reflecting on the President of the United States.The Latest Hawalian Correspondence Transmitted to Congress by the President.

WASHINGTON, Jan, 22.—The president in a brief note transmitted to-day submitted to congress the latest correspondence relating to Hawaii. It comprises some brief notes from Minister Willis to Secretary Gresham which are unimportant, but the chief features of which are letters between Minister Willis and President Dole, in one of which the minister complained of an utterance of President Dole as reflecting on the president of the United States and a letter from President Dole in which he specifically inquired if Minister Willis's instructions authorized the use of force. Both these matters appear to have been settled by the receipt of the last message of the president to congress and the instructions of Secretary Gresham to Minister Willis.

The most important part of the correspondence consists of a long letter from Minister Willis to Secretary Gresham containing enclosures of the correspondence between President Dole and himself.

Letter No. 2014, dated January 5, to Secretary Gresham says: On Wodnesday, the 27th ult, at 12 a. m., the steamship Oceanio arrived with newspapers containing the president's special message in full, together with the instructions to Mr. Blount and myself, The message was reproduced in the afternoon papers ander conspicuous headlines.

At 4 o'clock the same day I received a four page, closely written letter, which I inclose, from Mr. Dole, minister of foreign affairs, asking to be informed "with the least delay whether you (I) held instructions to enforce your policy with the use of arms in any event.

The information desired, although fully embodied in the president's message, might have been asked for, and except for the remarkable statements contained in the letter, would have been promptly and satisfactorily

Confident that the charges so surprisingly and unjustly made could not sustained, an answer, herewith enclosed, was on the following (Thursday) morning, sent to Minister Dole, asking that they be made more direct and specific. y morning, 29th ult., I received a letter from Mr. Dole, herewith enclosed, saying: "The special message of the president has rendered any further correspondence on the subject of my letter of the 27th of December unnecessary, as the message satisfactorily answers the question. But," he added, "if you still desire the specifications requested, I will be ready to furnish them." The instructions to me from the president had been strictly followed, or if departed from at all it had been in favor of the beneficiaries of our wrong doing. I felt, therefore, that the statements contained in the letter of Mr. Dole of the 27th ultimo were directed, not to me personally, but at the president, and should be qualified or absolutely withdrawn. Believing from the high character and sense of justice of Mr. Dole that, if he re-examined his letter such would be the result, I wrote him a note which I enclose. This note was delivered at his residence on the evening of the same day (Friday, December 29,) upon which his second letter was received. Having no answer up to Sunday night, December 31, and having occasion to communicate with his collegue, Mr. Damon, upon another matter, I called his attention to the failure of Mr. Dole to reply to my note, which I ex. plained to him was written with no unfriendly purpose, but as by itself declared "for the best interests of all." He informed me that the "advisory council met the next day at

At 3 p. m. of that day, January 1, I received the letter from the Hon. S. B. Dole, herewith inclosed, in which he states: "It is not my intention to withdraw any of my letters." This, of course, left every charge and statement in full force as of that date. Believing that these charges, whether so intended or not, reflected very unjustly upon the president, whose agent I was, at 6 p. m. of the same day (Monday, January 1,) I replied in the in-closed letter that the "desired specifications be furnished at the earliest convenience." Up to this hour (Friday, January 5,) no reply has been received to this request nor have I any intimation when one may be expected. My request for specifications has been in the hands of minister of foreign affairs since Monday, January 1, at 6 o'clock. I had hoped to receive it in time to answer by steamer Peking, leaving to-day at 2 so'clock and especially as Mr. Thurston and Mr. Patch, late vice president of the provisional government, leave toorrow on the Australia for the United States, This delay in answering is a great surprise and regret.

noon and he thought the subject would then receive attention."

I am fully prepared to show that every step taken by the representa-tives of our government has been in the direction of peace and good order.

On the 13th of November, as is well known here, the greatest excitement prevailed in the executive building. nilitary forces were increased in numer and the volunteer companies were erdered on duty at night. The preparations were due, not to any fear of fr. Damon, minister of finance, called fileally to explain, resulted from a pprehensions of many citisens, nostly women and children, that as he following day was the birthday anniversary of King Kalakua large numbers of natives from the adjoining districts would be here and an outbreak might occur. Very respectfully, ALBERT S. WILLIS.

