Pat Sullivan, living three miles northeast of this city, had the misfortune to lose a valuable mare last Monday night. It appears that the mare got out on the highway and was struck by a car in front of the John Kelly residence. Another car coming along found the injured mare and notified Mr. Kelly who notified Mr. Sullivan and he called a local veterinarian. Nothing could be done for the animal and she had to be shot. The mare weighed about 1,500 pounds and was the best horse Mr. Sullivan owned, and was worth better than $150.
