Washington Echoes In The State House
 Appointment of a Nebraskan recommended by Senator Burke, of Nebraska, is expected in a few days, the appointee to succeed Rowland Haynes, eastern social worker, as administrator of the Nebraska FERA.
 A. C. Tilley, state engineer, has been informed that the state is to receive $9,000,000 of federal work relief funds for elimination of railroad crossings and expansion of highways. Mr. Tilley says he is pleased, altho Nebraska federal authorities had hinted just before the legislature passed the $4,000,000 state relief bill, that Nebraska would receive around $17,500,000 of work relief money if the state behaved correctly.

Mrs. Henry Zimmerman came over from Spencer Tuesday morning to attend Memorial Day services here and also to spend a few days visiting old time friends.
 Representative Lloyd Gillespie and Mrs. Gillespie returned from Lincoln last Sunday afternoon, the legislative session closing in the early hours of Sunday morning.
 Ed O'Donnell, who is located at North Platte, had business in this territory the latter part of last week and spent a couple of days visiting relatives and friends here.
 Mrs. Fred Byrnes and son, Robert, of Minneapolis, Minn., arrived in the city last Monday for a weeks visit at the home of Mrs. Byrnes sister, Mrs. L. C. Chapman, and with their niece and cousin, Miss Ruth Simpson.

The merchants of the average small town determine to a large extent on how good a trading point the town may become. Several factors influence this. Among them are the type of merchants, the kind of stocks carried, their skill in merchandising, attractive stores and advertising. A good live group of merchants who advertise aggressively and liberally can make any town an up and coming town.—Bloomfield Monitor.

Mrs. John T. Rohde left for Omaha Tuesday morning where she will spend a few days visiting with her daughters, Mrs. Anna Boukal and Mrs. Harry Eagan. While in Omaha she will attend the graduation exercises of her daughter, Miss Margaret Rhode, who graduates from the St. Joseph hospital school of nursing. After graduation Miss Margaret expects to accompany her mother home for a couple of weeks visit with the home folks.