MR. DOLE'S NOTE. The note to Mr. Willis from President Dole, referred to above, was as follows: DEPARTMENT OF FOREIGN AFFAIRS, Honolulu, Dec. 27, 1893.—Sir: Pending the further action of the government of the United States upon the matters in the communication of December 19 and my reply to the same dated December 23, I desire to call your excellency's most serious con-sideration to the dangerous, critical condition of this community, arising, I must respectfully submit, out of the attitude which you have assumed and the language which you have used in public and in communications to this government, and also out of the pub-lished letter of the secretary of state of the United States and the president's letter on the subject of restoration of the monarchy. I do not, however, claim or intimate that this unfortunate situation has been intentionally created by you or by the government which you represent, but arises from a natural construction of your attitude and due to the ambiguous terms of the statements referred to.

Under these circumstances there arose at once a general feeling of disquiet. The natural inference from your attitude, language and refusal to disclose your purpose and from Mr. Gresham's letter and the president's message was, and is, that you intended to use force in maintaining your policy. The apprehensions of both political parties as well as persons who remain neutral in these matters is that you hold instructions to use physical force for the restoration of the monarchy. I am not prepared to state that this government entertains this opinion, although its want of information to the contrary has compelled it to act as if it were correct. Rumors of --- Intended landing of your forces for offensive purposes agitated the community for have many days. The situation for weeks has been one of warfare, without the incident of actual combat. Even the ex-queen has called upon this govern-ment for protection, which was awarded her. Owing to your atitude the public has been compelled by pub-lic apprehension to largly increase its military force at great expense; its offices have been placed and still continue in a condition of defense and preparation for siege and the commu-nity has been put into a state of mind bordering on terrorism.

The government has most earnestly sought from you and through our representatives at Washington from your government some assurance that force would not be used and has failed to obtain it.

Your action has unfortunately aroused the passions of all parties and it may be possible that disturbances may be created at any moment. I am informed by military authorities that, while the force at your command is sufficient to destroy this city, it is insufficient to suppress any general rising and conflict of armed forces and insurrections or to prevent the loss of life and property. This government is reluctant to believe that this condition of affairs was contemplated or expected by yourself or by the presi-dent of the United States,

I have, therefore, to ask you to inform me without the least delay whether you hold instructions to enforce your policy with the use of arms. In any event I trust that you will be able to reply to give assurances that will tend to allay the apprehensions existing in the community.

I have the honor to be, with the greatest consideration, your excellency's obedient servant,

SANFORD B. DOLE, Minister of Foreign Affairs. The remainder of the correspondence consists of communications between Minister Willis and President Dole, referred to in the letter of Secretary Gresham.

AN ONSLAUGHT BY MR. SPERRY OF CONNECTICUT.

MANY OBJECTIONS POINTED OUT.

He Declares That the Proposed Law Is a Manifest Injustice - Congressman Hall of Missouri Defends the Measure Very Energetically and Explains Its Provislons Quite Fully.

Washington, Jan. 22.-Congressman Sperry, Democrat of Connecticut, who is one of the most active opponents of the income tax idea, declares that the committee has in no way overcome the objection that an income tax is inquisitorial. They do not pry into the incomes of citizens, but leave it for the citizen having an income of over $3,500 to voluntarily make a report as to whether his income exceeds $4,000. This "voluntary" proposition gives no protection to the citizen. The government assessors will select such cent in eleven textile works, five emcitizens as have not made a voluntary statement and will pry into their affairs. The voluntary system also "puts a premium on liars."

Mr. Sperry points out that it will be absolutely impossible for business men to make a voluntary statement as to the amount of their income. He cites an actual case which has come to his attention of a man who has used a large stock of raw wool to make woolen hose without expecting to sell the goods and merely for the purpose of keeping his men employed. The transaction resulted in a net loss of $30,000. He also says that large commercial concerns will never be able to make an estimate of their incomes, They are in the habit of giving credit at from four to six months and their book accounts seldom or nev r show what their income is. If the book accounts are paid it represents income, other: wise it represents loss. There is no practical means of obviating this difficulty.

In the plan to have the disbursing officer of firms or corporations pay the tax on salaries of employes. Sperry said that the proposed law shows its manifest injustice. A salary is a scertainable and it is not like the uncertain profits of a business firm. And yet the employer is compelled to do the bookkeeping and assume the burden of looking after the taxes on all the salaries of his employes.

