"THINK NOT OF THE PROFIT"

A MODERN educator urges the youth of the land to turn their backs on the objective of accumulating wealth, to make their goal the enrichment of life. In these times he says, those deciding upon their path in the world should ask of any enterprise not "Will it yield profit and wealth?" but "Does it in every particular enrich life?"
Bolted down, that means select work that you will do for the love of it rather than with the object of accumulating wealth through it. And it seems to me that advice holds good for all times.
And the best reason for it is not an idealistic one or a spiritual one, as its author thought, but a practical one.
From my observation those who have achieved success and fortune with it have very rarely been those who started out with the idea of becoming successful to attain wealth. The idea of "fame and fortune" may to a certain extent have a relationship in the dreams of the ambitious. But wanting fame and fortune never brought them any closer than the moon.

It is the people who had something they wanted to do—an idea they wanted to bring to life—work which meant something to them, who have "made good" with all that that implies. And the probability is that where wealth was a part of the rewards it played no great part in their own satisfaction. It was not what they were after; that is why they got it—in addition to what they were after.
No, "think not of the profit, but of the work you love to do"—for the most practical of reasons. That is that preoccupation with the profit of a venture in work is the surest road to its failure.

Mother's Cook Book

THE DAY OF LEFTOVERS

IN EVERY well-regulated home there will be nice food which should not be slighted because it is left over. One housekeeper cleverly gets everything eaten by serving a tray with small dishes, nicely warmed and seasoned and each member of the family may have a choice. The food never goes begging.
In these days of vegetable plates one may have a hot vegetable plate with a few spoons of peas, beans, tomatoes, cabbage or onions. Such a meal is often preferred by those who realize that they eat too much meat.
Leftover baked potatoes make most delicious creamed potatoes, having quite a different flavor from the freshly cooked or boiled ones.
One large grapefruit when carefully peeled and the sections (minus their covering) placed on tender lettuce with a sprinkling of shredded almonds and a good dressing, make the best of salad.
By the way, our beauty dietitians tell us that a dozen almonds a day with an apple, banana or a glass of fruit juice is one of the best luncheons for beautifying the complexion. The almonds must be carefully masticated.

Rice and Meat Mold.

Mix two cups of boiled rice with one-half teaspoon of salt and line a buttered mold with two-thirds of the mixture. Mix two cups of chopped cooked meat with one cup of soft bread crumbs, salt, paprika, two tablespoons each of chopped onions, celery and parsley; add two beaten eggs, one-half cup of milk and pour into the mold. Cover with the remaining rice. Over the top place a thick waxed paper. Set into hot water and bake in a moderate oven 35 minutes. Serve with:

Tomato Sauce

Take two cups of tomatoes, two slices of onion, two bay leaves, two celery leaves, four whole cloves, one teaspoon of salt, one-fourth teaspoon of paprika, one-half teaspoon of sugar and one cup of water. Cook together slowly for 20 minutes. Strain and add to three tablespoons of butter and four of flour that have been well blended. Cook until creamy.

"Yes," replied the cautious citizen. "Sometimes an argument can be made so interesting that no one feels like interrupting it with a fight."

QUESTION BOX

by ED WYNN, The Perfect Fool

Dear Mr. Wynn:
I am writing a play but can't seem to get a finish for it. I have it all completed up to the last curtain. The last scene shows the heroine starving to death. What do you suggest for a finish?
Yours truly,
LENA GAINSTMEE.

Answer: Have the heroine kneel on the stage, lift up her hands and beg for bread, then have the curtain come down with a roll.
Dear Mr. Wynn:
Is it true the best way to make a vegetable speak is to cut out the inside of a melon and make it hollow? (holler).
Yours truly,
Q. KUMBER

Answer: Your guess.
Dear Mr. Wynn:
Is it unlucky to postpone your wedding day?
Yours truly,
I. M. DOINGIT.

Answer: Not if you keep on postponing it.
Dear Mr. Wynn:
My brother and I have an argument for you to settle. He says the "Eye Teeth" are the last teeth people get; while I say it's the "Wisdom Teeth." Please tell us who is right?
Yours truly,
DENT L. FLOSS.

Answer: You are both wrong.
The teeth which people get last are "False Teeth."
Dear Mr. Wynn:
I am a boy nineteen years of age, and intend being a chef. I love to cook. Can you tell me the best way to preserve peaches?
Truly yours,
F. M. ENIT.
Answer: The best way for you to preserve peaches is not to introduce them to any other fellows.

Do You Ever Wonder

Whether the "Pain" Remedy You Use is SAFE?

Ask Your Doctor and Find Out

Don't Entrust Your Own or Your Family's Well-Being to Unknown Preparations

THE person to ask whether the preparation you or your family are taking for the relief of headaches is SAFE to use regularly is your family doctor. Ask him particularly about Genuine BAYER ASPIRIN. He will tell you that before the discovery of Bayer Aspirin most "pain" remedies were advised against by physicians as bad for the stomach and, often, for the heart. Which is food for thought if you seek quick, safe relief.
Scientists rate Bayer Aspirin among the fastest methods yet discovered for the relief of headaches and the pains of rheumatism, neuritis and neuralgia. And the experience of millions of users has proved it safe for the average person to use regularly. In your own interest remember this:
You can get Genuine Bayer Aspirin at any drug store—simply by asking for it by its full name, BAYER ASPIRIN. Make it a point to do this—and see that you get what you want.

