BRIEFLY STATED

Fred J. Minder, of Lincoln, secretary of the Nebraska State Press association, was an O'Neill visitor Wednesday and made this office a short call. Mr. Minder says he has been over a good deal of the state the past couple of months and that he finds that in some sections business in the printing line is improving, while in others it is about at a standstill.

Roy Patras, 38, who died at Norfolk Thursday, September 26, residing at Clearwater, was a nephew of Morris (Mike) Johnson of this city by marriage and he was a brother of Mrs. Clyde Keller of O'Neill. His wife is a daughter of Frank Johnson of Plainview, a brother of Morris. Mrs. Tom Edwards of this city also was a cousin to Mr. Patras. His death followed an operation performed at Norfolk.

Gerhard Huntman and sisters, the Misses Sophia and Anna, came up from Plainview Wednesday morning to spend the day visiting friends in this city and vicinity. While in the city Gerhard was a pleasant caller at this office and extended his subscription to The Frontier for another year. He says they will have some corn on their Pierce county farm this year, but that the crop is very light, except in the extreme northern part of the county.

Miss Florence Leamy, of Pierce, formerly of this city, was in O'Neill the first of the week visiting old friends here. Miss Leamy recently returned from a three months trip around the world, landing in New York a few weeks ago. She visited relatives in several eastern states before returning to her home at Pierce. While across the water Miss Leamy visited China, Japan,

The stoker in the basement of Pete Todsen's home got too active last Wednesday morning crowding the coal into the furnace causing a great deal of smoke and bringing out the fire department. No damage was done and the stoker was soon regulated so that is eased its strenuous duties.

This office is in receipt of a letter from H. E. Donohoe, of Chehalis, Wash., ordering The Frontier sent to his address for the ensuing year. Hugh is a native of this county, being raised out in Shields township. After graduating from the local high school he attended law school and has been a successful practicing attorney in the west for many years. He says he was desirous of receiving the news from his old home town and knew of no better medium to secure the knowledge than thru the columns of the old reliable.

Judge and Mrs. R. R. Dickson returned last Sunday from Los Angeles after a visit with relatives and friends there and in other cities along the coast. Mrs. Dickson went west about three months ago and visited a month with her sister, Mrs. Sadie Simpson, at Leavenworth, Wash. She then went to Oakland and put in several weeks visiting her brother, Lawrence and family. She was joined there by Judge Dickson about three weeks ago and they then went down to Los Angeles and San Diego, where they visited old time friends and former O'Neillites. They say they had an enjoyable trip and had many pleasant visits with former residents of this city.

The first of the week Jess Mellor received a letter from Lt. Col. Charles A. Meals, retired, of San Francisco, Calif. Charles was raised in this county and is a graduate of the O'Neill High school and was appointed to West Point Military Academy by the late M. P. Kinkaid, being the first young man to be appointed to the military academy from this county, two others being appointed from this county after Mr. Meals, Owen Meredith and Francis Brennan. Mr. Meals is now retired and living in San Francisco, and he is of the opinion that California is the greatest state in the union. His sister, Mrs. Romaine Saunders, is now living in the southwestern part of this county. Charlie de-sires to be remembered to all his old time friends who are still living here and says that he has fond recollections of his early days in this city.