Mr. Hall of Missouri, on whose bill the income tax measure was based, said to-day: "I find there is much apprehension as to the amount of inome which will be subject to a tax. If, for instance, a man receives a salary of $5,000 a year, the opinion seems to prevail that this entire salary is subjected to a two per cent tax. As a matter of fact, however, all classes of incomes have an exemption of $4,000 so that the man receiving a salary of $5,000 would pay a tax on only $1,000. One of the most inexplicable things to me is the opposition to this income tax bill, as passed by the ways and means committee, from the wealthy classes of the United States. This bill should have been entitled "A bill to suppress demagoguery and the growth of anarchy and socialism."

One of the objections urged against the income tax is that it is inquisitorial in its character. So is the custom house inquisitorial. The danger arising from an investigation of the operation and methods of business men is entirely destroyed by the first part of section 10 of the bill which punishes severely any collector or deputy collector who divulges any information regarding a person's financial condition. I asked the members of the ways and means committee if they could even theoretically frame a tariff bill without an income tax that would yield a sufficient revenue for the years of 1895 and 1896 and not have a deficit of $25,000,000 for 1897 and 1898. They said it could not be done.'

THE SUGAR SCHEDULE.

The Hottest Fight on the New Tariff Bill Yet to Come.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22.-The most determined fight of all those produced or likely to be produced by the Wilated Monday when, according to agreement, the sugar schedule will engross the attention of the house. It is a question whether even the income tax proposition will ally unanimous vote, deciden in fa-be as sharply fought, for that scheme vor of Settle, Republican, whose seat is dependent to a large degree upon the sugar matter. If the proposal to from the Fifth North Carolina distax imported sugar one cent per trict pound shall be received with favor, it is probable that the income tax idea will be dropped because of Eastern opposition and because the sugar tax will supply the deficiency, to meet which it has been proposed to tax in of Richland Centre, Wis.

Mr. Harter of Ohio, a Democratic leader of highest fighting ability, will on Monday move an amendment to the Wilson bill doing away with the sugar bounty and putting a tax of one cent per pound on sugar. This proposed amendment is for the purpose revenue only, he Representative Johnson of Ohio champion absolute free sugar without bounty or duty. Mr. McRae of Arkansas, Democrat, today gave notice in the house that he would on Monday offer an amendment to strike out the sngar bounty.

DUN'S TRADE REVIEW. The Business World Pleased With the Bond Call.

NEW YORK, Jan. 22.-R. G. Dun & Co.'s Weekly Review of Trade says: "The event of the week is the offer of $50,000,000 United States five per cent ten-year bonds. The decision of the secretary gives much satisfaction to all who care for a sound currency, because the necessities of the treasury dangerously strengthening those who arged the issue of $50,000,000 more silver certificates and the coinage of silver seigniorage. The gold represented by certificates has fallen below $70,000,000. The revenue continues to fall behind that of last year about $5,000,000 per month, and action in congress on various financial measures is liable at any time to excite doubts whether gold payments can be maintained; hence replenishment of the gold reserve was necessary to a restoration of confidence and a revival of business. The immediate effects were not great, though it is hoped improvement may be hastened. While the industrial improvement continues the gain is slow, and increase in the purchasing power of the people by enlargement of the force at work is in a measure counterbalanced by the loss in purchasing power of the people through reduction in wages During the past week, dispatches have told of reductions averaging 13 per cent in fifteen iron and steel works, and averaging 151/4 per reduced wages 20 per cent. Meanwhile twenty-five textile and eleven iron and steel concerns resumed wholly or in part, against seventeen textile and four iron concerns stopping or reducing force. The volume of business done has increased in leading branches, but not largely. Textile works resuming are mostly calico goods concerns, with some worsted works.

SOVEREIGN'S PROPOSED ACTION. Specific Claims Which He Will Make in Asking a Restraining Order.

DES MOINES, Ia., Jan. 22. - General Master Workman Sovereign was seen last night in regard to the proposed injunction against Secretary Carlisle. "It may be a good deal like a mouse tackling a lion," he said, "but we are going to do it."

The following specific claims are made by the persons seeking injunction against the bond issue:

"There is nothing in the law providing for a reserve fund at this time in the United States treasury of $100,-000,000. There is no provision in the law for any special reserve as construed by the present government. The fact that the secretary of the treasury is to offer for sale a greater amount of bonds than the so-called legal reserve bonds than the so-called legal reserve indicates that he is not offering them for the purpose of redemption, and it for the purpose of redemption, and it further shows that he has not offered them for sale for any of the purposes specified in the law of January 14, 1875, the resumption act. The secretary of the treasury has no authority to offer bonds for sale for any purpose. There is no deficit in the United States reserve fund, for the silver at present in the treasury is more than double the the so-called deficit in the so-called largel reserve. legal reserve.