Capturing Aksum will impress Ethiopians. The holy city, surrendered by the Ethiopians without a shot, contains the tombs of all Ethiopian rulers since the time of Sheba. The Coptic Christian bishop of Aksum voluntarily gave the keys of the city to the Italian Gen. Emilio de Bono, at Aduwa. He accepted the keys, proclaimed Italy's annexation of Aksum, sent a force to surround the city and prevent looting the monasteries and the ancient cathedral of St. Mary Zion.
In that cathedral the original Ark of the Covenant is believed to be preserved. Ethiopian history relates that when Solomon sent the son of his high priest, with other sons of great dignitaries, to accompany Sheba's son after his visit to his father, the son of the high priest took the original Ark of the Covenant and hid it in the mountain of Sion. In justice to the high priest's son, it must be stated that an angel appeared and gave him instructions about stealing the ark.
George Bernard Shaw discovers that Ethiopia, so-called, is an aggregation of tribes, one ruled fairly well by Halle Selassie, who is called "Emperor," the others doing about as they please.
In some of these tribes, what pleases the natives would seem strange to us. For instance, among the Danakils a lady will not marry a gentleman until he proves that he has killed at least four men. And he must prove it by bringing back the easily identified fragments of four mutilated bodies. Married life with such a lady should never be dull.
Wars come, wars go, Standard Oil goes on forever, working.
Walter Teagle, head of Standard Oil of New Jersey, with oil wells scattered over the world, offers to buy every barrel of oil that Russia exports, many million barrels a year. To avoid ill feeling, Mr. Teagle would let British Royal Dutch-Shell and Anglo-Iranian have part of Russia's surplus.
Your Uncle Sam is very rich now, never had so much gold in his life. The total pile, "an all time high," amounts to more than fifteen billions of dollars.
It wouldn't be such a big pile of gold if the government had not ingenuously raised the price of the gold ounce.
Gold has been coming rapidly from Europe lately, including some gold that frightened Americans sent abroad for its health.

BEDTIME STORY

By THORNTON W. BURGESS

LIGHTFOOT VISITS PADDY THE BEAVER

DEEP in the Green Forest is the pond where lives Paddy the Beaver. It is Paddy's own pond, for he made it himself. He made it by building a dam across the Laughing Brook.
When Lightfoot the Deer bounded away through the Green Forest after watching the hunter pass through the hollow below him, he remembered Paddy's pond. "That's where I'll go," thought Lightfoot. "It is such a lonesome part of the Green Forest that I do not believe that hunter will come there. I'll run over and make Paddy a friendly call."

It Was Paddy the Beaver Taking the Branch to His Woodpile.

So Lightfoot bounded along deeper and deeper into the Green Forest. Presently through the trees he caught the gleam of water. It was Paddy's pond. Lightfoot approached it cautiously. He felt sure he was rid of the hunter who had followed him so far that morning, but he knew that there might be other hunters in the Green Forest. He knew that he couldn't afford to be careless for even one little minute. Lightfoot had lived long enough to know that most of the sad things and dreadful things that happen in the Green Forest and on the Green Meadows are due to carelessness. No one who is hunted, be he big or little, can afford ever to be careless.
Now Lightfoot had know of hunters hiding near water, hoping to shoot him when he came to drink. That always seemed to Lightfoot a dreadful thing, an unfair thing. But hunters had done it before and they might do it again. So Lightfoot was careful to approach Paddy's pond up wind. That is, he approached the side of the pond from which the Merry Little Breezes were blowing towards him, and all the time he kept his nose working. He knew that if any hunters were hidden there, the Merry Little Breezes would bring him their scent and thus warn him.

He had almost reached the edge of Paddy's pond when from the farther shore there came a sudden crash. It startled Lightfoot terribly for just an instant. Then he guessed what it meant. That crash was the falling of a tree. There had been no sound of axes, so he knew it could not have been chopped down by men. It must be that Paddy the Beaver had cut it, and if Paddy was working by daylight it was certain that no one had been around that pond for a long time.
So Lightfoot hurried forward eagerly, but still cautiously. When he reached the bank he looked across towards where the sound of that falling tree had come from. A branch of a tree was moving along in the water and half hidden by it was a brown head. It was Paddy the Beaver taking the branch to his woodpile.

Ship Canal Builder

Col. Brehon Somervell, U. S. A., is in charge of the construction of the Gulf-Atlantic ship canal that is being dug across Florida. It will be a sea-level waterway 200 miles long and will cost $146,000,000. It is expected the canal will be completed in six years.
The first sleeping car was used in 1836 when the Cumberland Valley railroad of Pennsylvania installed a sleeping car service between Harrisburg and Chambersburg. The sleeping car was an adaptation of an ordinary day coach to sleeping requirements. The first fundamental improvement came in 1858, when George Pullman remodeled two Chicago & Alton coaches into sleeping cars.

Hibernating

KENTUCKY Colonel C. H. Emerson, floor manager in charge of the majority side of the house, inspects the famous clock below the gallery of the house of representatives. Sad to relate, a tourist had "borrowed" the minute hand, the same one that was set back so often last session so that it would not be later than 12 when the house adjourned. As a result the chamber has been locked until the next session convenes.
